Comments

- Hi Rachel, This course should remain decimalized. You have an.01 and a .51 version. The shell course (i.e., number without decimal) should not be used on its own. Or you could decide to keep 1101.01 only for classroom and, say, create 1101.02 for online. (by Vankeerbergen,Bernadette Chantal on 09/18/2018 03:02 PM)

A. COURSE DESCRIPTION AND OBJECTIVES

1. Overview

Portuguese 1101.01 is an introduction to the Portuguese language and the cultures that speak it, including their perspectives, practices, and products. The course employs a multifaceted, communicative approach to adult second language acquisition that foments the development of the four skills of listening, speaking, reading, and writing. By the semester's end, students will be able to comprehend, speak, read, and write the language at a basic level by using introductory vocabulary and grammar to carry out essential communicative functions in context and in culturally appropriate ways. These goals are best achieved through using Portuguese as the primary language of communication in the virtual classroom. In addition, active participation on a weekly basis is critical for successful second language acquisition (i.e., in order to acquire Portuguese, you must be engaged intensively in its use!). As a fully-online, self-directed language course, effective time management and self-discipline are critical to student success. It is recommended that students engage with the material on a daily basis (versus attempting to complete all the assignments at once).

2. OSU General Education (GE) Foreign Language Courses: Goals and Expected Learning Outcomes (ELOs)

Foreign language coursework develops a learner's communication skills across ethnic, cultural, ideological, and national boundaries, and helps students develop a better understanding of other cultures and patterns of thought, as well as their own language and culture. For all Portuguese courses (1101.01 through 1103.01), the target language (Portuguese) is the primary language of instruction.

The Expected Learning Outcomes (ELOs) for GE Foreign Language courses at OSU include the following:

1. Students demonstrate basic communicative skills (e.g., listening, speaking, reading, and writing) in a language other than their native language.
2. Students learn about the cultural contexts and manifestations of the peoples who speak the language that they are studying.
3. Students recognize and understand differences and similarities between the cultures and communities of the language that they are studying and their own.

In PORT 1101.01, these ELOs are manifested in the following concrete ways. Students will...

- Develop a vocabulary base relevant to immediate scenarios, including greetings and expressions of courtesy, numbers, dates, and times, classroom objects, university student life and schedules, descriptions of people and things, nationalities and places of origin, daily routines, foods and beverages in a restaurant, and leisure and entertainment.
- Develop a working knowledge of grammatical structures, including subject pronouns, articles and nouns, adjectives and possessive adjectives, adverbs, interrogative words, the present tense (with regular, irregular, and stem-changing verbs), and the present progressive.
- Use vocabulary and grammar to carry out various communicative functions, such as responding to and asking questions in the classroom and community; telling time; exchanging basic information about class schedules and campus life; asking for and giving simple directions; claiming possessions; describing yourself and others; comparing and contrasting; sharing personal preferences and feelings; talking about daily activities; planning activities; ordering food in a restaurant; talking about ethnic and cultural diversity; and expressing future actions.
- Listen to and understand simple passages and conversations in context.
- Read and understand simple, authentic texts.
- Write comprehensible paragraphs that express basic ideas about the scenarios studied.
- Speak at a comprehensible level to engage in interpersonal conversations and express basic ideas about the scenarios studied.
- Demonstrate an understanding of the perspectives, practices, and products (ACTFL's 3 P's) of various Portuguese-speaking cultures.
- Demonstrate knowledge of the geography of the Portuguese-speaking world.
- Use technology and expand digital literacy to explore and reinforce cultural and linguistic concepts.

C. COURSE POLICIES

1. Course Prerequisite

Portuguese 1101.01 is a course designed for "true beginners", for students who have placed into the level via the Portuguese placement test, or for those who have taken one year or less of Portuguese in middle or high school. Portuguese 1101.01 is not open to native speakers of Portuguese or to students who have OSU EM (Examination Mark) test credit or transfer credit for 1101.01.

2. Course Sequence

Portuguese 1101.01 is the first course in a three-course sequence (1101.01, 1102.01, 1103.01) that fulfills the foreign language requirement of the College of Arts and Sciences. Students enrolled in Portuguese 1101.01 are eligible to enroll in Portuguese 1102.01 after successful completion of this course.

3. Academic Misconduct

"It is the responsibility of the Committee on Academic Misconduct (COAM) to investigate or establish procedures for the investigation of all reported cases of student academic misconduct. The term 'academic misconduct' includes all forms of student academic misconduct wherever committed; illustrated by, but not limited to, cases of plagiarism and dishonest practices in connection with examinations. If your instructor suspects academic misconduct, they are obligated by University Rules to report any suspicions to COAM (Faculty Rule 3335-5-487). For additional information, see the Code of Student Conduct at <https://studentlife.osu.edu/resources/>.

Academic misconduct is defined as any activity that tends to compromise the academic integrity of the institution, or subvert the educational process. Such instances include, but are not limited to: cheating on assignments or exams, collusion, falsification of excuses, submitting work from a previous semester without explicit permission of the current instructor, violation of course rules contained in the syllabus or provided in class, or plagiarism. Plagiarism is the representation of another's works or ideas as one's own: it includes the unacknowledged word for word use and/or paraphrasing of another person's work, and/or the inappropriate unacknowledged use of another person's ideas. Using online or electronic translators is a form of plagiarism when used to form phrases longer than a few words. Plagiarism via the Internet is not only dishonest; it is also likely to be caught. Formal writing assignments, if they are clear and course-specific, do not match well content available on the Internet, and search engines make the detection of plagiarism as easy as plagiarism itself. For a written piece or oral report, for example, aim to use the vocabulary, grammatical structures, and strategies that you have learned in this course. Paraphrase information; do not "cut and paste" entire paragraphs from the Internet. For more on university policies concerning plagiarism, including information on the formal hearing process by the Committee on Academic Misconduct, visit the COAM FAQ page.

4. Student Life Disability Services (SLDS)

"Students with disabilities that have been certified by the Office of Student Life Disability Services (SLDS) will be appropriately accommodated and should inform the instructor as soon as possible of their needs." The Office of SLDS is located in 098 Baker Hall, 113 W. 12th Ave.; telephone 614-292-3307, TDD 614-292-0901; <http://slds.osu.edu/>.

This online course requires use of a variety of technology such as Carmen (Ohio State's learning management system) and other online communication and multimedia tools (e.g., streaming audio and video, synchronous and asynchronous course tools, etc.). If you need additional services to use any of these technologies, please request accommodations with your instructor immediately.

5. Instructor Feedback & Response Time

5.a. E-mail

You may expect a reply to email within 24-48 hours during normal business days (i.e., Monday-Friday). For example, an email sent at 3:00 PM on Friday should receive a response by 3:00 PM the following Tuesday. For a quicker response, utilize the course eClassroom located within Carmen (carmen.osu.edu > PORT 1101.01 > Modules > eClassroom) or contact a classmate directly. All correspondence should be professional and respectful in nature.

5.b. Grading/ Feedback

For instructor-graded assignments (e.g., TalkAbroad reflections, formal writing assignments, etc.), feedback should be provided within 7 business days. If you wish to further discuss any aspect of an assignment, please do not hesitate to contact your instructor with additional questions, comments, or concerns.

6. Student Participation Requirements

6.a. Logging in

Although the course assignments will require logging in to Carmen and/or MyLab multiple times per week, be sure you are consulting the course page in Carmen at least once per week; this includes weeks with holidays or weeks with minimal online course activity. If you have a situation that may cause you to miss an entire week of class, discuss it with your instructor as soon as possible.

6.b. Participating in the course eClassroom

The eClassroom within the Discussion tab in Carmen serves as a virtual space in which you can connect with both your instructor and classmates. It also represents a Q & A platform for all course-relevant questions and comments (e.g., Não respondi bem à segunda questão do ML 11-46.; Por que o subjuntivo é usado?; Quando a versão final da composição é entregue?, etc.)

6.c. Participating in group/partner activities

In addition to the eClassroom (mentioned in 8b above), you will also communicate regularly with classmates via Carmen Conferences and periodically with a conversation partner abroad via <https://www.alkabroad.com>. Your participation in partner/group activities is crucial; don't let classmates down by falling behind on these commitments!

Please note that all group/partner assignments are synchronous activities and require pre-planning with your partner(s) to establish a mutually convenient time to connect online. Once the activity is complete, each student will be evaluated based off his/her individual contribution (i.e., your grade cannot be affected by teammates' participation and/or performance.) Each partner/group activity will be evaluated on a credit/no-credit basis. [NOTE: 100%= complete and well done; 0% = partially complete or not well done or missing (i.e., not completed).] See Section G for further details.

7. Online Discussion & Communication Guidelines & Recommendations

7.a. Writing style

While there is no need to participate in class activities as if you were writing a formal academic paper, you should remember to write using good grammar, spelling and punctuation. Informal writing (including an occasional emoticon) is fine for non-academic topics. All forms of communication (i.e., written, spoken, etc.) should avoid the use of vulgar, sexually suggestive, or otherwise inappropriate content. Failure to act in accordance with this policy may result in dismissal from the course.

7.b. Tone & Civility

It is important to recognize the role we each play in maintaining a supportive online-learning community. Remember that certain informal styles (e.g., sarcasm, irony, etc.), which rely heavily on vocal inflections and/or nonverbal cues to accurately convey the intent, do not always directly transfer in online discourse. In order to cultivate and sustain a safe learning environment in which we can communicate freely, and be free to amicably disagree, it is crucial to be cognizant of our tone while participating in the online community.

G. GRADE COMPONENTS

1. Homework

During the course, homework assignments will come from two sources: a.) pre-assigned activities in MyLab (ML), and b.) additional activities assigned by your instructor throughout the semester. Due dates, evaluation criteria, and other pertinent information is detailed below. No late homework will be accepted.

1.a. MyLab:

MyLab is the online platform utilized during this course to access online homework, tutorials, and assessment products. Throughout the semester you will be expected to complete two types of weekly activities within the MyLab system: 1) activities directly from the eText (identified in the course calendar as ML TXT), and 2) activities from the Student Activity

Manual (identified as ML SAM). All assigned ML activities and their due dates are clearly indicated in both the course calendar in section H (below) and in an electronic calendar within ML; all due dates are represented in the electronic ML calendar by an alarm clock icon. Lastly, all MyLab assignments are due by 11:59 PM on the date indicated.

ML activities will be assigned weekly from both the eText (ML TXT) and the Student Activities Manual (ML SAM). The MyLab system will automatically score and offer feedback on these pre-assigned activities, since they are machine-gradable. To encourage practice, MyLab will allow you to repeat an activity up to 100 times and will display and use only the highest score achieved in order to calculate chapter averages. The system will indicate the correct responses for an activity only after it has come due at 11:59 PM, so you can return to the activity later to check answers. Furthermore, any unassigned activities attempted or completed by you will not affect your chapter averages positively or negatively, so feel free to experiment!

1.b. Additional activities:

Throughout the semester, your instructor will assign additional activities to be completed by specific deadlines. These activities include a brief quiz over the course syllabus, a brief user agreement regarding the use of the online proctoring software, Proctorio, an activity on inserting special characters in Portuguese, and any additional miscellaneous readings, worksheets, and/or short videos. Assignment details, evaluation criteria, and other pertinent information are detailed below.

Syllabus quiz:

- Overview: Each student is required to review the course syllabus and complete a brief quiz over its content. The quiz is available on Carmen and due by the end of the first week (by Sunday at 11:59PM).
- Grading: As the assignment is evaluated on a credit/no credit, a score of 100% must be earned in order to receive full credit (where 100% credit= a score of 100% is earned and a score of 0%= less than a score of 100% is earned or the assignment is missing). [NOTE: You have unlimited attempts to take the syllabus quiz.]

Using Proctorio in PORT 1101 user agreement:

- Overview: Before students can use the online proctoring software, Proctorio, to complete formal assessments in the course, each student is required to agree to the terms and conditions of using Proctorio in PORT 1101. Students who do not agree to the terms and conditions established in the assignment "Proctorio in PORT 1101" will be required to take all course assessment in person at the OSU Testing Center (Main Campus). For additional details about using Proctorio in PORT 1101, please consult section 5 below titled Proctoring of Formal Quizzes, Midterm and Final Exam. [NOTE: If you are under the age of 18 you are not eligible to use Proctorio. You should contact your instructor as soon as possible to discuss proctoring options for your course quizzes and exams.]
- Grading: The assignment is graded on a credit/no-credit basis where 100% credit= a submission was received indicating either "acceptance" or "rejection" of the Proctorio terms and conditions, and 0%= no submission was received.

Inserting special characters in Portuguese:

- Overview: Each student will be expected to complete a brief assignment on inserting special characters in Portuguese. This activity will help you use special characters as you complete various assignments and the formal assessments throughout the semester. Please note that you will not be required to memorize the codes for inserting special characters. Nonetheless, it is important that you practice inserting special characters before completing the first assessment (i.e., Quiz1).
- Grading: As the assignment is evaluated on a credit/no credit, a score of 100% must be earned in order to receive full credit (where 100% credit= complete and well-done and a score of 0%= partially complete or not well done or missing (i.e., not completed).

Self-checks:

- Overview: Each student will be expected to complete brief "self-checks" throughout the course. These informal assessments allow you to evaluate your understanding of specific concepts as you move throughout the material. In addition, the self-checks provide feedback to your instructor to better gauge your progress with course material. Self-checks can be found within the weekly modules in Carmen and are due on Sundays by 11:59PM.
- Grading: As the assignment is evaluated on a credit/no credit, a score of 100% must be earned in order to receive full credit (where 100% credit= complete and well-done and a score of 0%= partially complete or not well done or missing (i.e., not completed).

Additional miscellaneous assignments (e.g., worksheets, readings, activities, etc.):

- Overview: Lastly, your instructor reserves the right to assign miscellaneous assignments that s/he believes contributes to your growth in the field of Portuguese language and/or culture. These assignments may include but are not limited to PowerPoints, handouts, readings, videos, songs, etc. Your instructor will provide additional information regarding assignment instructions, points, and deadlines for each additional activity. If you ever have any questions or concerns, contact your instructor immediately!

2. Speaking activities

Throughout the course you will have opportunities to engage in authentic, meaningful conversations in Portuguese in three ways: a.) synchronous Conversas semanais with a classmate, b.) synchronous Conversa com o/a professor/a with both your instructor and classmates, and, c.) a synchronous TalkAbroad conversation with a native speaker living in a Portuguese-speaking country. These activities are designed to encourage natural conversation in Portuguese. You will not be evaluated on your grammar or pronunciation, so take advantage of these valuable opportunities to practice speaking in Portuguese! As per grading, each of these activities are completed on a credit/no-credit basis. If it appears that you are simply reading prepared answers (or scripts) during any of these conversations, you will receive a zero for the assignment without an opportunity to resubmit the work. Additional details for each assignment are available below.

2.a. Conversas semanais (via Carmen Conferences)

- Overview: Throughout the course you will be expected to participate in eight 30-minute conversations with a classmate via Carmen conferences. These partner activities are synchronous video chats and will require scheduling a mutually convenient time between both students in order to complete the assignment. Carmen will automatically assign groups for each of these conversation activities. The first group member to log in to Carmen will need to create the conference session. Additional instructions on how to set up your Carmen conference sessions will be provided by your instructor during the semester.
- Topics: Your instructor will provide suggested topics in Portuguese before each Conversas semanais assignment. You are free to use the suggested topics and/or discuss (in Portuguese) subjects that are of mutual interest to both partners.
- Grading: These conversations will be graded on credit/no credit where 100% credit represents active participation in the target language (i.e., Portuguese) for the entire duration of the activity and 0% represents minimal or no participation. For your final course grade, each conversation is worth 1% for a total of 8% (1% x 8 conversations = 8%). Specific due dates are available in the course calendar in section H.

2.b. Conversa com o/a professor/a! (via Carmen Conferences)

- Overview: Throughout the semester your instructor will organize three (3) small group virtual meetings via Carmen conferences. These 30-minute groups chats are a great opportunity not only get to know your instructor and other classmates but get live feedback on your speaking!
- Topics: During each conversation you will discuss topics directly related to the material studied during the course. Your instructor will provide more information about topics as needed throughout the semester.
- Grading: Each conversation will be evaluated on a credit/no-credit basis where 100% credit= active participation during the entire conversation and 0% credit= minimal or no participation. Please note that you are awarded full credit for simply trying to speak in Portuguese! Mistakes are expected and a natural part of the learning process! For your final course grade, each conversation is worth 1% for a total of 3% (1% x 3 conversations = 3%). All due dates are available in the course calendar in section H.

2.c. TalkAbroad (via TalkAbroad.com)

- Overview: Lastly, you will be required to participate in one (1) conversation through TalkAbroad and complete a reflection assignment about the experience. The conversation will be 30 minutes in duration and will take place through www.talkabroad.com at the cost of $15 per conversation. Both the conversation and the reflection represent two separate grades. Additional details on the conversation and reflection assignments are given below.
- TalkAbroad Conversation: In order to get started, you first will need to create a free TalkAbroad account, join the specific class section shown on page 2 of this syllabus (Section B.2.a), and purchase one (1) conversation. Then, you will choose a TalkAbroad conversation partner and select a date and time from his/her online schedule.

Please note that, according to the rules of TalkAbroad as a company, all appointments must be booked at least 36 hours in advance. If, for whatever reason, you need to reschedule or cancel your appointment, all requests must be submitted at least 12 hours in advance in order for the credit(s) to be refunded to your account. On the day of your appointment, it is critical that you are set up and ready to begin your scheduled appointment on time to ensure a full 30 minutes to complete your conversation. Partners have appointments every 30 minutes and need to begin and end conversations on time, even if a student arrives late. Your conversation will be recorded and photographed automatically, and the audio file will be available to you for review in your TalkAbroad account. Your instructor will access your recording, photograph, and time log through TalkAbroad. The conversation is worth 3% of the overall course grade (3% x 1 conversation= 3%). As per grading, the conversation will be evaluated according to its duration:

- TalkAbroad conversation, you will assignment on assignment consists of to help you process

Grading of Conversation
• 25:00-30:00 minutes= 100% credit
• 20:00-24:59 minutes= 75% credit
• 15:00-19:59 minutes= 50% credit
• 00:00-14:59 minutes= 0% credit

Reflection: After you complete your need to submit a reflection language and culture. This questions and answers in English, your experience conversing with a native speaker in Portuguese. The reflection must be submitted via Carmen on the date and time specified by your instructor. For each day (up to a maximum of three) that a reflection is late beyond its due date, 5% will be subtracted from the assessed final grade percentage, up to a total of 15% off for lateness. On the fourth day and beyond (including the two days of the weekend), a reflection will no longer be accepted for credit. The reflection is worth 2% of the overall course grade (2% x 1 reflection= 2%). As per grading, the reflection will be evaluated according to the following parameters:

Grading of Reflection
• All sections answered thoroughly= 100% credit
• All sections answered but not thoroughly= 75% credit
• Only some sections answered= 50% credit
• No questions answered, or no submission= 0% credit

3. Formal Writing Assignment

One pre-established topic will be assigned over the course of the semester. The formal writing assignments together will be worth 8% of the final course grade and will entail the following 4 separate assignments or steps:

Week 5:	Formal Writing Assignment 1: Pre-writing activity [1% of final grade] Submit via Carmen pre-writing activity (handwritten or typed in Portuguese; credit/no-credit); exact due date to be determined by instructor
----------------	--

Week 6:	Formal Writing Assignment 2: First draft &amp; peer review [1% of final grade] Submit via Carmen first draft (typed, in Portuguese; double-spaced; use the special characters of Portuguese; credit/no-credit); exact due date to be determined by instructor
----------------	---

Week 8:	Formal Writing Assignment 3: Second draft [1% of final grade] Submit via Carmen a second draft of approximately 100-125 words in Portuguese (typed; double-spaced; use the special characters of Portuguese; include a word count (WC); submit also the first draft; credit/no-credit); exact due date to be determined by instructor
----------------	--

Week 12:	Formal Writing Assignment 4: Final draft [5% of final grade] Submit via Carmen a final draft of approximately 100-125 words in Portuguese (typed; double-spaced; use the special characters of Portuguese; include a word count (WC); submit also the second draft; will be graded using the rubric in Appendix 2); exact due date to be determined by instructor

- Definition of "credit/no credit": 100% credit= complete (including any prior assignment requested), well done (in earnest effort), and on time. 0% (no-credit)= partially complete or not well done or missing (i.e., not completed).
- Policy on late submissions: Assignments 1, 2 & 3 must be submitted on the due date and by the time specified by your instructor. No late work will be accepted for credit without acceptable, verifiable documentation. Regarding Assignment 4 (the final draft), for each day (up to a maximum of three) that it is late beyond the due date, 5% will be subtracted from the assessed final grade percentage, up to a total of 15% off for lateness. On the fourth day and beyond (including the two days of the weekend), Assignment 4 will no longer be accepted for credit. For example, if the due date is 11:59 PM on Wednesday, the last possible time when you can submit it for credit (albeit with a loss of 15%) is 11:59 PM on Saturday (by email or through Carmen). In such a case, let's imagine that the instructor deems the 3-day-late final draft to be worth a score of 45 points, or 90% (A-). After the loss of 15% [3 days late x -5%], the student will receive a grade percentage of 75% (C) on the final draft [i.e., 90% - 15% = 75%]. After 3 days, Assignment 4 will receive a zero.
- Policy on originality of work: It should be noted that all 4 assignments must reflect a student's own work, in terms of both content and language. Translations carried out through the use of a computer are unacceptable and will receive the grade of 0%, with no possibility of a resubmission. Furthermore, if you solicit the help of a tutor in your writing, you must simultaneously submit both a marked-up draft signed by the tutor and a clean copy of the draft due, in order to receive credit or a grade (regardless of which of the 4 assignments is involved). You must produce all drafts, on your own, in Portuguese, before soliciting any help from others. This requirement is very important since you will be expected to complete a formal writing assignment directly in Portuguese on the final exam. A tutor may indicate any errors made on a draft by circling (although not correcting) them in an ink color different from your original copy. It is the student's job to then edit and correct his/her own draft. It is obvious to an instructor when a student has received help with writing. If you receive help and the above procedure is not followed (i.e., a signed, marked-up draft reflecting any feedback from a tutor is not submitted with the draft due), you will receive a 0% on that assignment, with no possibility of a resubmission. If you do not receive help on a given draft, you only need to submit your own work.

4. Formal Assessments

During the semester you will be required to three exams: one online midterm, one online final exam, and one oral exam. In addition, you will be required to complete at least two online quizzes. Further details on each formal assessment are available below. Please note that in order to complete online quizzes and exams, you are required to use the University's online proctoring software, Proctorio. Proctorio is designed to detect suspicious behavior so that you can be sure that your exam was proctored fairly and impartially. Additional pertinent information regarding the use of Proctorio in PORT 1101 is available in section five below ("Proctoring of Quizzes, Midterm and Final Exam").

4.a. Quizzes ("Provas")

There will be at least two (2) brief (~20-30 minutes) quizzes, or "provas", administered via Carmen during the semester, one for each of the two textbook chapters not immediately preceding a major exam. Thus, minimally, there will be a brief quiz on Lição Preliminar and on Lição 2. Each quiz will cover listening comprehension, vocabulary, grammar, and culture. Both quizzes are available on Carmen for a 24-hour window and close by 11:59 PM on the date indicated in the course calendar. Please be aware that any suspicion of academic misconduct will be reported to COAM.

4.b. Exams

There will be two exams: a midterm exam covering Lições Preliminar and 1 and a cumulative final exam (Lições Preliminar - 3). You will have a window in which you must complete each exam; the midterm must be completed within two 55-minute session between Thursday, Oct. 4th and Friday, Oct. 5th while the final exam must be completed within two 60-minute session between Friday, Dec. 7th- Tuesday, Dec. 11th. Please be aware that any suspicion of academic misconduct will be reported to COAM.

4.c. Oral Exams

One oral exam will be administered during the semester through the Conference feature in Carmen. The oral exam will take place sometime during Weeks 13-14. You will take the oral exam individually with your instructor on a mutually convenient date and time. A sign-up sheet will be made available on Carmen. Please select your day and time carefully as you will not be able to reschedule without acceptable documentation. The format of the exam will be spontaneous in nature (i.e., not read or memorized material); thus, the best way to prepare for it is to complete all speaking assignments and actively participate throughout the semester in Portuguese. The oral exam will be evaluated according to the criteria in Appendix 2. Further details about the oral exam will be provided by your instructor at a later date in the semester.

5. Proctoring of Formal Quizzes, Midterm and Final Exam

Throughout the semester you will be asked to complete at least four formal assessments via the University's learning management system, Carmen. In order to complete online quizzes and exams you will need Proctorio, the online proctoring software that is fully integrated into all Carmen course(s) at OSU. Before you will be allowed to use Proctorio, you will be required to read and agree to the following terms and conditions during a brief Carmen "quiz" titled "Using Proctorio in PORT 1101.01." Please note that in order to be eligible to use the online proctoring software in this course you must earn 100% on the assignment.

Overview of Proctorio: Proctorio is an online proctoring software utilized by Ohio State University to administer online assessments. It is designed to track 20 types of suspicious behavior so that you can be sure that your exam was proctored fairly and impartially. Once you complete each quiz/exam, your instructor will automatically be sent a "suspicion" report for his/her review. The report will indicate any abnormal behavior detected during the session; abnormal behaviors include but are not limited to obstruction of any portion of your face, communication with someone on and/or off screen, activation of the copy and paste, print, and/or screen capture feature, and use of other electronic devices.

Terms and conditions for using Proctorio in PORT 1101: In order to use the online proctoring software to complete course quizzes and exams, you must abide by the following requirements. If at any point during a quiz/exam you choose to violate the terms listed below a zero will be awarded for the assessment. Furthermore, if your instructor suspects academic misconduct a report will be submitted to the University's Committee on Academic Misconduct (COAM). Review the following requirements for using Proctorio to complete course quizzes and exams. If you have any questions or concerns, contact your instructor.

A student using Proctorio to complete a quiz and/or exam in PORT 1101.01 must...

- keep his/her entire face visible during exam
- keep his/her eyes towards the screen
- take the exam alone in a private room/space
- turn off all sources of external sound such as but not limited to radio, tv, phones, etc.
- remove all phones, laptops, tablets, and/or other electronic devices from view
- remove all external resources (e.g., books, websites, notes, etc.)
- avoid the use of features such as copy and paste, screen capture, and print

NOTE: You must be 18 or older to use Proctorio. If you are under the age of 18 please notify your instructor by the end of week 2 of the semester so that alternative accommodations may be arranged.

A. COURSE DESCRIPTION AND OBJECTIVES

1. Overview

Portuguese 1101.01 is an introduction to the Portuguese language and the cultures that speak it, including their perspectives, practices, and products. The course employs a multifaceted, communicative approach to adult second language acquisition that foment the development of the four skills of listening, speaking, reading, and writing. By the semester's end, students will be able to comprehend, speak, read, and write the language at a basic level by using introductory vocabulary and grammar to carry out essential communicative functions in context and in culturally appropriate ways. These goals are best achieved through using Portuguese as the primary language of communication in the classroom, consistent attendance, daily pre-class preparation, and active in-class participation (i.e., in order to acquire Portuguese, you must be engaged intensively in its use!).

2. OSU General Education (GE) Foreign Language Courses: Goals and Expected Learning Outcomes (ELOs)

Foreign language coursework develops a learner's communication skills across ethnic, cultural, ideological, and national boundaries, and helps students develop a better understanding of other cultures and patterns of thought, as well as their own language and culture. For all Portuguese courses (1101.01 through 1103.01), the target language (Portuguese) is the primary language of instruction.

The Expected Learning Outcomes (ELOs) for GE Foreign Language courses at OSU include the following:

1. Students demonstrate basic communicative skills (e.g., listening, speaking, reading, and writing) in a language other than their native language.
2. Students learn about the cultural contexts and manifestations of the peoples who speak the language that they are studying.
3. Students recognize and understand differences and similarities between the cultures and communities of the language that they are studying and their own.

In PORT 1101.01, these ELOs are manifested in the following concrete ways. Students will...

- Develop a vocabulary base relevant to immediate scenarios, including greetings and expressions of courtesy, numbers, dates, and times, classroom objects, university student life and schedules, descriptions of people and things, nationalities and places of origin, family, the home and household chores, daily routines, foods and beverages in a restaurant, and leisure and entertainment.
- Develop a working knowledge of grammatical structures, including subject pronouns, articles and nouns, adjectives and possessive adjectives, adverbs, interrogative words, the present tense (with regular, irregular, and stem-changing verbs), and the present progressive.
- Use vocabulary and grammar to carry out various communicative functions, such as responding to and asking questions in the classroom and community; telling time; exchanging basic information about class schedules and campus life; asking for and giving simple directions; claiming possessions; describing yourself and others; comparing and contrasting; sharing personal preferences and feelings; talking about daily activities; planning activities; ordering food in a restaurant; talking about ethnic and cultural diversity; expressing actions in progress; and expressing future actions.
- Listen to and understand simple passages and conversations in context.
- Read and understand simple, authentic texts.
- Write comprehensible paragraphs that express basic ideas about the scenarios studied.
- Speak at a comprehensible level to engage in interpersonal conversations and express basic ideas about the scenarios studied.
- Demonstrate an understanding of the perspectives, practices, and products (ACTFL's 3 P's) of various Portuguese-speaking cultures.
- Demonstrate knowledge of the geography of the Portuguese-speaking world.
- Use technology and expand digital literacy to explore and reinforce cultural and linguistic concepts.

1. Course Prerequisite

Portuguese 1101.01 is a course designed for "true beginners", for students who have placed into the level via the Portuguese placement test, or for those who have taken one year or less of Portuguese in middle or high school. Portuguese 1101.01 is not open to native speakers of Portuguese or to students who have OSU EM (Examination Mark) test credit or transfer credit for 1101.01.

2. Course Sequence

Portuguese 1101.01 is the first course in a three-course sequence (1101.01, 1102.01, 1103.01) that fulfills the foreign language requirement of the College of Arts and Sciences. Students enrolled in Portuguese 1101.01 are eligible to enroll in Portuguese 1102.01 after successful completion of this course.

3. Academic Misconduct

"It is the responsibility of the Committee on Academic Misconduct (COAM) to investigate or establish procedures for the investigation of all reported cases of student academic misconduct. The term 'academic misconduct' includes all forms of student academic misconduct wherever committed; illustrated by, but not limited to, cases of plagiarism and dishonest practices in connection with examinations. Instructors shall report all instances of alleged academic misconduct to the committee (Faculty Rule 3335-5-487). For additional information, see the Code of Student Conduct at <https://studentlife.osu.edu/resources/>."

Academic misconduct is defined as any activity that tends to compromise the academic integrity of the institution, or subvert the educational process. Such instances include but are not limited to: cheating on assignments or exams, collusion, falsification of excuses, submitting work from a previous semester without explicit permission of the current instructor, violation of course rules contained in the syllabus or provided in class, or plagiarism. Plagiarism is the representation of another's works or ideas as one's own: it includes the unacknowledged word for word use and/or paraphrasing of another person's work, and/or the inappropriate unacknowledged use of another person's ideas. Using online or electronic translators is a form of plagiarism when used to form phrases longer than a few words. Plagiarism via the Internet is not only dishonest; it is also likely to be caught. Composition assignments, if they are clear and course-specific, do not match well content available on the Internet, and search engines make the detection of plagiarism as easy as plagiarism itself. For a written piece or oral report, for example, aim to use the vocabulary, grammatical structures, and strategies that you have learned in this course. Paraphrase information; do not "cut and paste" entire paragraphs from the Internet. For more on university policies concerning plagiarism, including information on the formal hearing process by the Committee on Academic Misconduct, visit the COAM FAQ page.

4. Student Life Disability Services

"Students with disabilities that have been certified by the Office of Student Life Disability Services (SLDS) will be appropriately accommodated and should inform the instructor as soon as possible of their needs. The Office of SLDS is located in 098 Baker Hall, 113 W. 12th Ave.; telephone 292-3307, TDD 292-0901; <http://slds.osu.edu/>."

5. In-class Use of Electronic Devices

Students (especially those with documentation from SLDS) may use electronic devices (such as a laptop or tablet) during class, but only to access course materials. For example, students may access the eText or glossary within MyLab as an alternative to bringing print materials to class. However, personal use of these devices (such as texting, accessing email or social networks, not silencing ring tones, etc.) during class lectures, quizzes and/or exams will not be permitted or tolerated. After two warnings, and upon the third violation by an individual, or if electronic devices become a distraction during class in general, your instructor reserves the right to revoke this privilege from that individual or from the entire class, and/or dismiss that individual from the class session. A dismissal for this reason will result in an unexcused absence. In short, please be respectful and cognizant of these guidelines when using electronic devices!

E. GRADE COMPONENTS & POLICIES

1. Policy on Attendance, Tardiness, and Early Departures from Class

Daily class attendance is crucial for the development of your language skills and therefore for success in this course. Regular attendance is expected. Absences will be closely monitored and fall into three categories: “grace sessions”, excused absences, and unexcused absences. Any unexcused absences will negatively affect your final course grade at the end of the semester, as explained below. Please keep a personal record of any absences, tardies, or early departures from class, and when possible, obtain and keep any documentation that verifies your reasons. A chart for recording such information is provided in Appendix 4 for your convenience.

Grace sessions: Over the course of the semester, you will be allowed four (4) “grace sessions” of 55 minutes (equivalent to one (1) week of class in Autumn or Spring) without the need for official documentation. If your class section meets four days per week (e.g., TWRF from 8:00-8:55 AM), you will be allowed four days of absences as “grace sessions”. If your class section meets two days per week (e.g., TR from 5:30-7:20 PM), you will be allowed two days of absences as “grace sessions” (since one (1) class day= 110 minutes, or two (2) sessions of 55 minutes). In either case, these sessions should not be interpreted as free days! Use them wisely! They should be reserved for foreseeable or unforeseeable events and emergencies, including illness for which medical attention is not sought. In the latter case, it is recommended that you email your Portuguese instructor as soon as possible to inform him/her about needing to miss class (i.e., due to a migraine, etc.). [ATENÇÃO! Should you be absent the day of a quiz or an exam, you must present official, documented proof of illness or of some other calamity in order to be able to make it up. Otherwise, you will receive a zero! See the following paragraph for more information on how to document an absence.]

Excused absences: Any additional absences (beyond the four “grace sessions” of 55 minutes) can be excused if you have an acceptable, verifiable reason. In this context, “acceptable” means an illness, a death in the family (or some other significant family event, such as a wedding), a subpoena, jury duty, military service, performance in a university-sponsored athletic competition, a job interview, etc. “Verifiable” means that you can provide official, original documentation to account for the reason. Such documentation typically provides a phone number that can be called for verification. Examples include a doctor's note (on original letterhead paper; in general, photocopies and faxes will not be accepted), an original program from a funeral or wedding, an obituary, a written call to service from a court of law or other government institution, a note from a university athletic division, etc. Personal notes from friends or relatives will not be accepted as official documentation. Documentation intended to excuse an absence should be presented to your instructor (and, if necessary, to the Language Program Director, Dr. Holly Nibert(.3) and/or Assistant Language Program Directors, Megan Lobert(.3), and/or Dr. Richard Henriksen(.6) as soon as possible. No documentation will be accepted after 11:59 PM of Reading Day, which for Autumn 2018 is Thursday, December 6. [ATENÇÃO! The falsification of official documents is a serious offense that will be reported to the Committee on Academic Misconduct (COAM). See Section C.5 above.]

Unexcused absences: Any additional absences (beyond the "grace sessions" and any excused absences) will be considered unexcused. Each unexcused absence of 55 minutes will result in the lowering of your final course grade by 1% at the end of the semester. For example, in a class section that meets four days per week (e.g., TWRF), if your overall grade is 92% (A-) and you have three (3) unexcused absences of 55 minutes (beyond the "grace sessions" and any excused absences), your final assigned course grade will be 89% (B+) [i.e.,  $92\% - 3\% = 89\%$ ]. In a class section that meets two days per week (e.g., TR), recall that one (1) class day = 110 minutes, or two (2) sessions of 55 minutes. Thus, if a student misses 3 class days without official documentation (beyond the "grace sessions" and any excused absences), an overall grade of 92% (A-) will be lowered to 86% (B), since 3 class days = 6 sessions of 55 minutes [i.e.,  $92\% - 6\% = 86\%$ ].

Late arrivals and early departures from class: Finally, arriving to class late or leaving class early can accumulate into unexcused absences. A late arrival to class (i.e., arriving at any point after your instructor officially begins a class session) or an early departure from class (i.e., leaving at any point before your instructor officially ends a class session) on five (5) different occasions (even if on the same class day) will be counted as one (1) unexcused absence from class. If you have an acceptable, verifiable reason for arriving late or leaving early on a particular class day (e.g., a study abroad interview, a job interview, etc.), these may be excused, following the parameters outlined above for "Excused absences".

In sum, make sure that you clearly understand the attendance, tardiness, and early departure policies for this course, that you keep track of your own records [see Appendix 4], and that you make wise decisions regarding if and when you miss class.

[NOTE: The following message appears on the "Student Health Services" page: "If you had a visit with a health care provider, s/he can provide you with a visit verification form. If your professor will not accept the visit verification form, stop by Administrative Services and Credentialing in room 264, directly across from the elevator. They can provide you with a medical excuse that should be accepted by your professor. If you did not see a health care provider but still need to document your illness, you can use the Absence Excuse Form (PDF)." Please know that the Absence Excuse Form will not be accepted as official documentation for this course. You are expected to reserve and use your four (4) "grace sessions" of 55 minutes to cover this and any other type of absence that cannot be officially documented.]

2. Class Participation

Beyond daily class attendance, consistent, active class participation is also crucial for the development of your language skills and therefore for success in this course. Your overall class participation will be evaluated according to the five criteria specified on the "Class Participation Self-Assessment Sheet," shown in Appendix 1.

At the end of each of the four chapters covered in this course, you will be asked to complete the self-assessment for your instructor either in class or online via Carmen. In order to complete the participation assessment, choose the point value on each scale that most accurately describes your performance for those criteria during that grading period. Then, add up the points and write the resulting total score in the space provided at the end. Your instructor may accept or alter your self-assessment, may offer comments, and then will record the total number of points earned for that chapter or "grading period." By the end of the semester, you will have received four (4) class participation grades.

- NOTE 1: If you do not understand or if you disagree with a change made to your self-assessment, you should discuss the matter with your instructor immediately. Office hours are the most appropriate time for this.
- NOTE 2: If your instructor prefers the online submission of participation grades through Carmen, and you do not submit a self-assessment by the due date indicated by your instructor, s/he reserves the right to simply assign you a participation grade for that chapter.

3. Homework

For each chapter, homework assignments will come from three sources: a.) pre-assigned activities in MyLab (ML) located at www.myPortugueselab.com, b.) daily written homework activities assigned by your instructor (for example, additional activities from MyLab, written out on paper or completed online as preferred by your instructor; extra handouts, etc.), and c.) a synchronous TalkAbroad conversation and reflection assignment. Please note that no late homework will be accepted for MyLab activities or for daily written homework activities. The late policy for the TalkAbroad reflection is specified below in 3.c.

a. MyLab activities: First, regarding the pre-assigned activities in MyLab, various assignments (e.g., Student Activities Manual (SAM) activities, videos, games, etc.) and their due dates appear in the weekly syllabus in Section F. MyLab assignments and their due dates also are indicated within the MyLab system, by means of a clock icon on an electronic calendar. Be sure to check this electronic calendar weekly. All MyLab assignments are due by 11:59 PM on the date indicated, regardless of your particular class section's meeting days and time. The MyLab system will automatically score and offer feedback on these pre-assigned activities, since they are machine-gradable. To encourage practice, MyLab will allow you to repeat an activity up to 100 times and will display and use only the highest score achieved in order to calculate chapter averages. The system will indicate the correct responses for an activity only after it has come due at 11:59 PM, so you can return to the activity later to check answers. Furthermore, any unassigned activities attempted or completed by you will not affect your chapter averages positively or negatively, so feel free to experiment!

b. Daily written assignments: Second, your instructor will assign 2-4 brief written homework activities for each class day (1-2 "review" activities over that day's content and 1-2 "preview" activities to prepare for the next class day's content), to actively review in class, as a class, and thus provide opportunity for questions and clarifications. Each assignment will be due in class at the beginning of the class hour on the due date given by your instructor. On at least 5 class days per chapter (and perhaps more), chosen at random by your instructor, s/he will circulate around the classroom and assign each student's work a grade of credit/no-credit. [NOTE: 100% credit= all activities are completed and well done; 0% (no-credit)= activities are only partially completed or not well done or missing (i.e., not completed).] By the end of the semester, you will have received at least 20 daily written homework grades (= at least 5 per chapter x 4 chapters).

If you are absent from class when an assignment of daily written homework activities is due, you should try to submit it to your instructor's mailbox or as an email attachment that same day. If that is not possible, the assignment will only be accepted if submitted the next session you are present in class. You also are responsible for finding out from your instructor (or from another classmate) what activities were assigned during your absence(s), in order to have all of the work ready to submit upon your return to class. In short, "I wasn't in class yesterday" is not an acceptable excuse for missing or incomplete homework.

c. TalkAbroad: Third, you will be required to participate in one (1) conversation through TalkAbroad and complete a reflection assignment about the experience. The conversation will be 30 minutes in duration and take place through www.talkabroad.com at the cost of $15 per conversation. Both the conversation and reflection represent two separate grades. Additional details on the conversation and reflection assignments are given below.

• TalkAbroad Conversation: In order to get started, you first will need to create a free TalkAbroad account, join the specific class section shown on page 2 of this syllabus (Section B.2.a), and purchase one (1) conversation. Then you will choose a TalkAbroad conversation partner and select a date and time from his/her online schedule. Please note that, according to the rules of TalkAbroad as a company, all appointments must be booked at least 36 hours in advance. If, for whatever reason, you need to reschedule or cancel your appointment, all requests must be submitted at least 12 hours in advance in order for the credit(s) to be refunded to your account. On the day of your appointment, it is critical that you are set up and ready to begin your scheduled appointment on time to ensure a full 30 minutes to complete your conversation. Partners have appointments every 30 minutes and need to begin and end conversations on time, even if a student arrives late. Your conversation will be recorded and photographed automatically, and the audio file will be available to you for review in your TalkAbroad account. Your instructor will access your recording, photograph, and time log through TalkAbroad. The conversation is worth 3% of the overall course grade (3% x 1 conversation= 3%). As per grading, the conversation will be evaluated according to its duration:

Grading of Conversation
• 25:00-30:00 minutes= 100% credit

• 20:00-24:59 minutes= 75% credit
• 15:00-19:59 minutes= 50% credit
• 00:00-14:59 minutes= 0% credit

- TalkAbroad Reflection: After you complete your conversation, you will need to submit a reflection assignment on language and culture. This assignment consists of questions and answers in English, to help you process your experience conversing with a native speaker in Portuguese. The reflection must be submitted either in class or via Carmen on the date and time specified by your instructor. For each day (up to a maximum of three) that a reflection is late beyond its due date, 5% will be subtracted from the assessed final grade percentage, up to a total of 15% off for lateness. On the fourth day and beyond (including the two days of the weekend), a reflection will no longer be accepted for credit. The reflection is worth 2% of the overall course grade (2% x 1 reflection= 2%)The reflection will be evaluated according to the following parameters:

Grading of Reflection
• All sections answered thoroughly= 100% credit
• All sections answered but not thoroughly= 75% credit
• Only some sections answered= 50% credit
• No questions answered, or no submission= 0% credit

4. Formal Writing Assignments

One pre-established topic will be assigned over the course of the semester. The formal writing assignments together will be worth 8% of the final course grade and will entail the following 4 separate assignments or steps:

Week 5:	Formal Writing Assignment 1: Pre-writing activity [1% of final grade] Bring to class pre-writing activity (handwritten or typed in Portuguese; credit/no-credit); exact due date to be determined by instructor
----------------	---

Week 6:	Formal Writing Assignment 2: First draft &amp; peer review [1% of final grade] Bring to class first draft (2-3 copies, either handwritten or typed and printed , in Portuguese; double-spaced; use the special characters of Portuguese; credit/no-credit); exact due date to be determined by instructor
----------------	--

Week 8:	Formal Writing Assignment 3: Second draft [1% of final grade] Bring to class or submit via Carmen a second draft of approximately 100-125 words in Portuguese (typed; double-spaced; use the special characters of Portuguese; include a word count (WC); submit also the first draft; credit/no-credit); exact due date to be determined by instructor
----------------	--

Week 12:	Formal Writing Assignment 4: Final draft [5% of final grade] Bring to class or submit via Carmen a final draft of approximately 100-125 words in Portuguese (typed; double-spaced; use the special characters of Portuguese; include a word count (WC); submit also the second draft; will be graded using the rubric in Appendix 2); exact due date to be determined by instructor

- Definition of "credit/no credit": 100% credit= complete (including any prior assignment requested), well done (in earnest effort), and on time. 0% (no-credit) = partially complete or not well done or missing (i.e., not completed).
- Policy on late submissions: Assignments 1, 2 & 3 must be shown or submitted on the due date and by the time specified by your instructor. No late work will be accepted for credit without acceptable, verifiable documentation. Regarding Assignment 4 (the final draft), for each day (up to a maximum of three) that it is late beyond the due date, 5% will be subtracted from the assessed final grade percentage, up to a total of 15% off for lateness. On the fourth day and beyond (including the two days of the weekend), Assignment 4 will no longer be accepted for credit. For example, if your class section meets four days per week (e.g., TWRf from 8:00-8:55 AM) and your work is due at 8:00 AM on Wednesday, the last possible time when you can submit it for credit (albeit with a loss of 15%) is 8:00 AM on Saturday (by email or through Carmen). In such a case, let's imagine that the instructor deems the 3-day-late final draft to be worth a score of 45 points, or 90% (A-). After the loss of 15% [3 days late x -5%], the student will receive a grade percentage of 75% (C) on the final draft [i.e., 90% - 15% = 75%]. After 3 days, Assignment 4 will receive a zero.

- Policy on originality of work: It should be noted that all 4 assignments must reflect a student's own work, in terms of both content and language. Translations carried out through the use of a computer are unacceptable and will receive the grade of 0%, with no possibility of a resubmission. Furthermore, if you solicit the help of a tutor in your writing, you must simultaneously submit both a marked-up draft signed by the tutor and a clean copy of the draft due, in order to receive credit or a grade (regardless of which of the 4 assignments is involved). You must produce all drafts, on your own, in Portuguese, before soliciting any help from others. This requirement is very important since you will be expected to complete a formal writing assignment directly in Portuguese on the final exam. A tutor may indicate any errors made on a draft by circling (although not correcting) them in an ink color different from your original copy. It is the student's job to then edit and correct his/her own draft. It is obvious to an instructor when a student has received help with writing. If you receive help and the above procedure is not followed (i.e., a signed, marked-up draft reflecting any feedback from a tutor is not submitted with the draft due), you will receive a 0% on that assignment, with no possibility of a resubmission. If you do not receive help on a given draft, you only need to submit your own work.

5. Formal Assessments

a. Quizzes ("Provas/Controles")

There will be at least two (2) brief (~20-30 minutes) quizzes, or "provas", given during the semester, one for each of the two textbook chapters not immediately preceding a major exam. Thus, minimally, there will be a brief quiz on Lição Preliminar and on Lição 2. Each quiz will contain one section on listening comprehension, one section on vocabulary, two sections on grammar, and one section on culture, for a total of five sections. An outline of the quiz (containing the direction lines, point values, and models (where appropriate) for each section of the quiz) will be provided to you at least one week before each quiz date. Your instructor will provide this outline and specify the date of each quiz for your class section.

b. Written Exams

There will be two written exams: a midterm exam given during week 7 of the semester and a final exam given during finals week. The midterm exam will be given over two consecutive 55-minute class sessions. It will cover Lições Preliminar & 1. The final exam will be given during the one-hour and 45-minute time slot of exam week specified for your class section by the University. The final exam will be cumulative but will focus most heavily on Lições 2 & 3. An exam outline (containing the direction lines, point values, and models (where appropriate) for each section) will be provided for both the midterm and final exam at least one week before the established exam date.

This course follows the University-established final exam schedule. Your section's final exam date and time are available for confirmation on the Registrar's website at <https://registrar.osu.edu/scheduling/finals/finals.asp>. Requests to reschedule final exams will not be considered except in the case of legitimate, verifiable, extenuating circumstances, such as a call to military service, serious illness, etc. Reasons such as, "I already bought a plane ticket to go home" will not be honored.

c. Oral Exam

An oral exam of approximately 7 minutes will be given sometime during weeks 12-13 of the semester. The oral exam will be evaluated according to the criteria in Appendix 3. You will take the oral exam individually with your instructor during class time in your regular classroom, on the date and time specified by your instructor at a later point in the semester. The format of the exam will involve spontaneous speaking (i.e., not read or memorized material) for a total of four (4) minutes (two minutes about two different topics). Thus, the best way to prepare for it is to be present in class on a regular basis and actively participate during class in Portuguese, not English, as much as possible. Further details about the oral exam will be provided by your instructor at a later date in the semester.
