Sociology 4189.03, Criminal Investigation
The Ohio State University
Autumn 20xx

CLASS TIME AND LOCATION:

INSTRUCTOR: Charlie LoFaso, Ph.D. Candidate, Department of Sociology
CONTACT INFORMATION: 163 Townshend Hall
Email: lofaso.2@osu.edu
OFFICE HOURS: Tuesday/Thursday, 2:00 p.m.–3:00 p.m., or by appointment

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

The course presents criminal investigative techniques with an emphasis on understanding how criminal investigations are conducted. The course will also emphasize the legal environment in which criminal investigations are conducted. Specific objectives include:

1. To provide a foundation in the investigative process and techniques used in criminal investigations, covering areas such as documenting the crime scene, searches, forensics/physical evidence handling, identifying and arresting suspects (Part I of the course, Chapters 1 – 7).
2. To familiarize the student with the legal environment in which criminal investigations are conducted, covering areas such as searches, interrogations, and the right to counsel.
3. To examine criminal investigation of specific crimes, including violent crimes and property crimes (Part II of the course, Chapters 8 – 14).

GENERAL COURSE OBJECTIVE:

To think critically about the issues presented in the course, which will require preparation and your active participation in class discussions.

CLASS CONDUCT:

- Students are required to attend and participate in each/every class.
- Students are required to complete assigned readings prior to the class for which topics are scheduled in order to promote meaningful discussion and class participation for effective learning.
- Students are required to respect the right of others to a proper learning environment, which includes professional demeanor and language.
- Please be on time. Late arrivals and early departures are discourteous and disruptive to class continuity.
- Please turn off cell phones during class unless you are on call as an emergency service provider. Texting during class is prohibited.

REQUIRED TEXTBOOK:

Criminal Investigation, 11th Edition, Cengage Learning
Authors: Hess, Orthmann, and Cho

COURSE REQUIREMENTS:

Exams: there will be two exams, each worth 25% of your final grade (50 points total). The exams will cover material from the assigned readings and in-class lectures. The midterm exam will cover Part I of the course (Chapters 1 – 7) while the non-cumulative final exam will cover Part II of the course (Chapters 8-10, 12-13, and NYS Penal Law Article 155). The exams will most likely include multiple choice, true-false, and short answer questions.

Student Presentation: each student will give a 20 – 30 minute power point presentation on a topic chosen by me. You'll have the opportunity to sign up for your topic by listing your top three choices. I will do my best to assign one of your choices. The presentation is worth 30 percent of your final grade (30 points). I'll discuss with you individually what I'd like you to cover in your presentation.

Class Participation: this is a small class and learning is enhanced by class discussion. I expect you to come to class prepared and to actively engage in class discussion. In addition to general participation, we will work group exercises in class that require your active engagement. Class participation is worth 20 percent of your final grade (20 points).

Grading Summary

Exams:	50 points, 50%
Presentation:	30 points 30%
Participation:	20 points, 20%
Total Points:	100

COURSE POLICIES

I reserve the right to make minor changes to the Syllabus and deadlines stated therein but will discuss them with you in advance so you may prepare accordingly.

GRADING

Grading follows the standard Ohio State grading scale:

		B-	80-82%	C-	70-72%

MISSING AN EXAM

Legitimate reasons for missing an exam include verified illnesses, serious family emergencies, and certain documented university activities. Proper documentation is required to make up an exam. As soon as you are aware that you will miss an exam, please notify me, preferably by the end of the day of the exam, unless email communication is not possible due to documented emergency circumstances. However, I must hear from you by the end of the workday (5 p.m.) on the day following the exam. It is your responsibility to notify me that you need to schedule a makeup exam.

EMAIL ETIQUETTE

Please compose your emails in a professional manner. When emailing, please include a proper salutation, complete sentences, and appropriate language. Review your email for typos prior to hitting send. Remember, an email is not a text.

ACADEMIC MISCONDUCT

Any student suspected of cheating, plagiarizing, or engaging in any other form of academic misconduct will be referred to the Committee on Academic Misconduct (“COAM”). It is the responsibility of COAM to investigate all suspected cases of student academic misconduct. Academic misconduct includes, but is not limited to, cases of plagiarism and dishonest practices in connection with examinations and writing papers. Instructors shall report all instances of alleged academic misconduct to COAM (Faculty Rule 3335-5-487). For additional information, please see the Code of Student Conduct at <http://studentlife.osu.edu/csc/>.

DIFFERING ABILITIES

Some students require modifications in the learning environment. Ohio State strives to make all learning experiences as accessible as possible. If you anticipate or experience academic barriers based on your differing ability(ies) (including mental health, chronic or temporary medical conditions), please let me know immediately so that we can privately discuss options, which may include providing more time to answer quiz/exam questions. You may also register with Student Life Disability Services, which will establish reasonable accommodations appropriate for you. After registration, please contact me as soon as possible to discuss your accommodations so that they may be implemented in a timely manner. Student Life Disability Services may be contacted at slds@osu.edu, (614) 292-3307, 098 Baker Hall, 113 W. 12th Avenue.

STATEMENT ON MENTAL HEALTH

As a student you may experience a range of issues that can cause barriers to learning, such as strained relationships, increased anxiety, alcohol/drug problems, feeling down, difficulty concentrating and/or lack of motivation. These mental health concerns or stressful events may lead to diminished academic performance or reduce a student’s ability to participate in daily activities. The Ohio State University offers services to assist you with addressing these and other concerns you may be experiencing. If you or someone you know are suffering from any of the aforementioned conditions, you can learn more about the broad range of confidential mental health services available on campus via the Office of Student Life’s Counseling and Consultation Service (CCS) by visiting ccs.osu.edu or calling 614-292-5766. CCS is located on the 4th Floor of the Younkin Success Center and 10th Floor of Lincoln Tower. You can reach an on call counselor when CCS is closed at 614-292-5766 and 24 hour emergency help is also available through the 24/7 National Suicide Prevention Hotline at 1-800-273-TALK or at suicidepreventionlifeline.org.

STATEMENT ON SEXUAL MISCONDUCT/RELATIONSHIP VIOLENCE

Title IX makes clear that violence and harassment based on sex and gender are Civil Rights offenses subject to the same kinds of accountability and the same kinds of support applied to offenses against other protected categories (e.g., race). If you or someone you know has been sexually harassed or assaulted, you may find the appropriate resources at <http://titleix.osu.edu> or by contacting the Ohio State Title IX Coordinator, Kellie Brennan, at titleix@osu.edu.

STATEMENT ON DIVERSITY

The Ohio State University affirms the importance and value of diversity in the student body. Our programs and curricula reflect our multicultural society and global economy and seek to provide opportunities for students to learn more about persons who are different from them. We are committed to maintaining a community that recognizes and values the inherent worth and dignity of every person; fosters sensitivity, understanding, and mutual respect among each member of our community; and encourages each individual to strive to reach his or her own potential. Discrimination against any individual based upon protected status, which is defined as age, color, disability, gender identity or expression, national origin, race, religion, sex, sexual orientation, or veteran status, is prohibited.
