Dear Professor Hubbe,

On Monday, December 7, the Social and Behavioral Sciences Panel of the ASC Curriculum Committee reviewed new course proposals for Anthropology 7001, 7002, 7003, 7101 and course request changes for 7720 and 8872.

Anthropology 7101 and 8872 were unanimously approved with recommendations. Anthropology 7001, 7002, 7003, and 7720 were approved with contingencies and recommendations. For your convenience, I am cutting/pasting the feedback underneath my email as well attaching it as a separate Word document.

I will return Anthropology 7001, 7002, 7003, and 7720 to the department queue via curriculum.osu.edu in order to address the Panel's requests. Anthropology 7101 and 8872 will continue through the approval process.

Should you have any questions about the feedback of the Panel, please feel free to contact Susan Kline (faculty Chair of the SBS Panel; cc'd on this e-mail), or me.

Best wishes,
Shelby

1. Anthropology 7001 (new course)
 - The course goals provided are nearly identical to the program goals. It does not seem possible that one course accomplishes nearly all the learning goals of the entire program. The connection of the course content to program goals may be helpful for assessment, but the course goals should be tailored to the course and articulated in terms of the course content.
 - There is no standard OSU grading scheme.
 - The Title IX coordinator has changed. Update the statement regarding Title IX. Updated language can be found on the Curriculum and Assessment Services website.
 - Workshops are mentioned under information for seminars. It is unclear what the workshops are. The Panel recommends clarifying this portion of the syllabus.
 - Unanimously approved with one contingency (in bold above) and three recommendations (in italics above)
