Dear Professor Brooks and Charles,

On Friday, January 10, the Social and Behavioral Sciences Panel of the ASC Curriculum Committee (ASCC) considered a course change proposal for Political Science 7095: change to credit hours, repeatability, and grading basis.

The Panel unanimously approved the request with two contingencies that pertain to information on the form in curriculum.osu.edu:

- Is the course indeed intended to be repeatable? This seems like the sort of course that would not be repeatable. If it is repeatable, please provide a justification as to why and include another sample syllabus (for the version that repeat students would follow).
- Please explain if/why you intend to allow multiple enrollments in one term. (At first sight, it seem very unlikely that more than one section of 7095 would be taught the same term.)

I will return the course via curriculum.osu.edu in a minute to enable the department to address the feedback above.

Should you have any questions about this feedback, do not hesitate to contact Susan Kline, faculty Chair of the SBS Panel (cc'd here), or me.

Best,
Bernadette
