COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course seeks to explore, through different lenses, the fragmentation and renegotiation of Spanish cultural and political identity in tension with its peripheral “nations.” Since 1978, when the Spanish Constitution granted the status of “national historic communities” to Catalonia, the Basque Country, Galicia, and Andalusia, the idea of a homogeneous nation has been constantly challenged by the cultural and literary practices of each individual region. Through careful readings of selected texts, we will approach the struggle of the “peripheral nations” to define their own identities by creating ethnocentric myths, vindicating their languages, emphasizing popular traditions, etc. We will explore how literature, music, mass media, and other cultural representations (i.e. internet sites), as tools, work in the construction of these national imaginaries. It is expected that each student will take a critical position about the difficulties that arise when talking about: 1) ONE Spanish nation, and 2) PERIPHERAL national identities. This course will examine a variety of texts (short stories, novels, films, music, and web pages) that best represent the continuous resistance to an “imposed” Spanish nationhood. Background readings on nation-formation theories and Spanish history as well as information on each region’s nationalist movements will be provided. In particular, we will examine the images of the nation represented in the cultural production of these regions. In our discussions, we will consider a series of key questions such as: What makes a nation? What elements constitute a national sentiment? How are these elements represented in literature and culture? Why do we speak of a fragmented Spain? Where do these authors position themselves in relation to these problems?

COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES— By the end of this course, students should:

1. Become familiar with the historical, political, and social context of post-Franco and post-national Spain to understand the fragmentation and renegotiation of national identities within Spain.
2. Be able to focus on the distinctive characteristics of each Spanish nation, their problems and particularities through the careful analysis of literary texts, films, and scholarly articles.
3. Be able to analyze contemporary Spain’s literature and culture by focusing on the diversity of the “Spanish nation” and the diverse issues around the topic of “Spanish peripheral nations.”
4. Improve their oral and written Spanish skills to formulate clear and strong arguments about the literary texts, films and any other material presented in class and their relation to a fragmented Spain, national communities, national identity of democratic Spain.

BASELINE TECHNICAL SKILLS FOR ONLINE COURSES

- Basic computer and web-browsing skills
- Navigating Carmen
- Knowledge of Carmen Zoom for synchronous meetings
- Basic video recording and uploading

TECHNOLOGY SKILLS NECESSARY FOR THIS SPECIFIC COURSE

- General Carmen navigation
- Recording, editing, and uploading video to Carmen discussions
- Uploading word or pdf files to Carmen assignments
- Use of Carmen Zoom for synchronous group discussion meetings, record those meetings and upload them later to Carmen

NECESSARY EQUIPMENT

- Computer: current Mac (OS X) or PC (Windows 7+) with high-speed internet connection.
- Webcam: built-in or external webcam, fully installed and tested.
- Microphone: built-in laptop or tablet mic or external microphone.

NECESSARY SOFTWARE

- Microsoft Office 365 ProPlus: All Ohio State students are now eligible for free Microsoft Office 365 ProPlus through Microsoft's Student Advantage program. Each student can install Office on five PCs or Macs, five tablets (Windows, iPad® and Android™) and five phones.
 - Students are able to access Word, Excel, PowerPoint, Outlook and other programs, depending on platform. Users will also receive 1 TB of OneDrive for Business storage.
 Office 365 is installed within your BuckeyeMail account. Full instructions for downloading and installation can be found <https://ocio.osu.edu/kb04733>.

TIPS AND STRATEGIES FOR SUCCESSFUL LEARNING IN ONLINE SETTING:

- Connect with your instructors and classmates
 - For example, make sure your Carmen Notifications are set, so you are notified about new announcements, revisions or changes to assignments or deadlines, grade posting or feedback on assignments, etc.
 - Connect with your classmates even if you haven't met, and schedule virtual study sessions.
- Advocate for yourself and others
 - Attend your professor's virtual office hours, so he/she can know you.
 - Learn how to take advantage of software or any devices you are using.
 - If you need special accommodations, discuss it with your instructor and/or request help from Student Life Disability Services
 - Commit to supporting positive and inclusive interactions. The Office of Institutional Equity is committed to creating an environment - both in person and online - that is equitable, fair, and just.
- Build key skills for personal wellness and overall success
 - Take care of your body and mind
 - Take breaks, take walks, eat balanced meals
 - Sleep
 - Ask for help
- For more on these tips, check out Keep Learning Tips for Success.

The Department of Spanish and Portuguese's Statement on Fighting for Racial Justice

Structural, institutionalized racism has a very long history here in the US as well as in Latin America, Europe and other parts of the world. The events surrounding the senseless deaths of George Floyd, Ahmaud Arbery, Breonna Taylor, Tamir Rice and so many other African-Americans have brought the issue and the everyday instances of racial injustice experienced by so many into sharp relief. The Department of Spanish and Portuguese denounces racist violence based on colonial ideologies of white supremacy enacted against the afro-descendent populations in the United States and the entire American continent. We condemn police brutality and support the efforts of the Black Lives Matter movement and the multiracial coalitions that have been built around that movement, along with similar black protest movements in Latin America, Portugal and Spain.

Beyond that condemnation, the department believes that it has an important role to play in finding concrete ways to intervene and help to create the conditions for racial justice. We commit to creating a safe and welcoming environment for all students, faculty and staff. We dedicate ourselves to opening up more sustained dialogue about racism, anti-racism and the coloniality of power.

Grading and faculty response

CLASS LESSONS, READINGS AND FILMS

Students are expected watch/listen to a series of lessons throughout the semester. Some of these lessons will be introductions to each of the course modules or mosaics in order to better prepare the student to engage with the readings and films in that particular module. These “pre-module” lessons will be marked in the calendar. Then students must do all the readings (short stories, novels, secondary scholarly articles) and watch the assigned films as scheduled in the course calendar. All of the readings and films are accompanied by another lesson that further explains or clarifies concepts, ideas, or issues as they are presented in the primary texts (literary or visual). Students are responsible for watching/listening all of these lessons, also as scheduled in the course calendar, to ensure better comprehension of the course materials. All course assignments (Lesson Checks, Discussion Boards on Carmen, Group Zoom Discussion Videos, Written Film Reactions and Research Paper) will be based on these assigned lessons and works.

GRADE BREAKDOWN BY ASSIGNMENTS

Lesson Checks (17%): The objective of these lesson checks would be to ensure that the student watches the lesson and pays attention during the lesson. There would be a lesson check for every PowerPoint lesson in the schedule (17 total). Think of this as an “attendance check.” Lesson checks could be multiple choice, open ended questions, true or false, or a combination of all of the above. It shouldn’t take more than 10-15min to answer the questions for each lesson check.

Discussion Boards (12%): The objective of these Discussion Boards is to stimulate the participation and dialogue among students in the course. Therefore, the Discussion Boards are a way to engage with other students in the course and to exchange thoughts and ideas about the course materials. There’s roughly 1 Discussion Board per “mosaic” (only Catalunya’s mosaic has 2 discussion boards) for a total of 6 Discussion Boards. Discussion Boards will be done in small groups (you will be assigned to a different group for each module) and you are required to write an original comment or POST, and must comment or respond to a minimum of 2 posts (this is within each Discussion Board module). In these posts, students will share a reflection on the particular topic of the module using the film or literary texts that have been studied in that module. The original post will be worth 50% of each Discussion Board, while the comments/responses to a peer’s post will be worth 25% each. I will always post a prompt as a way to “inspire” or guide your posts, but you are free to discuss any other issues/aspects of the films or literary texts within the scope of the specific module. For example, I might suggest you talk about how a particular novel addresses the idea of Catalan identity (in Catalunya’s module), and you might choose to write about that or you might choose to discuss the novel and connect it with the film or text from another module (like about a Basque novel that you read earlier). Your posts can include citations or quotes, (make sure to use the MLA style), reference to specific passages, etc. There’s only a minimum requirement of one paragraph of 8-10 sentences for the original post, but you can write more if you want. The response to a peer’s post can be minimum 4-5 sentences long.

Group Zoom Discussion Videos (16%): The objective of having Zoom Discussions in assigned groups is to give students the space 1. To interact synchronously several times during the semester, and 2. To practice their oral and listening skills. These Zoom meetings would have to be scheduled between ALL the members of each group at a convenient time for ALL. Students will use this “live” time and space to share their thoughts, critical ideas, interpretation and/or opinion in Spanish (about the readings, films, and/or the course in general), and to share them with their peers. There will be a prompt or series of questions for each Zoom Meeting that the students can use to begin their meeting. The meeting should be between 15-20 minutes long. The meeting should be recorded and later uploaded into Carmen, so the professor can watch the meeting and grade the students’ participation and engagement. There will be a total of 7 meetings that students will have to record and upload. You can think of your contributions to these Zoom Meetings as interventions you’d have in a Face to Face (F2F) class. For every meeting, a meeting leader would be assigned (early in the week the Group Zoom Discussion video is due), and that person would make sure that 1. The meeting is completely in Spanish, 2. That the discussion is related to the material assigned for that week, and 3. That everybody has a chance to participate. THERE WILL BE ONE INDIVIDUAL VIDEO (MAKING IT A TOTAL OF 8 VIDEOS) THAT YOU WILL HAVE TO UPLOAD FOR THE ENTIRE CLASS TO SEE. THIS IS THE FIRST VIDEO WHERE YOU’D BE INTRODUCING YOURSELF AND IT WILL BE DUE ON THE FIRST DAY OF CLASSES.

Coffee Hour with the Instructor (10%): The objective of these coffee hours is to have some one-on-one conversations about the course materials with the instructor and some of your peers. Students should sign up for a specific date and time for a synchronous videoconference (you can bring your coffee) with the professor and other students. These coffee hours will last between 30-40min. You’d have to sign up for two of the scheduled coffee hours during the semester to receive credit on this assignment.

Written Film Reactions (20%): The objectives of these film reactions are: 1. That the student practices his/her writing skills in Spanish, and 2. That the student offers a critical or academic analysis of the film in relationship to the overall topic of the course (Spanish nations) or the topic of the specific module that the film belongs (i.e. what is the nation?, Basque Country, Galicia, etc.). We will see several films for the course (4 long films and 3 shorts). The student will write a total of 5 Film Reactions (the 3 shorts together count as one film). Each film reaction (4% each) must be 1.5 pages long. Although this is a short reaction, it is expected that the paper has a coherent organization with an introduction (and thesis), body, and conclusion. Some of the questions you could have in mind when writing about the films are: how does the movie discuss the idea of the Spanish nation or how does it represent a specific nation? How does the movie connect/compare to the films you have read in the course, etc. Written Reactions must be turned in via Carmen as assigned in the schedule.

Research paper (25%): The objective of this research paper is that the student is able to analyze, in a deeper way, an issue or topic that has been of interest to him/her about the novels and/or films, or about the differences and similarities between the Spanish nations. The research paper must be 6 to 8-page in length including bibliography. Students are expected to use other sources (course’s secondary readings can be used for this purpose). The final paper must follow the MLA style for citation and bibliography. The paper must have a clear and effective thesis and must have a minimum of 4 secondary sources (journal articles, books) and a maximum of 2 can be electronic resources.

ASSINGMENT INFORMATION

The course is organized in Carmen in modules for each “Mosaico” that will help students navigate the content and requirements of the course. You must finish each module or “mosaico” IN ORDER, before moving on to the next module or mosaico. See course schedule below for weekly due dates.

DUE DATES

All assignments are due on Sundays of each week by 11:59pm. For example, on Semana 3 (Sep 7-Sep11) both Lesson Check 5, and Discussion Board 2 will be due on Sunday, Sep 13 by 11:59pm. The assignments for each week will be available on Mondays at 8am. THE ONLY EXEPTIONS WOULD BE THE ASSIGNMENTS FOR THE FIRST AND LAST DAY OF CLASSES.

LATE ASSINGMENTS

Assignments must be turned in by the deadline indicated in the Course Schedule. If you are unable to submit your work on time DUE TO ILLNESS OR ANY COVID-19 RELATED REASOINS, PLEASE LET ME KNOW, AND WE WILL WORK SOMETHING OUT. To make up missed work due illness, verifiable documentation will be required.

FACULTY FEEDBACK AND RESPONSE TIME

I am providing the following list to give you an idea of my intended availability throughout the course. (Remember that you can call 614-688-HELP at any time if you have a technical problem.)

- Grading and feedback: For longer assignments (written reactions), you can generally expect feedback within 7 school days. Other assignments (reading guides, discussion boards, reflection videos and lessons check) will received feedback within 24-48 hours.
- E-mail: I will reply to e-mails within 24 hours on school days.

STUDENT PARTICIPATION REQUIREMENTS

Because this is a distance-education course, your attendance is based on your online activity and participation. The following is a summary of everyone's expected participation:

- Logging in: AT LEAST ONCE PER WEEK. AT LEAST ONCE PER WEEK. Be sure you are logging in to the course in Carmen each week, including weeks with holidays or weeks with minimal online course activity. (During most weeks you will probably log in many times.) There will be at least one Lesson check per week (some times there might be 2) in which I will ask some questions about either a PowerPoint Lesson, a reading, a film, or all of the above. These will be short quiz-like questions (multiple choice, open ended questions, true and false, etc.). This would be a way to ensure your participation/engagement with the course materials and particularly with the PowerPoint lessons. If you have a situation that might cause you to miss an entire week of class, notify me as soon as possible. It is particularly critical that you log in at least three times during the first couple of weeks of the semester.
- Weekly announcements: I will be posting weekly announcements (maybe twice if needed), as a way to check in with you. These announcements would either be a clarification of someone's question that I think would be useful for the entire class, or information (links, extra readings, etc.) that I believe would help you with the comprehension of the course materials. I will often ask for a "like" on such announcements to make sure you have read them. So, please make sure you read them and that you give me a like on them.
- Office hours or student hours: If you need to discuss an assignment or any course materials with me, please TRY TO MAKE IT TO MY SCHEDULED ZOOM OFFICE HOUR ON TUESDAYS OR THURSDAYS FROM 11AM TO 12PM. If that time does not work for you and you need/want to talk to me, please make an appointment for a better time. MAKE SURE THAT YOU MEET WITH ME INDIVIDUALLY AT DURING THE FIRST TWO WEEKS OF THE SEMESTER, JUST TO TOUCH BASE.
- Live sessions: There are no live or synchronous sessions for class, but students will have to schedule synchronous group meetings to discuss some materials as scheduled in the calendar.
- Participating in discussion forums: REQUIRED. You will need to follow instructions for participating in a small-group discussion via Carmen's Discussion Boards and via Carmen Zoom Video.

DISCUSSION AND COMMUNICATION GUIDELINES

The following are my expectations for how we should communicate as a class. Above all, please remember to be respectful and thoughtful.

- Writing style: While there is no need to participate in class discussions as if you were writing a research paper, you should remember to write using good grammar, spelling, and punctuation. Informality (including an occasional emoticon) is accepted in both the discussion boards and the Carmen Zoom videos.
- Tone and civility: Let's maintain a supportive learning community where everyone feels safe and where people can disagree amicably. Remember that sarcasm doesn't always come across online.

- Citing your sources: When we have academic discussions, please cite your sources to back up what you say. (For course materials, list at author's name and page numbers. For online sources, include a link.)
- Backing up your work: Consider composing your academic posts in a word processor, where you can save your work, and then copying into the Carmen discussion. In case something happens.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY POLICY

POLICIES FOR THIS ONLINE COURSE

- Written Assignments: Your written assignments, including discussion posts, should be your own original work.
- Reusing Past Work: In general, you are prohibited in university courses from turning in work from a past class to your current class, even if you modify it. If you want to build on past research or revisit a topic you've explored in previous courses, please discuss the situation with me.
- Use of Translation Programs like GoogleTranslate: while it might seem like these days Google can solve many of our language problems, I would caution you in your use of google. It is still not an effective way to learn the language as it lacks the cultural context of either a word you might need to look up or it offers a literal translation (that is often not accurate) for something you want to say. For the first problem, I would suggest you consult the Royal Spanish Academy Dictionary www.rae.es. Here you'd be able to look up words and get their definitions in Spanish, which would enrich your vocabulary. For the second problem, I would recommend to check out the resources I'd be providing for you in Carmen, and ultimately, you can always consult with me if in doubt.
- Plagiarism and Style Guide: All academic writing (film reactions and final paper) should make use of the MLA writing style. Make sure you give credit to your sources (even if you are paraphrasing) to avoid any form of plagiarism. If you are unsure as to how to cite using the MLA style, please check <https://cstw.osu.edu/writing-resources/citations/MLA-citations-updated-8th-edition>

If you're unsure about a particular situation in regard to your written work, please feel free just to ask ahead of time.

OHIO STATE'S ACADEMIC INTEGRITY POLICY

It is the responsibility of the Committee on Academic Misconduct to investigate or establish procedures for the investigation of all reported cases of student academic misconduct. The term "academic misconduct" includes all forms of student academic misconduct wherever committed; illustrated by, but not limited to, cases of plagiarism and dishonest practices in connection with examinations. Instructors shall report all instances of alleged academic misconduct to the committee (Faculty Rule 3335-5-487). For additional information, see the Code of Student Conduct <http://studentlife.osu.edu/csc/>.

COPYRIGHT DISCLAIMER

The materials used in connection with this course may be subject to copyright protection and are only for the use of students officially enrolled in the course for the educational purposes associated with the course. Copyright law must be considered before copying, retaining, or disseminating materials outside of the course.

STATEMENT ON TITLE IX

Title IX makes it clear that violence and harassment based on sex and gender are Civil Rights offenses subject to the same kinds of accountability and the same kinds of support applied to offenses against other protected categories (e.g., race). If you or someone you know has been sexually harassed or assaulted, you may find the appropriate resources at <http://titleix.osu.edu> or by contacting the Ohio State Title IX Coordinator, Kellie Brennan, at titleix@osu.edu

YOUR MENTAL HEALTH!

As a student you may experience a range of issues that can cause barriers to learning, such as strained relationships, increased anxiety, alcohol/drug problems, feeling down, difficulty concentrating and/or lack of motivation. These mental health concerns or stressful events may lead to diminished academic performance or reduce a student's ability to participate in daily activities. The Ohio State University offers services to assist you with addressing these and other concerns you may be experiencing. If you or someone you know are suffering from any of the aforementioned conditions, you can learn more about the broad range of confidential mental health services available on campus via the Office of Student Life's Counseling and Consultation Service (CCS) by visiting ccs.osu.edu or calling 614- 292-5766. CCS is located on the 4th Floor of the Younkin Success Center and 10th Floor of Lincoln Tower. You can reach an on call counselor when CCS is closed at 614-292-5766 and 24 hour emergency help is also available through the 24/7 National Suicide Prevention Hotline at 1-800-273- TALK or at suicidepreventionlifeline.org

ACCESSIBILITY ACCOMMODATIONS FOR STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES

The University strives to make all learning experiences as accessible as possible. If you anticipate or experience academic barriers based on your disability (including mental health, chronic or temporary medical conditions), please let me know immediately so that we can privately discuss options. To establish reasonable accommodations, I may request that you register with Student Life Disability Services. After registration, make arrangements with me as soon as possible to discuss your accommodations so that they may be implemented in a timely fashion. SLDS contact information: slds@osu.edu; 614-292-3307; slds.osu.edu; 098 Baker Hall, 113 W. 12th Avenue

Accessibility of course technology

This online course requires use of Carmen (Ohio State's learning management system) and other online communication and multimedia tools. If you need additional services to use these technologies, please request accommodations with your instructor.

COVID-19 and Illness Policies

Health and safety requirements

All students, faculty and staff are required to comply with and stay up to date on all university safety and health guidance (<https://safeandhealthy.osu.edu>), which includes wearing a face mask in any indoor space and maintaining a safe physical distance at all times. Non-compliance will be warned first and disciplinary actions will be taken for repeated offenses.

Student illness or absence

In the event you must quarantine because of exposure to someone diagnosed with COVID-19 OR you are feeling ill with COVID-19 symptoms, you still will be able to make progress in this class. Please contact your instructor right away, as some accommodations may require extra set-up or planning. Since this class is completely online, all the materials are (or will be) available on Carmen. If you are too ill to be able to keep up the pace with this course due to COVID-19 or another illness, please contact the instructor as soon as you are able to discuss how to best approach deadlines or assignments. Alternate assignments or extensions may be arranged.

Instructor illness or absence

If the instructor is well enough to continue grading and/or responding to students' questions or needs even if she is quarantined or is experiencing respiratory symptoms, she will continue doing so. If the instructor is too ill to continue grading or assisting students for a period of time, the designated backup for this course will step in. You will be notified via email from the instructor or the Department of Spanish and Portuguese.

Campus closure

This class should not be impacted if shall The Ohio State University Main Campus move to full online instruction due to closure. We will continue to work as scheduled, but in the even that you are impacted by the campus closure, please reach out to me so we can discuss how this should affect your class engagement and participation.

COURSE SCHEDULE

The course is divided into six modules or “mosaicos”: I. ¿Qué es la nación?, II. País Vasco o Euskadi, III. Catalunya, IV. Galicia, V. Andalusia and VI. Conclusiones. The first module would be our “theoretical” framework and will last 2 weeks. All the other modules will have one week of introductory readings about important aspects/history of the corresponding “Spanish nation,” and then two or three weeks of working with literary texts and one week of film analysis. There will be PowerPoint Lessons (total of 16) that will either introduce you to the history/characteristics/important issues of each “nation,” or that would focus on a specific literary text or film to help you through the analysis of the specific piece of literature or movie.

There are some texts that would seem more difficult, but the PowerPoint lessons and other supporting materials will help you get the most of them. However, they will require you to read more carefully and perhaps a bit slower. Nevertheless, you'd be able to keep the pace if you focus on reading the assigned materials for each week.

Since this is a Spanish class, we would also work on improving both our writing and oral skills. Therefore, the discussion boards and the written film reactions, will offer you enough opportunity to work on your writing skills. I will provide specific feedback (comments on content and grammar corrections) on the film reactions, and occasionally on the discussion boards, as they can be more informal, while the film reactions must be more academic (i.e. have a strong thesis, and solid introduction and conclusion). The Carmen Zoom Discussion meetings videos will be your opportunity to work on your oral/listening skills. You'd practice your oral skills by working in groups and discussing some prompts/questions for each specific Carmen Zoom Video discussion. You will also have to listen to your peers, and respond, synchronously, as if you were having a F2F conversation.

For the weekly schedule, please see the attached calendar.

All assignments will be due on the Sunday of each week at 11:59pm, with the exception of the first and last day of classes.

Mosaico español: Catalunya, Euskadi, Galicia y Andalucía

Descripción del curso: Este curso se propone explorar, bajo múltiples ópticas, la fragmentación y renegociación de la identidad política y cultural española en tensión con sus “naciones” periféricas. Desde 1978, cuando la Constitución española les otorgó carácter de “comunidades históricas nacionales” a Catalunya, Euskadi, Galicia y Andalucía, la idea de una nación homogénea se ha visto constantemente problematizada mediante las prácticas literarias y culturales de cada región. A través de cuidadosas lecturas de diversos textos, nos acercaremos a la lucha de cada una de estas “comunidades nacionales” por definir su propia identidad, ya sea mediante creación de mitos, reivindicación del lenguaje, exaltación de costumbres populares, dinámicas migratorias, el papel de los medios de comunicación, etc. Con el propósito de lograr un acercamiento profundo a estos temas, se explorarán las formas en las que la literatura, la música, los medios de comunicación y otras manifestaciones culturales, como páginas de Internet, sirven como herramientas en la construcción de estos imaginarios nacionales. Se espera que cada estudiante tome una postura crítica frente a la problemática que surge a la hora de hablar de UNA nación española y también frente a la dificultad de hablar de identidades nacionales PERIFÉRICAS. Para eso, se tomarán en consideración, además de historias cortas y novelas escritas por autores de cada región, una selección de textos críticos, películas, música y páginas Web que mejor representan la continua resistencia a la imposición de una “identidad española.” Para tener una idea más clara de esta problemática, se leerán textos secundarios que expliquen diversas teorías sobre la formación de naciones, y la historia de España, así como información sobre cada una de las diferentes regiones y sus movimientos nacionalistas. En nuestras discusiones se considerarán una serie de preguntas claves, tales como: ¿Qué es lo que hace a un grupo una nación? ¿Cuáles son los elementos que contribuyen a crear un sentimiento nacional? ¿Cómo se representan tales elementos en los diversos textos? ¿Cómo dialogan los textos literarios con las manifestaciones culturales y/o políticas? ¿Por qué hablamos de una fragmentada nación española? ¿Cuál es la conexión entre identidad nacional y globalización? ¿Dónde se posicionan cada uno de los autores y cada una de las regiones con relación a estas problemáticas?

Objetivos específicos del curso:

1. familiarizar a los estudiantes con el contexto histórico, político, social y de la España post franquista y post-nacional teniendo en cuenta los rasgos distintivos de cada nación española, sus problemáticas y particularidades a través del estudio, lectura y análisis de textos literarios, películas y artículos académicos.
2. desarrollar las capacidades de los estudiantes para analizar la literatura y la cultura de la España contemporánea teniendo en cuenta la diversidad de “la nación” española y las diversas problemáticas que rodean el tema de la “periferia española”.
3. mejorar las habilidades (orales y escritas) de los estudiantes para construir argumentos claros y bien sostenidos acerca de textos literarios y visuales y su relación con la cultura del franquismo.
4. ofrecer un espacio para que los estudiantes practiquen estas habilidades en español tanto de manera oral como escrita.
5. fomentar el pensamiento crítico (siempre con respeto).

DISTRIBUCIÓN DE LA NOTA FINAL

- 1. Asistencia (5%). Esta clase está diseñada a modo de seminario (con un poco de lecturing), por lo tanto se espera que todo estudiante asista a clase listo para participar activamente en la discusión. Sin embargo, reconociendo cualquier eventualidad que pueda ocurrir a lo largo del semestre, se permitirán 2 ausencias sin justificar (2 unexcused absences). Cada ausencia posterior será causa de reducción de la nota final de un 2% por ausencia. La Universidad reconoce “illness, family tragedy, religious observance, [and] travel for intercollegiate athletics [if you’re on a team]” como causas oficiales de ausencias. Por lo que estar resfriado, salir de viaje o tener que trabajar no son consideradas justificaciones oficiales para faltar a clase. Además, para recibir una justificación es necesario presentar una nota médica u otro documento oficial. Un correo electrónico diciéndome que están enfermos no es considerado una justificación oficial. Faltar a clase no es una excusa para no venir a la siguiente clase sin haber leído o venir preparado para participar en clase.
- 2. Participación Activa (15%). Siendo esta una clase de español avanzado y de honores, la asistencia no es suficiente. Es decir, para alcanzar un nivel avanzado/superior de dominio de la lengua es necesario usarla tanto de manera pasiva (leyendo, escuchando) como de manera activa (hablando y escribiendo). De modo que se espera que el estudiante haya leído y analizado todo el material asignado, y que asista a clase preparado con preguntas, comentarios y reflexiones con respecto a los materiales leídos, vistos, escuchados, etc. para PARTICIPAR ACTIVAMENTE en las discusiones USANDO EL ESPAÑOL. Estar presente en clase sin participar en las discusiones y/o preguntas de la profesora ya sea de manera general o en grupos pequeños, puede resultar en una nota de participación baja. Debido a la importancia de la participación, se espera la asistencia constante del estudiante a clase. IF YOU ARE NOT SURE IF YOUR PARTICIPATION IN CLASS IS CONSIDERED ACTIVE, PLEASE ASK ME.
- 3. Presentación en grupo (20%): En parejas, los estudiantes deberán hacer una presentación oral sobre un artículo secundario asignado. La presentación, de NO MÁS de 15 minutos, debe ofrecer un resumen del artículo (i.e. ideas principales, posición del autor, etc. con respecto a uno de los textos leídos o películas vistas para discutir ese día). La presentación debe ayudar también a iniciar la discusión de clase, por lo que los estudiantes deben preparar 5 preguntas de análisis/discusión para el resto de los compañeros. Estas preguntas serán el punto de partida de la discusión de clase y deben enviarlas a la profesora, por lo menos 1 día antes de la presentación. Para la presentación se recomienda hacer uso de PowerPoint, y deben enviarla a la profesora (junto con las preguntas) un día antes para que la profesora corrija la gramática, o de sugerencias para la presentación. La presentación debe incluir 1) un título, 2) un resumen de la tesis y de las ideas principales del artículo, 3) un análisis de por lo menos 2 secciones del artículo, 4) una conexión entre el artículo y el texto o película que analiza, y 5) las 5 preguntas de análisis sobre el artículo y/o su conexión con el texto o película que analiza para iniciar la discusión de clase. Cada compañero de equipo dará una nota de participación a su otro compañero y esta nota valdrá el 20% de la nota de la presentación.
- 4. Reacciones a un film (25%). Se verán varios filmes en clase (o deberán verse antes de clase según lo indique el programa del curso). El estudiante deberá escribir 5 reacciones de 2 páginas sobre 5 películas según aparece en el programa del curso (5% por cada reacción). El objetivo de estas reacciones es que el estudiante ponga atención a la película y que venga con una aproximación crítica (académica) para poder participar en clase. El estudiante debe analizar, criticar o comentar sobre la relevancia de la película al tema del curso (la idea de una España plural y en concreto sobre cada una de las naciones españolas). Aunque sea una reacción corta, se espera una organización coherente que tenga introducción (con una tesis), cuerpo, y conclusión. Algunas preguntas que pueden tener en mente son ¿cómo la trama de la película aborda el tema de la nación española o como representa a cada nación? ¿cómo se compara/conecta la película con los textos que se han leído hasta el momento? Las reacciones deberán entregarse vía Carmen antes de la clase el día asignado en el programa.
- 5. Ensayo final (35%). Al final del semestre el estudiante deberá entregar un ensayo crítico y/o de investigación con una extensión de 6 a 8 páginas. Este proyecto se desarrollará durante la segunda parte del semestre consultando con la profesora. El estudiante deberá reunirse con la profesora con suficiente antelación para conversar sobre un tema, información bibliográfica, etc. El ensayo final puede ser sobre uno de los textos leídos o películas vistas en clase y debe contar con una bibliografía siguiendo el formato de la MLA. El ensayo debe tener una tesis clara y efectiva y se deben utilizar, como mínimo 4 fuentes escritas (artículos, libros) y como máximo 2 fuentes electrónicas. NOTA: Para los que están tomando el curso para recibir crédito por 5650, el ensayo debe ser de 10-12 páginas de extensión, y como mínimo 6 fuentes escritas (artículos, libros) y como máximo 3 fuentes electrónicas.

Asistencia	5%
Participación activa	15%
Presentación en grupo	20%
Reacciones escritas	25%
Ensayo final	35%

Fechas de entrega: NO se aceptará la entrega de trabajos tarde. Es la responsabilidad del estudiante hacer los arreglos pertinentes para entregar sus trabajos a tiempo. No se harán excepciones ni se cambiará la fecha de entrega de ningún trabajo ni de pruebas a estudiantes en particular. En casos o situaciones especiales, el estudiante deberá comunicarse directamente con la profesora.

A note about grades on Carmen: I use Carmen mostly for taking attendance and for the written assignments (reactions and final essay). There would also be a box for the presentations, but the participation grade and the discussion grade will not be posted on Carmen, so the grade that you'd see in Carmen will not be your final grade.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY AND ACADEMIC MISCONDUCT

It is the responsibility of the Committee on Academic Misconduct to investigate or establish procedures for the investigation of all reported cases of student academic misconduct. The term “academic misconduct” includes all forms of student academic misconduct wherever committed; illustrated by, but not limited to, cases of plagiarism and dishonest practices in connection with examinations. Instructors shall report all instances of alleged academic misconduct to the committee (Faculty Rule 3335-5-487). For additional information, see the Code of Student Conduct <http://studentlife.osu.edu/csc/>.

If I suspect that a student has committed academic misconduct in this course, I am obligated by University Rules to report my suspicions to the Committee on Academic Misconduct. If COAM determines that you have violated the University's Code of Student Conduct (i.e., committed academic misconduct), the sanctions for the misconduct could include a failing grade in this course and suspension or dismissal from the University. One way to avoid academic misconduct is to follow the MLA (Modern Language Association) format/style. https://library.osu.edu/documents/english/FINALlibrary_MLA.pdf

If you have any questions about using the MLA style, the above policy or what constitutes academic misconduct in this course, please contact me.

STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES

The University strives to make all learning experiences as accessible as possible. If you anticipate or experience academic barriers based on your disability (including mental health, chronic or temporary medical conditions), please let me know immediately so that we can privately discuss options. To establish reasonable accommodations, I may request that you register with Student Life Disability Services. After registration, make arrangements with me as soon as possible to discuss your accommodations so that they may be implemented in a timely fashion. SLDS contact information: slds@osu.edu; 614-292-3307; slds.osu.edu; 098 Baker Hall, 113 W. 12th Avenue.

MENTAL HEALTH

As a student you may experience a range of issues that can cause barriers to learning, such as strained relationships, increased anxiety, alcohol/drug problems, feeling down, difficulty concentrating and/or lack of motivation. These mental health concerns or stressful events may lead to diminished academic performance or reduce a student's ability to participate in daily activities. The Ohio State University offers services to assist you with addressing these and other concerns you may be experiencing. If you or someone you know are suffering from any of the aforementioned conditions, you can learn more about the broad range of confidential mental health services available on campus via the Office of Student Life's Counseling and Consultation Service (CCS) by visiting ccs.osu.edu or calling 614-292-5766. CCS is located on the 4th Floor of the Younkin Success Center and 10th Floor of Lincoln Tower. You can reach an on call counselor when CCS is closed at 614-292-5766 and 24 hour emergency help is also available through the 24/7 National Suicide Prevention Hotline at 1-800-273-TALK or at suicidepreventionlifeline.org.

DIVERSITY

The Ohio State University affirms the importance and value of diversity in the student body. Our programs and curricula reflect our multicultural society and global economy and seek to provide opportunities for students to learn more about persons who are different from them. We are committed to maintaining a community that recognizes and values the inherent worth and dignity of every person; fosters sensitivity, understanding, and mutual respect among each member of our community; and encourages each individual to strive to reach his or her own potential. Discrimination against any individual based upon protected status, which is defined as age, color, disability, gender identity or expression, national origin, race, religion, sex, sexual orientation, or veteran status, is prohibited.

USO DE ORDENADORES Y TELÉFONOS MÓVIL

Los estudiantes deben traer un ordenador o tableta a clase para acceder a los materiales del curso, o para consultar en el internet sobre temas o asuntos pertenecientes a la discusión de clase. De hecho, con un intento ecológico (go Green), los estudiantes no necesitarán imprimir los textos de lectura siempre y cuando tengan acceso electrónico a ellos durante clase. Sin embargo, los ordenadores y/o teléfonos móviles NO SON PERMITIDOS para uso personal (para conectarse a redes sociales como Facebook, Twitter o para enviar mensajes de texto). Quien use su ordenador o su teléfono móvil para uso personal verá su nota de participación reducida. Durante las presentaciones, nadie podrá usar su ordenador para poder poner atención a los compañeros.

Conclusiones finales

22 de abril (m)

Entrega del trabajo final antes de la 11:45am

Qualifying differences between F2F course and online in terms of delivery for SPAN 4567 and SPAN 4567H: There is no difference in content between F2F and DL courses. The DL courses require the same amount of rigorous study and analysis of literary texts and films. The amount of written work (written reactions, discussion boards, and final paper is the same). There is one difference, however, between F2F and DL delivery,. The first difference is that both DL courses have PowerPoint Video lessons that the students must watch and then respond to a Lesson Check. This is done instead of in-class lectures and class discussion that would happen during F2F instruction. The second difference is that in F2F courses participation is graded based on oral interventions during class time either by responding to the instructor's questions during a lecture or by pair/group work to encourage oral production in Spanish. The DL versions require students to video record a video where they would answer some questions provided by the instructor. For SPAN 4567, students must use FlipGrid to respond (asynchronously) to a prompt or question and would then respond to a peer's video/comment. This activity is to stimulate spontaneous oral production in Spanish, as it would happen in the classroom. The instructor will watch the videos and comment or respond in similar fashion. For SPAN 4567H, students will be put into groups and they have to schedule their own Carmen Zoom meeting (no more than 20 minutes) to discuss (synchronously) to a prompt or question. They will record the meeting and later upload for the instructor to see. For the honors course, this is considered both as a group work (instead of an oral presentation) and as a class participation. The instructor will then watch the video and provide feedback and comments in a similar way.
