The Ohio State University
Colleges of the Arts and Sciences Concurrence Form

The purpose of this form is to provide a simple system of obtaining departmental reactions to course requests. A letter may be substituted for this form.

An academic unit initiating a request should complete Section A of this form and send a copy of the form, course request, and syllabus to each of the academic units that might have related interests in the course. Initiating units should be allowed two weeks for responses.

Academic units receiving this form should respond to Section B and return the form to the initiating unit. Overlap of course content and other problems should be resolved by the academic units before this form and all other accompanying documentation may be forwarded to the Office of Academic Affairs.

B. Information from the academic unit reviewing the request should include a reaction to the proposal, including a statement of support or non-support (continued on the back of this form or a separate sheet, if necessary).

The Department of Psychology is pleased to concur with Sociology's new course SOC 315 above. We note that although the term "social psychology" is used in the course and that Section IV.a. of the topical outline is clearly psychology, the course is mostly sociological in nature, and therefore raise no objections to SOC 315 as proposed.
