Course Description

1101 Elementary Persian I is an online and synchronous course focusing on the four language skills of reading, writing, listening, and speaking through communication and interaction. Starting from learning Persian alphabet, gradually the language of instruction becomes mostly Persian and most course discussions will be in Persian. During the course students will be required to write short papers in Persian examining different topics.

Learning Outcomes

By the end of this course, students should successfully be able to:

- 1- Develop students' Persian grammar and vocabulary awareness.
- 2- Read simple texts in Persian.
- 3- Communicate and converse in Persian on a variety of topics.
- 4- Write elementary narrative style paragraphs coherently and with reasonable accuracy.
- 5- Develop Students' awareness of essential Iranians' cultural elements.

General Education Expected Learning Outcomes

As part of the Foreign Language category of the General Education curriculum, this course is designed to prepare students to be able to do the following:

Goals:

Students demonstrate skills in communication across ethnic, cultural, ideological, and national boundaries, and appreciate other cultures and patterns of thought.

Expected Learning Outcomes:

1. Students employ communicative skills (e.g. speaking, listening, reading, and/or writing) in a language other than their native language.
2. Students describe and analyze the cultural contexts and manifestations of the peoples who speak the language that they are studying.
3. Students compare and contrast the cultures and communities of the language that they are studying with their own.

How This Online Course Works

Mode of delivery: This course is 100% online. There are required sessions when you must be logged in to Carmen at a scheduled time.

Pace of online activities: This course is divided into weekly modules on Carmen. The module for each week will become available at 11:59PM on the preceding Friday. Each module will contain a weekly schedule with links to daily Zoom class meetings, learning goals for the week, assignment instructions, links, and deadlines, and lecture content. It is the responsibility of each student to keep up with this weekly schedule.

Credit hours and work expectations: This is a 4 credit-hour course. According to Ohio State bylaws on instruction (go.osu.edu/credithours), students should expect around 4 hours per week of time spent on direct instruction (instructor content and Carmen activities, for example) in addition to [8] hours of homework (reading and assignment preparation, for example) to receive a grade of [C] average.

This is a distance language learning course but your attendance in classes via zoom are necessary. Much of the responsibility for learning a language falls on the students. It is not realistic to expect to develop communication skills in a new language if students do not practice it. Therefore, it is crucial that students attend class regularly. If you miss class (regardless of whether this is excused or unexcused) please make sure to ask your colleagues (but not your instructor) to provide information as to what was covered in your absence. Covering the class material that you have missed on your own will be your responsibility and not your instructor's.

Excused absences include documented illnesses or accidents, religious holidays, participation in scheduled events as a member of a university-sponsored organization, and family emergencies. If you believe you are going to have an excused absence be sure to clear it with your instructor. Absence that fall into one of the listed categories for excused absences but that are not cleared with your instructor (ideally prior to the date of the absence) will be considered unexcused.

It is your responsibility to inform the instructor of any intended absence for religious observances in advance.

- You are expected to log in at least four times every week.
- Complete the assigned materials before participating in the virtual class.
- Participate in online discussions.

Other Course Policies

Discussion and Communication Guidelines

Example: The following are my expectations for how we should communicate as a class. Above all, please remember to be respectful and thoughtful.

- Writing style: While there is no need to participate in class discussions as if you were writing a research paper, you should remember to write using good grammar, spelling, and punctuation. A more conversational tone is fine for non-academic topics.
- Tone and civility: Let's maintain a supportive learning community where everyone feels safe and where people can disagree amicably. Remember that sarcasm doesn't always come across online.
- Citing your sources: When we have academic discussions, please cite your sources to back up what you say. For the textbook or other course materials, list at least the title and page numbers. For online sources, include a link.
- Backing up your work: Consider composing your academic posts in a word processor, where you can save your work, and then copying into the Carmen discussion.

Academic Integrity Policy

See Descriptions of Major Course Assignments for specific guidelines about collaboration and academic integrity in the context of this online class.

Ohio State's Academic Integrity Policy

Academic integrity is essential to maintaining an environment that fosters excellence in teaching, research, and other educational and scholarly activities. Thus, The Ohio State University and the Committee on Academic Misconduct (COAM) expect that all students have read and understand the university's Code of Student Conduct (studentconduct.osu.edu), and that all students will complete all academic and scholarly assignments with fairness and honesty. Students must recognize that failure to follow the rules and guidelines established in the university's Code of Student Conduct and this syllabus may constitute "Academic Misconduct."

The Ohio State University's Code of Student Conduct (Section 3335-23-04) defines academic misconduct as: "Any activity that tends to compromise the academic integrity of the university or subvert the educational process." Examples of academic misconduct include (but are not limited to) plagiarism, collusion (unauthorized collaboration), copying the work of another student, and possession of unauthorized materials during an examination. Ignorance of the university's Code of Student Conduct is never considered an excuse for academic misconduct, so I recommend that you review the Code of Student Conduct and, specifically, the sections dealing with academic misconduct.

It is the responsibility of the Committee on Academic Misconduct to investigate or establish procedures for the investigation of all reported cases of student academic misconduct. The term “academic misconduct” includes all forms of student academic misconduct wherever committed; illustrated by, but not limited to, cases of plagiarism and dishonest practices in connection with examinations. Instructors shall report all instances of alleged academic misconduct to the committee (Faculty Rule 3335-5-487). For additional information, see the Code of Student Conduct <http://studentlife.osu.edu/csc>.

Commitment to a Diverse and Inclusive Learning Environment

The Ohio State University affirms the importance and value of diversity in the student body. Our programs and curricula reflect our multicultural society and global economy and seek to provide opportunities for students to learn more about persons who are different from them. We are committed to maintaining a community that recognizes and values the inherent worth and dignity of every person; fosters sensitivity, understanding, and mutual respect among each member of our community; and encourages each individual to strive to reach their own potential. Discrimination against any individual based upon protected status, which is defined as age, color, disability, gender identity or expression, national origin, race, religion, sex, sexual orientation, or veteran status, is prohibited.

Your Mental Health

As a student you may experience a range of issues that can cause barriers to learning, such as strained relationships, increased anxiety, alcohol/drug problems, feeling down, difficulty concentrating and/or lack of motivation. These mental health concerns or stressful events may lead to diminished academic performance or reduce a student's ability to participate in daily activities. No matter where you are engaged in distance learning, The Ohio State University's Student Life Counseling and Consultation Service (CCS) is here to support you. If you find yourself feeling isolated, anxious or overwhelmed, on-demand mental health resources (go.osu.edu/ccsondemand) are available. You can reach an on-call counselor when CCS is closed at 614- 292-5766. 24-hour emergency help is available through the National Suicide Prevention Lifeline website (suicidepreventionlifeline.org) or by calling 1-800-273-8255\(TALK\). - Stay on track: the assignments are designed to keep you moving through the course material, all build on each other, so they assume that you have mastered the learnings from the preview weeks. If you fall behind, it is going to be hard to catch up.
- Be an active participant: Take notes, record details, mark interesting and difficult part of the contents. Discuss everything related to the content in the class. This class is about learning language through communications and connections.
- Be a respectful peer: discussions and groupwork will be much more productive (and enjoyable) if you are willing to keep an open mind, share your ideas and listen to other students.
- Ask questions! Whether it is in discussions or via email, ask questions if you are confused or would like to know more about anything related to this course.

COVID-19

We are living through a global pandemic. We have lost so much over the past few months – so many people, so much time, so much of normal life. But we can still learn together, in a way that responds to the uncertainties of this historical moment with flexibility and grace. What does that mean for this course?

- You never owe me personal information about your health (mental or physical) or anything else. If I ask for an explanation or documentation to extend a deadline, it just needs to explain/document that something is going on in general terms, it does not need to include any personal information. All information will be held in strict confidence.

- You are always welcome to talk to me about things that you are going through. If I cannot help, I can try to connect you with someone who can.
- If you need extra help, more time or other special arrangements, just ask. I will do my best to work with you. I cannot do that if you disappear and stop responding to emails.
- Please extend the same flexibility and grace to me and other people in this class. There will be times when we all need it!

The university strives to make all learning experiences as accessible as possible. In light of the current pandemic, students seeking to request COVID-related accommodations may do so through the university's request process \(Links to an external site.\), managed by Student Life Disability Services.

Reading Assignments

Students will read all materials assigned by the instructor and be responsible for the content of each. Daily homework will be assigned from the text, workbook, handout, CD-ROM, movie, or Internet. If assignments are required to turn in, it is required to be prepared prior to the beginning of class and handed in at that time. Written assignments will vary in length from sentence level responses to short paragraphs and essays.

Projects

Students must complete all weekly, midterm, and term final projects as well as the other activities; listening activities in class will be conducted which will require attention and response in Persian. Oral discussion will occur throughout the semester. Students are expected to perform not only on a daily basis, but at prearranged times throughout the semester.

Class Performance

Students will bring all materials required to each class session, participate in class discussions, and come prepared with homework completed. They must be present for all examinations and quizzes. Quizzes may be announced or unannounced.

Attendance and Participation (20%)

Class attendance is essential. In fact, much of the responsibility for learning a language falls on the students. It is not realistic to expect to develop communication skills in a new language if students are not physically present to practice it. Therefore, it is crucial that students attend class regularly.

More than two unexcused absence will affect your attendance and participation score (worth 15% of your final grade). Five or more absences will notably affect your final grade (by a third of a grade level if you have five absences, i.e., from A to A-, etc). If you miss class (regardless of whether this is excused or unexcused) please make sure to ask your colleagues (but not your instructor) to provide information as to what was covered in your absence. Covering the class material that you have missed on your own will be your responsibility and not your instructor's.

Excused absences include documented illnesses or accidents, religious holidays, participation in scheduled events as a member of a university-sponsored organization, and family emergencies. If you believe you are going to have an excused absence be sure to clear it with your instructor. Absence that fall into one of the listed categories for excused absences but that are not cleared with your instructor (ideally prior to the date of the absence) will be considered unexcused.

It is your responsibility to inform the instructor of any intended absence for religious observances in advance.

- Student participation requirements

Each student must be an active member of individual and group activities. Every class session must be viewed as an opportunity to contribute to the group experience with the Persian language and the cultural materials presented.

- Office hours and live sessions: OPTIONAL OR FLEXIBLE

Besides regular classes, all live, scheduled events for the course, including my office hours, are optional. For live presentations, I will provide a recording that you can watch later. If you are required to discuss an assignment with me, please contact me at the beginning of the week if you need a time outside my scheduled office hours.

- Contact Me: Please come talk to me over the course of the semester if you have any problems or concerns, but also if you have questions or anything else that you'd like to talk about. It's great to have the opportunity to get to know you outside of class. Office hours are a good time to catch me, but you can also email me to set up an appointment to talk. For quick questions or concerns, email (kamalisarvestani.1@osu.edu) is the best way to reach me. I will do my best to respond within 24 hours.

Homework (20%)

- Students will submit their homework each day before coming to the class.
- Each assignment will be graded according to a rubric posted on Carmen. You can skip three assignments without penalty. Late assignments are not accepted.

Four quizzes (20%)

- There will be four quizzes in this course. The instruction of each quiz will be available one week ahead.

Midterm (15%)

- A midterm exam will be assigned for this course. The instruction of the midterm exam will be available one week ahead.

Final Exam (25%)

- A cumulative final exam will be assigned for this course. The instruction of the final exam will be available one week ahead.

Late assignments

Late Work: Late work will not be accepted without written documentation that attests to unavoidable circumstances (illness, family emergency, etc).

Students with Disabilities

The University strives to make all learning experiences as accessible as possible. If you anticipate or experience academic barriers based on your disability (including mental health, chronic or temporary medical conditions), please let me know immediately so that we can privately discuss options. To establish reasonable accommodations, I may request that you register with Student Life Disability Services. After registration, make arrangements with me as soon as possible to discuss your accommodations so that they may be implemented in a timely fashion. Academic Misconduct

It is the responsibility of the Committee on Academic Misconduct to investigate or establish procedures for the investigation of all reported cases of student academic misconduct. The term “academic misconduct” includes all forms of student academic misconduct wherever committed; illustrated by, but not limited to, cases of plagiarism and dishonest practices in connection with examinations. Instructors shall report all instances of alleged academic misconduct to the committee (Faculty Rule 3335---5---487). For additional information, see the Code of Student Conduct (<http://studentlife.osu.edu/csc/>)

Academic Plagiarism

Many incidents of plagiarism result from students’ lack of understanding about what constitutes plagiarism. All work you submit must be your own scholarly and creative efforts. Based on OSU policy, at any stage of the writing process, all academic work submitted to the teacher must be a result of a student’s own thought, research or self-expression. When a student submits work purporting to be his or her own, but which in any way borrows organization, ideas, wording or anything else from a source without appropriate acknowledgment of the fact, he/she is engaging in plagiarism. You are expected to familiarize yourself with OSU's policy on plagiarism.

Statement on title IX (Recommended)

Title IX makes it clear that violence and harassment based on sex and gender are Civil Rights offenses subject to the same kinds of accountability and the same kinds of support applied to offenses against other protected categories (e.g., race). If you or someone you know has been sexually harassed or assaulted, you may find the appropriate resources at <http://titleix.osu.edu> or by contacting the Ohio State Title IX Coordinator, Kellie Brennan, at titleix@osu.edu

Your mental health!

As a student you may experience a range of issues that can cause barriers to learning, such as strained relationships, increased anxiety, alcohol/drug problems, feeling down, difficulty concentrating and/or lack of motivation. These mental health concerns or stressful events may lead to diminished academic performance or reduce a student's ability to participate in daily activities. The Ohio State University offers services to assist you with addressing these and other concerns you may be experiencing. If you or someone you know are suffering from any of the aforementioned conditions, you can learn more about the broad range of confidential mental health services available on campus via the Office of Student Life's Counseling and Consultation Service (CCS) by visiting ccs.osu.edu or calling 614- 292-5766. CCS is located on the 4th Floor of the Younkin Success Center and 10th Floor of Lincoln Tower.
