Comments

- The first contingency about the 14-week term has not been addressed, since this course will be delivered as a 12-week Summer course for the foreseeable future. I removed the check for 14 weeks for Length of Course above, and it is now only 12 weeks. The other two contingencies have been addressed in the revised syllabus.

I have also updated the 'Off campus' from 'Always' to 'Never.' I assumed DL meant off campus. Sorry about that.

Thanks for your help with this. (by Bielefeld, Eric Charles on 12/07/2021 11:54 AM)

HOW THIS COURSE WORKS

Mode of delivery: This is an online course consisting of online synchronous class sessions: 5:30-7:30pm on (TBD) evenings. For online sessions, you must be logged in to Carmen Zoom at the scheduled class time with CAMERA ON for class. If this is not possible, arrangements should be made with the instructor prior to the start of class.

Pace of online activities: This course is divided into weekly modules that are released at the designated course times. Assignments will be released 1 week prior to due dates and must be turned in by designated deadlines.

Credit hours and work expectations: This is a 2-credit-hour course completed over the 12 weeks of Summer term. According to Ohio State policy, students should expect around 2 hours and 20 minutes per week of time spent on direct instruction (instructor content and Carmen activities, for example) in addition to 4 hours 40 minutes of homework (reading and assignment preparation, for example) to receive a grade of (C) average.

Attendance and participation requirements: Because this is an online course, your attendance is based on your online activity and participation. The following is a summary of expected participation:

- Participating in online activities for attendance: ONCE PER WEEK
You are expected to log in to the course in Carmen every week for class sessions. (During most weeks you may log in many times for assignments.) If you have a situation that might cause you to miss an entire week of class, discuss with instructor as soon as possible.
- Office hours: SEE OPTIONS BELOW
Virtual office hours are scheduled by appointment only. Questions may also be addressed by email, phone or Zoom. Phone calls and Zoom meetings must be scheduled in advance.

- Participating in online assignments: ONCE PER WEEK
As part of your participation, each week you can expect to post at least once as part of our substantive class discussion on the week's topic.
- Participating in online discussion: ONCE PER WEEK
As part of your participation, each week you can expect an online discussion post for which threaded responses are required.

GRADING AND FACULTY RESPONSE

ASSIGNMENT CATEGORY	POINTS
Online In-class participation (attendance) 10 pts	110
Online Participation –Discussion Questions– 10 pts	100
Business Plan (Completed throughout Semester)	200
One-Week Marketing Plan	50
Business Budget	50
Mid-Term	100
Final	100
Total	740

See course schedule below for due dates.

Online Discussion Questions – Weekly posts are expected to be 100-200 words. They can include answers/comments to the question posed each week, and they can include questions or thoughts about the topic. Responses to other students' questions are encouraged, but not required to receive points for that week.

Academic integrity and collaboration: While students are welcome and encouraged to use other students' responses to prompt and inspire their discussion posts, the posts must be independent work that is not done collaboratively with other students.

Business Plan – The business plan assignment is a cumulation of work that will be completed throughout the semester. Each week, a new section of the business plan will be discussed. Throughout the week students are expected to complete this section of the business plan and turn in by end of class the following week. The Business Plan is designed to be a living document that students can use as a foundation should they decide to pursue a career in private practice ownership.

Academic integrity and collaboration: Students are welcome to discuss their plans with other students and solicit their feedback. However, the submitted plan must be independent work performed by each student.

One-Week Marketing Plan – The One-Week Marketing Plan is a marketing strategy that can be designed and implemented within 1 week. Whether it is a social media marketing campaign or participation in a local health fair, this one-week marketing plan is designed to be a catalyst to creative marketing for small business owners.

Academic integrity and collaboration: The one-week marketing plan must be independent work that is not done collaboratively with other students.

Business Budget – This assignment is part of the larger assignment "Business Plan" and is designed to help the student create a basic budget for a private practice. Mimicking a profit and loss statement, this budget follows a basic template that will help students understand the importance of managing business finances.

Academic integrity and collaboration: The business budget must be independent work that is not done collaboratively with other students.

Exams – The exams will be delivered during scheduled synchronous class periods. Students are not expected to use course materials or external information sources to complete the exams. Proctorio lockdown browser will be used to restrict access to external websites or notes.

Academic integrity and collaboration: The exams must be independent work that is not done collaboratively with other students.

Late assignments

Late submissions will not be accepted. Please refer to Carmen for due dates.

- Discussion board: I will check and reply to messages in the discussion boards every 24 hours on school days.

OTHER COURSE POLICIES

Discussion and communication guidelines

The following are my expectations for how we should communicate as a class. Above all, please remember to be respectful and thoughtful.

- Writing style: While there is no need to participate in class discussions as if you were writing a research paper, you should remember to write using good grammar, spelling, and punctuation. A more conversational tone is fine for non-academic topics.

- Tone and civility: Let's maintain a supportive learning community where everyone feels safe and where people can disagree amicably. Remember that sarcasm doesn't always come across online.
- Citing your sources: When we have academic discussions, please cite your sources to back up what you say. (For the textbook or other course materials, list at least the title and page numbers. For online sources, include a link.)
- Backing up your work: Consider composing your academic posts in a word processor, where you can save your work, and then copying into the Carmen discussion.
- Academic services offered on the OSU main campus:
<http://advising.osu.edu/welcome.shtml>
- Student services offered on the OSU main campus: <http://ssc.osu.edu>.

Academic integrity policy

POLICIES FOR THIS ONLINE COURSE

- Quizzes and exams: You must complete the midterm and final exams yourself, without any external help or communication.
- Written assignments: Your written assignments, including discussion posts, should be your own original work. In formal assignments, you should follow MLA style to cite the ideas and words of your research sources. You are encouraged to ask a trusted person to proofread your assignments before you turn them in—but no one else should revise or rewrite your work.
- Reusing past work: In general, you are prohibited in university courses from turning in work from a past class to your current class, even if you modify it. If you want to build on past research or revisit a topic you've explored in previous courses, please discuss the situation with me.
- Falsifying research or results: All research you will conduct in this course is intended to be a learning experience; you should never feel tempted to make your results or your library research look more successful than it was.
- Collaboration and informal peer-review: The course includes many opportunities for formal collaboration with your classmates. While study groups and peer-review of major written projects is encouraged, remember that comparing answers on a quiz or assignment is not permitted. If you're unsure about a particular situation, please feel free just to ask ahead of time.

OHIO STATE'S ACADEMIC INTEGRITY POLICY

Academic integrity is essential to maintaining an environment that fosters excellence in teaching, research, and other educational and scholarly activities. Thus, The Ohio State University and the Committee on Academic Misconduct (COAM) expect that all students have read and understand the University's Code of Student Conduct, and that all students will complete all academic and scholarly assignments with fairness and honesty. Students must recognize that failure to follow the rules and guidelines established in the University's Code of Student Conduct and this syllabus may constitute "Academic Misconduct."

The Ohio State University's Code of Student Conduct (Section 3335-23-04) defines academic misconduct as: "Any activity that tends to compromise the academic integrity of the University, or subvert the educational process." Examples of academic misconduct include (but are not limited to) plagiarism, collusion (unauthorized collaboration), copying the work of another student, and possession of unauthorized materials during an examination. Ignorance of the University's Code of Student Conduct is never considered an excuse for academic misconduct, so I recommend that you review the Code of Student Conduct and, specifically, the sections dealing with academic misconduct.

If I suspect that a student has committed academic misconduct in this course, I am obligated by University Rules to report my suspicions to the Committee on Academic Misconduct. If COAM determines that you have violated the University's Code of Student Conduct (i.e., committed academic misconduct), the sanctions for the misconduct could include a failing grade in this course and suspension or dismissal from the University.

If you have any questions about the above policy or what constitutes academic misconduct in this course, please contact me.

Other sources of information on academic misconduct (integrity) to which you can refer include:

Statement on Title IX

Title IX makes it clear that violence and harassment based on sex and gender are Civil Rights offenses subject to the same kinds of accountability and the same kinds of support applied to offenses against other protected categories (e.g., race). If you or someone you know has been sexually harassed or assaulted, you may find the appropriate resources at <http://titleix.osu.edu> or by contacting the Ohio State Title IX Coordinator, Kellie Brennan, at titleix@osu.edu

Your mental health

A recent American College Health Survey found stress, sleep problems, anxiety, depression, interpersonal concerns, death of a significant other, and alcohol use among the top ten health impediments to academic performance. Students experiencing personal problems or situational crises during the quarter are encouraged to contact Ohio State University Counseling and Consultation Service (614-292-5766; www.ccs.osu.edu) for assistance, support and advocacy. Students should have opportunities for regular and substantive academic interactions with the course instructor. Some ways to achieve this objective:

Regular instructor communications with the class via announcements or weekly check-ins.

Instructional content, such as video, audio, or interactive lessons, that is visibly created or mediated by the instructor.

- Regular participation in class discussion, such as in Carmen discussions or synchronous sessions.
- Regular opportunities for students to receive personal instructor feedback on assignments.

Technology questions adapted from the Quality Matters rubric. For information about Ohio State learning technologies: Toolsets.

- The tools used in the course support the learning outcomes and competencies.
- Course tools promote learner engagement and active learning.
- Technologies required in the course are current and readily obtainable.
- Links are provided to privacy policies for all external tools required in the course.

Additional technology comments (optional):

Which components of this course are planned for synchronous delivery and which for asynchronous delivery? (For DH, address what is planned for in-person meetings as well.)

If you believe further explanation would be helpful, please comment on how course activities have been adjusted for distance learning (optional):

Workload Estimation

For more information about calculating online instruction time: ODEE Credit Hour Estimation.

- Course credit hours align with estimated average weekly time to complete the course successfully.
- Course includes direct (equivalent of “in-class”) and indirect (equivalent of “out-of-class”) instruction at a ratio of about 1:2.

Provide a brief outline of a typical course week, categorizing course activities and estimating the approximate time to complete them or participate:

- In the case of course delivery change requests, the course demonstrates comparable rigor in meeting course learning outcomes.

Accessibility

For more information or a further conversation, contact the accessibility coordinator for the College of Arts and Sciences. For tools and training on accessibility: Digital Accessibility Services.

- Instructor(s) teaching the course will have taken Digital Accessibility training (starting in 2022) and will ensure all course materials and activities meet requirements for diverse learners, including alternate means of accessing course materials when appropriate.
- Information is provided about the accessibility of all technologies required in the course. All third-party tools (tools without campus-wide license agreements) have their accessibility statements included.

Description of any anticipated accommodation requests and how they have been/will be addressed.

Additional comments (optional):

Academic Integrity

For more information: Academic Integrity.

- The course syllabus includes online-specific policies about academic integrity, including specific parameters for each major assignment:
- Assignments are designed to deter cheating and plagiarism and/or course technologies such as online proctoring or plagiarism check or other strategies are in place to deter cheating.

Additional comments (optional):

Frequent, Varied Assignments/Assessments

For more information: Designing Assessments for Students.

Student success in online courses is maximized when there are frequent, varied learning activities. Possible approaches:

- Opportunities for students to receive course information through a variety of different sources, including indirect sources, such as textbooks and lectures, and direct sources, such as scholarly resources and field observation.
- Variety of assignment formats to provide students with multiple means of demonstrating learning.
- Opportunities for students to apply course knowledge and skills to authentic, real-world tasks in assignments.

Comment briefly on the frequency and variety of assignment types and assessment approaches used in this course (or select methods above):

Community Building

For more information: Student Interaction Online.

Students engage more fully in courses when they have an opportunity to interact with their peers and feel they are part of a community of learners. Possible approaches:

- Opportunities for students to interact academically with classmates through regular class discussion or group assignments.
- Opportunities for students to interact socially with classmates, such as through video conference sessions or a course Q&A forum.
- Attention is paid to other ways to minimize transactional distance (psychological and communicative gaps between students and their peers, instructor, course content, and institution).

Transparency and Metacognitive Explanations

For more information: Supporting Student Learning.

Students have successful, meaningful experiences when they understand how the components of a course connect together, when they have guidance on how to study, and when they are encouraged to take ownership of their learning. Possible approaches:

- Instructor explanations about the learning goals and overall design or organization of the course.
- Context or rationale to explain the purpose and relevance of major tasks and assignments.

- Guidance or resources for ancillary skills necessary to complete assignments, such as conducting library research or using technology tools.
- Opportunities for students to take ownership or leadership in their learning, such as by choosing topics of interest for an assignment or leading a group discussion or meeting.
- Opportunities for students to reflect on their learning process, including their goals, study strategies, and progress.
- Opportunities for students to provide feedback on the course.
