Good afternoon,

On Monday, February 8th, the Arts and Humanities 2 Panel of the ASC Curriculum Committee reviewed distance learning proposals for Spanish 2320 and 1103. Please find below the Panel's feedback for these courses.

- Spanish 2320 (distance learning request) approved with three recommendations:
 - Recommendation: The Panel observed that group session protocol could use some clarification in order to make it clear to students what they would be discussing and/or responsible for regarding the group session found on page 8 of the syllabus. They also would like to make a friendly suggestion to make sure the instructor is incrementally monitoring student progress.
 - Recommendation: The Panel suggests adding additional information regarding the student/instructor synchronous sessions as found on page 8 of the syllabus as they feel as if it is not entirely clear what students should have prepared for these sessions.
 - Recommendation: The Panel recommends adding additional information regarding the student's final three course in the course, as found on the course schedule on pages 17-19. They feel as if it is not entirely clear what student/instructor expectations are for those final weeks and would like to see more details.
- Spanish 1103 (distance learning proposal) approved with one recommendation:
 - Recommendation: The Panel recommends replacing the GEC language, found on page 2 of the syllabus, with the current GE language for the GE Foreign Language category. This language can be found on the ASC Curriculum and Assessment Services website at <https://ascas.osu.edu/curriculum/general-education-goals-and-expected-learning-outcomes>.

Spanish 2320 and 1103 will continue through the approval process.

Should you have any questions about the feedback of the Panel, please feel free to contact Luke Wilson (faculty Chair of the AH2 Panel; cc'd on this e-mail), or me.

Best,
Michael
