Good afternoon,

On Monday, March 8th, the Arts and Humanities 2 of the ASC Curriculum Committee reviewed a course change proposal for Russian 5160.

The Panel did not vote on the proposal as they would like the following points addressed:

- The Panel would like further justification about why this course should be changed to 3 credit hours from 1 credit hour. The only real difference between the workload in the two provided syllabi appears to be a change in textbook, as all course assignments appear to be unchanged.
- The Panel would like to suggest adding a reference dictionary that students can use to help in their translation work.
- Week 13 is missing on the provided calendar (found on pages 6-9 on the syllabus).
- The Panel would like to mention that this course can be repeated up to 9 credit hours, which would constitute a significant portion of particular student's major program and would like the department to consider whether this is intentional or not.

I will return Russian 5160 to the department queue via curriculum.osu.edu in order to address the Panel's requests.

Should you have any questions about the feedback of the Panel, please feel free to contact Luke Wilson (faculty Chair of the AH&2 Panel; cc'd on this e-mail), or me.

Best,
Michael
