Other Course Policies

How to do well in this class:

This class is a group effort!

1. Prepare for active participation in class. Practice new vocabulary out loud until you can produce it easily, listen/read texts several times until you are ready to answer questions on them, practice new grammar by using them in sentences.
2. Study out loud. The only way to train you is your brain and your mouth to speak in Hebrew is through performance. Reading silently is not enough. Repeat whatever you hear, pronounce whatever you write and learn to talk to yourself in Hebrew.
3. Think in Hebrew: While you are on your way from one class to another, think to yourself in Hebrew. Name all the objects whose name you know in Hebrew. Describe their location, size, shape, color, number, adding as much detail as possible.
4. Study in pairs/groups. This is a great way to prepare for class and review-as long as you do the work in Hebrew as much as possible of course!
Ask each other questions brainstorm about assignments; go over materials covered in class together. You are welcome to collaborate on assignments, as long as each student hands in his/her work.
5. Personalize vocabulary. Make words relevant by thinking of what you can say about yourself with them. Write extra sentences that are meaningful to you so can say more than what you want to say-which will come in time- and the best way to successfully attain that goal is to build a solid vocabulary base. Language learning is a process of programming yourself, because the words that you memorize are those very words that you will use to express yourself. By spending five minutes with words that you choose from the given vocabulary lists, you will be able to retain them for the rest of your life-make the language yours.
6. Language is context. The communicative approach to language learning encourages you the learner, to use what you know to derive what you do not.
Think about how you acquired your native language; you learned new words by guessing their meaning from the context, and you learned how to produce sentences by imitating and using patterns. As adult learners, we can take some shortcuts, but guessing skills remain central to language acquisition.
7. Good language learners learn from their own mistakes and those of others.
As adults, we have been trained not to make mistakes. As language learners new to Hebrew, mistakes are going to be made, but should not cause you undue stress.
8. When your classmates are speaking, be an active listener by listening both to what they are saying and how they are saying it. Think about how you would correct their sentences.

Academic Integrity Policy

See Descriptions of Major Course Assignments for specific guidelines about collaboration and academic integrity in the context of this online class.

Ohio State's Academic Integrity Policy

Academic integrity is essential to maintaining an environment that fosters excellence in teaching, research, and other educational and scholarly activities. Thus, The Ohio State University and the Committee on Academic Misconduct (COAM) expect that all students have read and understand the university's Code of Student Conduct (studentconduct.osu.edu), and that all students will complete all academic and scholarly assignments with fairness and honesty. Students must recognize that failure to follow the rules and guidelines established in the university's Code of Student Conduct and this syllabus may constitute "Academic Misconduct."

The Ohio State University's Code of Student Conduct (Section 3335-23-04) defines academic misconduct as: "Any activity that tends to compromise the academic integrity of the university or subvert the educational process." Examples of academic misconduct include (but are not limited to) plagiarism, collusion (unauthorized collaboration), copying the work of another student, and possession of unauthorized materials during an examination. Ignorance of the university's Code of Student Conduct is never considered an excuse for academic misconduct, so I recommend that you review the Code of Student Conduct and, specifically, the sections dealing with academic misconduct.

It is the responsibility of the Committee on Academic Misconduct to investigate or establish procedures for the investigation of all reported cases of student academic misconduct. The term "academic misconduct" includes all forms of student academic misconduct wherever committed; illustrated by, but not limited to, cases of plagiarism and dishonest practices in connection with examinations. Instructors shall report all instances of alleged academic misconduct to the committee (Faculty Rule 3335-5-487). For additional information, see the Code of Student Conduct <http://studentlife.osu.edu/csc/>.

Statement on Title IX

All students and employees at Ohio State have the right to work and learn in an environment free from harassment and discrimination based on sex or gender, and the university can arrange interim measures, provide support resources, and explain investigation options, including referral to confidential resources.

If you or someone you know has been harassed or discriminated against based on your sex or gender, including sexual harassment, sexual assault, relationship violence, stalking, or sexual exploitation, you may find information about your rights and options on Ohio State's Title IX website (titleix.osu.edu) or by contacting the Ohio State Title IX Coordinator at titleix@osu.edu. Title IX is part of the Office of Institutional Equity (OIE) at Ohio State, which responds to all bias-motivated incidents of harassment and discrimination, such as race, religion, national origin and disability. For more information, visit the OIE website (equity.osu.edu) or email equity@osu.edu.

Commitment to a Diverse and Inclusive Learning Environment

The Ohio State University affirms the importance and value of diversity in the student body. Our programs and curricula reflect our multicultural society and global economy and seek to provide opportunities for students to learn more about persons who are different from them. We are committed to maintaining a community that recognizes and values the inherent worth and dignity of every person; fosters sensitivity, understanding, and mutual respect among each member of our community; and encourages each individual to strive to reach his or her own potential. Discrimination against any individual based upon protected status, which is defined as age, color, disability, gender identity or expression, national origin, race, religion, sex, sexual orientation, or veteran status, is prohibited.

Your Mental Health

As a student you may experience a range of issues that can cause barriers to learning, such as strained relationships, increased anxiety, alcohol/drug problems, feeling down, difficulty concentrating and/or lack of motivation. These mental health concerns or stressful events may lead to diminished academic performance or reduce a student's ability to participate in daily activities. No matter where you are engaged in distance learning, The Ohio State University's Student Life Counseling and Consultation Service (CCS) is here to support you. If you find yourself feeling isolated, anxious or overwhelmed, on-demand mental health resources (go.osu.edu/ccsondemand) are available. You can reach an on-call counselor when CCS is closed at 614- 292-5766. 24-hour emergency help is available through the National Suicide Prevention Lifeline website(suicidepreventionlifeline.org)or by calling 1-800-273-8255\(TALK\). The Ohio State Wellness app (go.osu.edu/wellnessapp) is also a great resource.

Student Responsibilities

1. Attending and participating in class activities. Most of the language skills to be developed cannot be acquired without effective participation and interaction with other students and with the instructor.
2. Doing homework assignments on time. This out-of class preparation is essential for reinforcement of classroom learning, reading and writing. Homework is due the day after being assigned.
3. Taking quizzes, the midterm, and the written final. A make-up quiz will be given if a valid excuse is provided.

Homework: Homework will be assigned daily and will be due the following class. Homework will be corrected in class and then submitted to the instructor who will check all assignments.

Quizzes and Tests: There will be five quizzes and five tests. These will be held on alternate Fridays.

Final Examination: TBD

Grade Breakdown: The final grade will be calculated on the following basis:

| | |
|-------------------------------|------|
| ATTENDANCE/PARTICIPATION | 10% |
| HOMEWORK AND RECORDINGS | 15 % |
| WEEKLY QUIZZES AND UNIT TESTS | 40% |
| FINAL EXAMINATION | 25% |
| PRESENTATIONS | 10% |

Grading Scale:

A=93-100 A- = 90-92 B+ = 87-89

B = 83-86 B- = 80-82 C+ = 77-79 C = 70-72 C- 70-72 D+ = 67-69

D=60-66 E= below 60.

How to do well in this class:

This class is a group effort!

1. Prepare for active participation in class. Practice new vocabulary out loud until you can produce it easily, listen/read texts several times until you are ready to answer questions on them, practice new grammar by using them in sentences.
2. Study out loud. The only way to train you is your brain and your mouth to speak in Hebrew is through performance. Reading silently is not enough. Repeat whatever you hear, pronounce whatever you write and learn to talk to yourself in Hebrew.
3. Think in Hebrew: While you are on your way from one class to another, think to yourself in Hebrew. Name all the objects whose name you know in Hebrew. Describe their location, size, shape, color, number, adding as much detail as possible.
4. Study in pairs/groups. This is a great way to prepare for class and review-as long as you do the work in Hebrew as much as possible of course!
Ask each other questions brainstorm about assignments; go over materials covered in class together. You are welcome to collaborate on assignments, as long as each student hands in his/her work.
5. Personalize vocabulary. Make words relevant by thinking of what you can say about yourself with them. Write extra sentences that are meaningful to you so can say more than what you want to say-which will come in time- and the best way to successfully attain that goal is to build a solid vocabulary base. Language learning is a process of programming yourself, because the words that you memorize are those very words that you will use to express yourself. By spending five minutes with words that you choose from the given vocabulary lists, you will be able to retain them for the rest of your life-make the language yours.

6. Language is context. The communicative approach to language learning encourages you the learner, to use what you know to derive what you do not.

Think about how you acquired your native language; you learned new words by guessing their meaning from the context, and you learned how to produce sentences by imitating and using patterns. As adult learners, we can take some shortcuts, but guessing skills remain central to language acquisition.

7. Good language learners learn from their own mistakes and those of others.

As adults, we have been trained not to make mistakes. As language learners new to Hebrew, mistakes are going to be made, but should not cause you undue stress.

When your classmates are speaking, be an active listener by listening both to what they are saying and how they are saying it. Think about how you would correct their sentences.
