Good afternoon,

On Thursday, October 7, the Social and Behavioral Sciences Panel of the ASC Curriculum Committee reviewed the course proposal for International Studies 2800.

The Panel unanimously approved the request with three (3) recommendations and one (1) comment:

- On page 2 of the syllabus, there is a reference to the GEC-R, which is an old curriculum model; the Panel asks that this be amended to “GE” or “General Education.”
- The Panel recommends ensuring the new, up-to-date GE goals and ELOs that will go into effect Autumn 2022 replace the older materials currently on page 2 the syllabus. The language for the new GE Program is available at this link: <https://oaa.osu.edu/ohio-state-ge-program>
- The Panel would like to note that the course syllabus mentions the use of the Secure Media Library (found on page 4 of the syllabus). The status of the Secure Media Library is currently in flux, so the Panel encourages the instructor to e-mail emedial@osu.edu when finalizing the syllabus to ensure it contains the most current information about the status of this resource.
- The ASC Office of Curriculum and Assessment has amended the original form submitted on curriculum.osu.edu to include all OSU campuses – not just Columbus and Marion – in the “campus of offering” section, as required by the Office of Academic Affairs for courses in the new GE. If the department has specific reasons for wanting the course to be exclusive to Columbus and Marion, an explanatory rationale needs to be included at submission.

International Studies 2800 will continue through the approval process.

Should you have any questions about the feedback of the Panel, please feel free to contact Mat Coleman (faculty Chair of the SBS Panel; cc’d on this e-mail), or me.

Best,
Emily
