

Department of Higher Education

Mike DeWine, Governor
Randy Gardner, Chancellor

December 2, 2020

Dr. Deborah Haddad
Assistant Dean, College of Arts and Sciences
The Ohio State University
Columbus, OH 43221

Dr. Haddad:

Thank you for your request on behalf of The Ohio State University to teach out and deactivate the Bachelor of Arts in Sexuality Studies.

After a review of the documentation, the Chancellor's staff understands that two students remains in the program and will be able to complete the program. The Chancellor's staff approves the teach-out of the degree program through May 8, 2022.

Should The Ohio State University decide to reactivate the program within five years of this letter, please be sure to inform the Chancellor's staff at least 60 days before any program is to be reactivated. If you intend to reactivate the program after five years, a new program review process must be initiated.

Sincerely,

Stephanie McCann, Ph.D.
Associate Vice Chancellor, Academic Program Development and Approval