Good afternoon,

On Friday, July 17, the ASC Curriculum Committee reviewed a proposal to offer a distance learning version of History 2475 & Jewish Studies 2475.

The Committee unanimously approved the request with two contingencies and one recommendation:

- Contingency: The stated rationale for permanent distance-learning designation is that the Department of History has worked “with ASC Tech to gain online teaching approval.” Obtaining ASC tech approval is part of the application process; it does not constitute the reason why you are requesting permanent distance-learning status. Provide a more thorough curricular rationale for requesting distance-learning status for this course. Please see the attached DL Rationale Request Letter for more information regarding this contingency.
- Contingency: This course is only approved for GE Historical Study, but the syllabus includes language about Diversity-Global Studies. Remove language for Diversity-Global Studies.
- Recommendation: Include more information on the midterm and final exams (e.g. format of the exams, whether they are open book, is the final cumulative, etc.).

I will return History 2475 & Jewish Studies 2475 to the department queue via curriculum.osu.edu in order to address the Committee’s requests.

Should you have any questions about the feedback of the Committee, please feel free to contact Alison Crocetta (faculty Chair of the ASC Curriculum Committee; cc’d on this e-mail), or me.

Best wishes,
Shelby
