COURSE OVERVIEW

Instructor

Instructor: TBD

Email address: (preferred contact method)

Phone number:

Office hours:

Prerequisites

French 1101.01, 1101.21, 4 semester hours of 1101.51, 4 semester hours of 1101.61, 102.01, 102.66, or 5 quarter hours of 102.51. Not open to students with credit for 1102.01, 1102.21, 1102.30, 4 semester hours of 1102.51 or 1102.61, 103.01, 103.51, or 103.66.

Course description

In this course, you will continue to develop your ability to read, speak, write, and understand French. As in 1101, your instructor will make every effort to speak exclusively in French and you are encouraged to make your best effort to interact with your instructor and classmates in French as well as during Zoom meetings. You may not (and you are not expected to) understand every single word your instructor says, but you should be able to get the general idea of what message your instructor is trying to communicate to you. Keep in mind that making errors is a natural and necessary part of learning a new language, so please do not feel nervous when you make mistakes speaking in class. The activities in this course will allow you to learn interesting information about your classmates, your instructors, and the French-speaking world in addition to helping you acquire skills in French.

Course learning outcomes

By the end of this course, students should successfully be able to:

- pick out familiar words and phrases from French songs, videos and films to be able to comprehend the overall message of what is communicated in these mediums;
- understand presentations by the instructor on French and Francophone cultures with frequent explanations and clarifications;
- read and understand short, authentic texts and dialogues;
- engage in brief conversations and complete simple tasks with your classmates, the instructor, and native speakers who are sympathetic to the communicative needs of language learners;
- write brief essays and engage in discussion forums on topics related to readings or material used in class using the structures and vocabulary you have learned in both 1101 and 1102;
- understand different aspects of French and Francophone cultures;
- discuss competently (in French and in English) a variety of topics related to French and Francophone culture and society and make contrasts and comparisons with your own culture.

General education goals and expected learning outcomes

As part of the Foreign Language category of the General Education curriculum, this course is designed to prepare students to be able to do the following:

GE Goals:

Students demonstrate skills in communication across ethnic, cultural, ideological, and national boundaries and appreciate other cultures and patterns of thought.

GE Expected Learning Outcomes:

1. Students employ communicative skills (e.g. speaking, listening, reading, and/or writing) in a language other than their native language.
2. Students describe and analyze the cultural contexts and manifestations of the peoples who speak the language that they are studying.
3. Students compare and contrast the cultures and communities of the language that they are studying with their own.

Course Objectives:

French 1102 is the second course of a sequence (1101, 1102, 1103) that leads to fulfillment of the general education requirement (GE) for the Foreign Language category. This course satisfies the expected learning outcomes for the GE in a variety of ways. You will continue to develop your speaking skills by interacting with your instructor and by completing tasks with your classmates in pairs and in small groups in Zoom. You will develop your reading skills by reading authentic cultural texts in your book and online. Your listening comprehension skills will continue to develop as you complete on-line listening activities and as you listen to and reflect on your classmates' reactions to class discussions. You will continue to refine your listening skills through watching short videos related to cultural topics about the Francophone world, and as you watch the film that accompanies the textbook, Liaisons. You will continue to develop your writing skills by writing reaction statements and short essays related to the reading texts and in-class activities. The cultural topics you will learn include important historical figures in the French-speaking world, holidays and traditions, art and literature, and different lifestyles in French and Francophone societies. Throughout this course, you will compare and contrast French and Francophone cultures with your own by examining the products, perspectives, and practices of these cultures.

HOW THIS ONLINE COURSE WORKS

Mode of delivery: This course will be delivered 100% online. This course follows the same structure of in-person classroom courses, but instead of in-person class meetings, students have the opportunity to engage in optional synchronous class sessions in Zoom with the instructor and classmates for interaction, additional conversation practice, and to ask questions. These sessions take place during the normally scheduled class time. This course is for students who need a flexible schedule or who cannot attend in-person classes, but who would still like a structured class with the possibility of interaction with the instructor and classmates, and the opportunity to ask questions via Zoom.

Pace of online activities: This course is divided into chapter unit modules that follow a set schedule. Students are expected to keep pace with regular daily homework. Windows for completing exams and other assignments are explained in the schedule.

Credit hours and work expectations: This is a 4-credit-hour course. According to Ohio State policy (go.osu.edu/credithours), students should expect around 4 hours per week of time spent on direct instruction (instructor content and Carmen activities, for example) in addition to 8 hours of homework (reading and assignment preparation, for example) to receive a grade of (C) average.

Attendance and participation requirements: While there is no penalty for not attending the live Zoom sessions, students are encouraged to attend as many as they can to get to know the instructor and classmates, and to have more opportunities to improve their French. Attending sessions is the best way to prepare for the final oral exam for the course. Getting to know classmates will also facilitate collaboration on the final group project. The synchronous sessions will be recorded so that students can (re)view them at a later time.

- Participating in online response activity for participation: DAILY You are expected to log in to the course in Carmen every day to watch a presentation video of the material for that day. You are not required to attend the live Zoom practice session, but you are required to watch the pre-recorded presentation video (available 24 hours before class time) and write a response to the questions in your daily participation assignment activity on Carmen.
- Office hours and live sessions: OPTIONAL
Office hours are optional.
- Participating in discussion forums: AS INDICATED IN THE SCHEDULE
Please see the class schedule for the due dates for these and all other assignments.

Placement Exams

You are required to fill out the 'course registration form' on the first day of class to ensure that you are taking the appropriate level of French. If your instructor finds that you need to take the French language placement exam, you must do so before the second Friday of the semester. If the exam has not been taken at this point it will be too late for you to enroll in any other French classes and you may risk being dropped from the class. Information about taking the online French placement exam can be found here. Please note that your placement results are preliminary, and verification may be needed. Please contact your instructor or the Placement Adviser (Julie Parson, parson.30@osu.edu) if you have any questions.

Technology skills needed for this course

- Basic computer and web-browsing skills
- Navigating Carmen (go.osu.edu/canvasstudent)
- CarmenZoom virtual meetings (go.osu.edu/zoom-meetings)
- MindTap for online homework (MindTap tech help)
- Recording a slide presentation with audio narration (go.osu.edu/video-assignment-guide)
- Recording, editing, and uploading video (go.osu.edu/video-assignment-guide)

Required equipment

- Computer: current Mac (MacOs) or PC (Windows 10) with high-speed internet connection
- Webcam: built-in or external webcam, fully installed and tested
- Microphone: built-in laptop or tablet mic or external microphone
- Other: a mobile device (smartphone or tablet) to use for BuckeyePass authentication

Required software

- Microsoft Office 365: All Ohio State students are now eligible for free Microsoft Office 365. Full instructions for downloading and installation can be found at go.osu.edu/office365help.

Carmen access

You will need to use BuckeyePass (buckeyepass.osu.edu) multi-factor authentication to access your courses in Carmen. To ensure that you are able to connect to Carmen at all times, it is recommended that you take the following steps:

- Register multiple devices in case something happens to your primary device. Visit the BuckeyePass - Adding a Device help article for step-by-step instructions (go.osu.edu/add-device).
- Request passcodes to keep as a backup authentication option. When you see the Duo login screen on your computer, click Enter a Passcode and then click the Text me new codes button that appears. This will text you ten passcodes good for 365 days that can each be used once.
- Download the Duo Mobile application (go.osu.edu/install-duo) to all of your registered devices for the ability to generate one-time codes in the event that you lose cell, data, or Wi-Fi service

If none of these options will meet the needs of your situation, you can contact the IT Service Desk at 614-688-4357(HELP) and IT support staff will work out a solution with you.

GRADING AND FACULTY RESPONSE

How your grade is calculated

Examen oral final [Final Oral Exam]	10%
Total	100%

Descriptions of major course assignments

Devoirs [Homework]

Because at-home preparation is critical, the homework grade is given substantial weight, 20%. Not doing homework on time will have a negative impact on your grade. You are assigned homework to prepare you for the next day's class lesson and activities. You are expected to have prepared all homework for each class before each synchronous class session whether you attend them or not.

(1) Daily Online Homework:

Daily homework for this course must be completed online in MindTap. Your instructor will give you instructions to help you register for MindTap.

Homework in MindTap is automatically graded by MindTap. If you get some items wrong, you may redo the activity 2 more times (3 total attempts) to obtain a better score.

When you log into MindTap to do your homework, you will see the due date for each set of assignments. You have until before the class hour on the day that each assignment is due to complete each assignment. For example, for assignments due Tuesday November 20, if your class is at 9:00 AM, you must complete them by 8:59 am on Tuesday Nov. 20 to receive credit.

** Please note that you do not need to wait until the due date to complete assignments. Due dates reflect the last possible date you can do the assignments, but you can and should always work ahead when possible. You are encouraged to do homework daily rather than waiting until the end of the chapter. You can see all of the activities due for the entire course when you log in, or you can click the calendar icon to see activities due each week.

It is your responsibility to consult the syllabus and to log into MindTap (not Carmen) to see the due dates for each assignment. Your instructor is not obligated to accept any late work.

(2) Short writing activities: You will have a few short essays to write based on chapter themes in Liaisons. You will do these assignments in Carmen. Dues dates for these assignments are listed in your syllabus as well as in Carmen.

Rubric for writing activities

(3) Discussion Forums: You will engage in four discussion forums in Carmen. In addition to posting your response, you must respond/react to at least one of your classmate's posts to receive full credit. The purpose of this activity is not to practice grammar but for you to communicate your ideas to your classmates using language you have learned so far. You may make some errors but do your best to make your ideas and responses comprehensible to your classmates. Your instructor will not correct grammatical errors in this assignment but may respond to some of the posts. Dues dates for these assignments are listed in your syllabus as well as in Carmen.

			TOTAL: / 10

(4) Self-recording activities: You will have four speaking activities in which you video record yourself speaking on a designated topic and submit these recordings to your instructor. These activities are in MindTap and you will submit these to your instructor in MindTap. Dues dates for these assignments are listed in your syllabus as well as on MindTap. You may receive .5 extra credit points toward these activities for each Zoom class session you attend. There is a maximum of 2 bonus points per assignment.

(5) Partner recording activities: You will have four conversation activities that you will do online with a partner in MindTap. You will video record these activities and submit them to your instructor in MindTap. Dues dates for these assignments are listed in your syllabus as well as on MindTap. You may receive .5 extra credit points toward these activities for each Zoom class session you attend. There is a maximum of 2 bonus points per assignment.

It is your responsibility to consult the syllabus and to log into MindTap to see the due dates for each assignment. You can see the due dates each week by clicking on the calendar icon in MindTap. Your instructor is not obligated to accept any late work. (Please note that the due dates for the Discussion Forums are listed on Carmen.)

Academic integrity and collaboration: Homework assignments should be your own work.

Synchronous Zoom Sessions:

Your instructor will present lectures and activities related to class content in Zoom during the regularly scheduled class time. These sessions are not required but you will benefit greatly from attending them. These sessions will clarify and solidify what you learned from your homework and give you the opportunity to interact regularly with the instructor and your classmates as well as to ask questions. Regular interaction in French is one of the best ways to improve your French skills. These sessions will allow you to get to know your instructor and classmates, and to help build a sense of community. Getting to know your classmates will also facilitate your work on the final course group project with your group members (see below for information on group project). You may receive .5 extra credit pts for each Zoom session you attend toward an assignment that requires speaking (i.e., self-recording or partner recording assignments) or toward an oral quiz grade. Please note that there is a 2 point per assignment maximum (5 points possible on the Final Oral Exam). These Zoom sessions are recorded so that you can also (re)view them at another time.

Weekly Participation Grade:

Presentation Videos: For your participation/preparation grade, you will watch brief presentation videos that your instructor will put on Carmen to help clarify and solidify what you learned from your homework to prepare you for each class lesson. Watch these videos, identify and answer the question du jour in French, and identify your instructor's answer to the question du jour. You should also write down 1-2 things you learned from the pre-recorded presentation video. You will complete a participation report in Carmen before each in-person or Zoom class. Videos are available at least 24 hours before class, and the report must be submitted before your scheduled Zoom class. Please note that a maximum of 2 points per week bonus may be applied to your participation grade. Please see the section on bonuses for more information.

The following scale is used to assess each day of your weekly performance:

Meets All Expectations 5	Meets Some Expectations 3-4	Unsatisfactory 0-2
Participation report coherently summarizes in English one to two things learned from the presentation session.	Report summarizes in English one to two things learned from the presentation session.	Report does not summarize at least thing learned from the presentation session.
In French, the student accurately identifies the question du jour , answers the question adequately, and reports on at least one response to the question from the instructor.	Report does not accurately identify in French the question du jour . The student does not adequately answer the question and/or does not report on at least one response to the question from the instructor.	Report does not identify in French the question du jour . The student does not answer the question and/or does not report on at least one response to the question from the instructor.

Each day, you will receive a performance grade (5 pts maximum each day). These scores will be averaged at the end of the semester to obtain your final participation grade for the course.

Academic integrity and collaboration: You are expected to complete the participation assignments on your own.

Interrogations vocabulaires [Prep checks]

You will have 13 vocabulary checks, worth 10 pts. each, throughout the semester, as indicated on the schedule. The purpose of these checks is to verify that students have studied the vocabulary for the day's lesson. You should be able to do well if you have read the material and completed the assigned MindTap activities on your own the night before. These checks are in Carmen and must be done before each scheduled Zoom session. Each check should take no more than 5 minutes. At the end of the semester, you may drop your lowest grade. Makeup checks will not be administered. It is your responsibility to consult the syllabus to see the due dates for each assignment, including the interrogations vocabulaires.

Academic integrity and collaboration: Vocabulary quizzes are included as self-checks but are expected to be completed on your own.

Contrôles (5) [Chapter quizzes]

There will be five chapter quizzes, one on chapitre P, one on chapitre 1, one on chapitre 2, one on chapitre 3, and one on chapitre 4. These chapter quizzes are in Carmen and are timed. Once you start the quiz, you must complete it in the time allowed. You cannot return to a question once you have moved on to the next question. Please consult Carmen and the daily schedule to determine when these quizzes open and when you need to complete these quizzes.

These quizzes assess your proficiency in listening comprehension and writing as well as your comprehension of the cultural information in Liaisons. You can also expect questions related to the film, Liaisons.

The quizzes are driven by the communicative learning goals listed in your daily schedule. To prepare for the quizzes, try to attend Zoom sessions regularly for practice and to ask questions, and complete all homework on time including the individual and partner speaking activities. Review the communicative learning goals for each lesson and make sure you can answer all the questions in relation to each goal.

Academic integrity and collaboration: The chapter tests are open book, open note, and open internet resources such as wordreference.com, or another online dictionary. However, the use of an online translator, such as Google translate, is considered academic misconduct. Additionally, you must complete the tests yourself, without any external help or communication.

Interrogations orales: Oui, je peux dire!* [Speaking quizzes]

You will take short speaking quizzes called Oui, je peux dire! to assess your speaking ability. You will access these quizzes in Carmen.

You must video record these quizzes and submit them to your instructor. You may re-record yourself as many times as you wish and submit the version that you feel is the best. However, once a recording is submitted, you cannot submit it again. All recordings must be submitted before midnight. You may not seek any language assistance from anyone to do this recording. The use of translators is strictly prohibited. Questions are randomized so different students will receive different questions.

Practicing speaking by attending synchronous class sessions and engaging in online speaking activities with your classmates will help you prepare for these speaking quizzes. You may receive .5 pts toward these quizzes for each Zoom session that you attend (maximum 2 pts per quiz).

Please refer to your daily schedule and Carmen for due dates.

Rubric for Oui, je peux dire!
Meets Expectations: Student performed task with ease; while some structures may have been non-native, students had excellent command of vocabulary and would be easily understood by a sympathetic native speaker without having to ask for clarification; good fluency and pronunciation for this level. Speech is natural and spontaneous. Student is not reading from a pre-written text. All task requirements met. Content is interesting and well-developed.	9-10
Meets Most Expectations: Student performed task with relative ease; many traces of non-native structures but demonstrated a relatively good command of vocabulary and would still be understood by a sympathetic native speaker with some effort; some minor issues in pronunciation that do not impede comprehensibility. Speech is natural and spontaneous even if not very fluid. Student is not reading from a pre-written text. All task requirements met.	8
Meets Some Expectations: Despite some significant issues with fluency, pronunciation, and structural/lexical errors, student is still able to get the main message (but perhaps not all the details) across to a sympathetic native speaker. Student appears to be reading from a pre-written text. All task requirements met.	7

Needs Work: Student performed task with great difficulty; nearly or completely incomprehensible; incomplete or information not relevant to the task; poor pronunciation for this level that impedes comprehensibility. Student is unable to apply communicative skills at the level expected for this course. Student appears to be reading from a pre-written text.	1-6

Academic integrity and collaboration: These are timed quizzes that are open book, open note, and open internet resources such as wordreference.com, or another online dictionary. However, the use of an online translator, such as Google translate, is considered academic misconduct. Additionally, you must complete them yourself, without any external help or communication.

Extra Credit Opportunities

There are a number of ways to earn extra credit toward your participation grade and speaking assignments/quizzes grades (i.e., self-recordings, partner recordings, oral quizzes).

(1) Liaisons musicales and Si vous y allez cultural activities: In the textbook Liaisons, you will see short cultural notes about music and interesting places to visit in the Francophone world in the side bars of the book. These same culture notes can be found in MindTap with expansion activities. You may complete these activities in MindTap for ½ an extra credit point each toward your weekly participation grade. You may do as many of these as you like but you can only count two of these a week (for a total of 1 pt a week) toward each week's participation grade. You may complete these activities in English.

(2) Café +: You may receive extra credit toward a speaking assignment (i.e., self-recording or partner recording), speaking quiz, or weekly participation grade by attending the online French conversation table Café +. You will earn .5 pt for attending 2 15-minute Café + sessions. (Note: A no-show to a Café + online conversation table results in needing to complete 3 sessions to receive .5 points.) Please see "Activities" section for more info about Café +.

(3) Zoom sessions: You will receive .5 extra credit pts for each Zoom session you attend toward a speaking assignment (i.e., self-recording or partner recording) or speaking quiz. Please note that there is a maximum of 2 points per assignment (5 point maximum on the Final Oral Exam).

Projet final: [Final project]

You will work in groups to make a video of a cultural program based on a cultural theme in Liaisons. The requirements for this assignment are explained in detail on Carmen. You will receive an individual and a group grade on this project. You will provide a link to your project for your instructor and classmates to view during the last week of class. Your classmates will vote for their favorite show. For your participation grade for the last week of class, you will watch your classmates' videos and comment on what you learned from each show.

Academic integrity and collaboration: This project should be your group's own original work. Group projects can be stressful for students when it comes to dividing work, taking credit, and receiving grades and feedback. I have attempted to make the guidelines for group work as clear as possible for each activity and assignment, but please let me know if you have any questions.

Examen oral final [final oral exam]

Your final oral exam consists of a short interview with your instructor and a classmate. This exam will take place in Zoom during the last week of class. The requirements for this assignment are explained in detail on Carmen.

Academic integrity and collaboration: No external resources of any kind are permitted. The use of an online translator, such as Google translate, is considered academic misconduct.

Examen final [final exam]

The final exam will primarily focus on material from chapters 5 & 6 but may also contain some content from previous lessons. The final exam is a timed exam in Carmen. Once you start the exam, you must complete it in the time allowed. You cannot return to a question once you have moved on to the next question.

The exam will take place during Final Exam Week based on the University Final Exam Schedule. Please see Carmen for your final exam date and time.

Academic integrity and collaboration: The final exam is open book, open note, and open internet resources such as wordreference.com, or another online dictionary. However, the use of an online translator, such as Google translate, is considered academic misconduct. Additionally, you must complete the final exam yourself, without any external help or communication.

Late assignments

Your participation grade in the course will be assessed via a daily response you submit on Carmen (please see the weekly participation grade section above), and all assignments are due on their due date. You are advised to not wait till the last minute to complete assignments to avoid glitches with technology. No late work will be accepted.

Please make sure that you proactively read the syllabus and schedule and that you understand what assignments are due and when.

Policy for Timed Assignments/Exams

Timed assignments (an exam, for example) must be completed during the window it is open. If you know ahead of time that you won't be able to complete a timed assignment for an acceptable extenuating circumstance (see below) during the window it is open, please contact your instructor as far in advance as possible so an alternative assignment window may be opened for you.

Some examples of ACCEPTABLE extenuating circumstances include:

- Emergency/extreme situations such as illness, family medical emergency, or death in the family
- A career interview that cannot be rescheduled outside of class time [documentation required]
- Governmental duties such as subpoenas, jury duty, and military service [documentation required]

Some examples of UNACCEPTABLE excuses include:

- Family vacations
- Conflicts with work schedule
- Athletic, recreational and other activities that are not affiliated with OSU

Instructor feedback and response time

I am providing the following list to give you an idea of my intended availability throughout the course. (Remember that you can call 614-688-4357(HELP) at any time if you have a technical problem.)

- Grading and feedback: For large weekly assignments, you can generally expect feedback within 7 days.
- Email: I will reply to emails within 24 hours on days when class is in session at the university.

OTHER COURSE POLICIES

Discussion and communication guidelines

A significant component of our interactions in this class will occur through Zoom videoconferencing. Because this mode of discussion has benefits and challenges that differ from in-person class sessions, I want to share my expectations for how we will meet and communicate:

- Technical Issues: If you encounter a technical issue with Zoom during a session, first make sure you are using the latest version of Zoom. Next, contact the IT Service Desk at go.osu.edu/it or 614-688-4357(HELP). If issues continue, contact me after the session to learn how to make up for the missed content either via a recording or other means. I will not be able to address technical issues during a live session.
- Preparation: Come to the session having completed any readings or pre-work and be ready to have open, civil, and supportive discussions in video and chat spaces. I ask that you update your Zoom profile with your preferred name and add a picture with your face.
- Participation: At the start of our sessions, I will share specific expectations for how to use the chat, how to interact, and how to raise questions or concerns as we go. If you are unsure about expectations or are unsure about raising a question, please follow up with me afterward to make sure your questions are answered. Plan to be present during the entire class session as much as you are able. For some activities, I may ask you to share your faces on camera so that we can see each other and connect. Please feel encouraged to use a non-distracting virtual background. Many students and instructors prefer not to share their remote spaces for a variety of reasons. Mute your microphone when others are talking to minimize background noise in the meeting.

If you have any concerns about participating in class over Zoom in this way, please let me know. My goal is to create a safe environment where we can benefit from seeing each other and connecting, but I want to prioritize your safety and well-being.

Recordings: This course uses video and audio recordings of class lectures, student presentations, and related materials. These recordings are available to all students presently enrolled in the course. Please note that you are not allowed to share these recordings. This is to protect your FERPA rights and those of your fellow students.

Academic integrity policy

See Descriptions of major course assignments, above, for my specific guidelines about collaboration and academic integrity in the context of this online class.

It is the responsibility of the Committee on Academic Misconduct to investigate or establish procedures for the investigation of all reported cases of student academic misconduct. The term “academic misconduct” includes all forms of student academic misconduct wherever committed; illustrated by, but not limited to, cases of plagiarism and dishonest practices in connection with examinations. Instructors shall report all instances of alleged academic misconduct to the committee (Faculty Rule 3335-5-487). For additional information, see the Code of Student Conduct <http://studentlife.osu.edu/csc/>.

If I suspect that a student has committed academic misconduct in this course, I am obligated by university rules to report my suspicions to the Committee on Academic Misconduct. If COAM determines that you have violated the university’s Code of Student Conduct (i.e., committed academic misconduct), the sanctions for the misconduct could include a failing grade in this course and suspension or dismissal from the university. If you have any questions about the above policy or what constitutes academic misconduct in this course, please contact me.

Other sources of information on academic misconduct (integrity) to which you can refer include:

- Committee on Academic Misconduct web page (go.osu.edu/coam)
- Ten Suggestions for Preserving Academic Integrity (go.osu.edu/ten-suggestions)

Student Services and Advising

University Student Services can be accessed through BuckeyeLink. More information is available here:

<https://contactbuckeyelink.osu.edu/>

Advising resources for students are available here:

<http://advising.osu.edu>

Copyright for instructional materials

The materials used in connection with this course may be subject to copyright protection and are only for the use of students officially enrolled in the course for the educational purposes associated with the course. Copyright law must be considered before copying, retaining, or disseminating materials outside of the course.

Statement on Title IX

All students and employees at Ohio State have the right to work and learn in an environment free from harassment and discrimination based on sex or gender, and the university can arrange interim measures, provide support resources, and explain investigation options, including referral to confidential resources.

If you or someone you know has been harassed or discriminated against based on your sex or gender, including sexual harassment, sexual assault, relationship violence, stalking, or sexual exploitation, you may find information about your rights and options at titleix.osu.edu or by contacting the Ohio State Title IX Coordinator at titleix@osu.edu. Title IX is part of the Office of Institutional Equity (OIE) at Ohio State, which responds to all bias-motivated incidents of harassment and discrimination, such as race, religion, national origin and disability. For more information on OIE, visit equity.osu.edu or email equity@osu.edu.

Commitment to a diverse and inclusive learning environment

The Ohio State University affirms the importance and value of diversity in the student body. Our programs and curricula reflect our multicultural society and global economy and seek to provide opportunities for students to learn more about persons who are different from them. We are committed to maintaining a community that recognizes and values the inherent worth and dignity of every person; fosters sensitivity, understanding, and mutual respect among each member of our community; and encourages each individual to strive to reach his or her own potential. Discrimination against any individual based upon protected status, which is defined as age, color, disability, gender identity or expression, national origin, race, religion, sex, sexual orientation, or veteran status, is prohibited.

Land Acknowledgement

We would like to acknowledge the land that The Ohio State University occupies is the ancestral and contemporary territory of the Shawnee, Potawatomi, Delaware, Miami, Peoria, Seneca, Wyandotte, Ojibwe and Cherokee peoples. Specifically, the university resides on land ceded in the 1795 Treaty of Greeneville and the forced removal of tribes through the Indian Removal Act of 1830. I/We want to honor the resiliency of these tribal nations and recognize the historical contexts that has and continues to affect the Indigenous peoples of this land.

More information on OSU's land acknowledgement can be found here:

<https://mcc.osu.edu/about-us/land-acknowledgement>

Your mental health

As a student you may experience a range of issues that can cause barriers to learn, such as strained relationships, increased anxiety, alcohol/drug problems, feeling down, difficulty concentrating and/or lack of motivation. These mental health concerns or stressful events may lead to diminished academic performance or reduce a student's ability to participate in daily activities. No matter where you are engaged in distance learning, The Ohio State University's Student Life Counseling and Consultation Service (CCS) is here to support you. If you find yourself feeling isolated, anxious or overwhelmed, on-demand resources are available at go.osu.edu/ccsondemand. You can reach an on-call counselor when CCS is closed at 614-292-5766, and 24-hour emergency help is also available through the 24/7 National Prevention Hotline at 1-800-273-TALK or at suicidepreventionlifeline.org. The Ohio State Wellness app is also a great resource available at go.osu.edu/wellnessapp.

ACCESSIBILITY ACCOMMODATIONS FOR STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES

Requesting accommodations

The university strives to make all learning experiences as accessible as possible. If you anticipate or experience academic barriers based on your disability including mental health, chronic or temporary medical conditions, please let me know immediately so that we can privately discuss options. To establish reasonable accommodations, I may request that you register with Student Life Disability Services. After registration, make arrangements with me as soon as possible to discuss your accommodations so that they may be implemented in a timely fashion. SLDS contact information: slds@osu.edu; 614-292-3307; 098 Baker Hall, 113 W. 12th Avenue.

Accessibility of course technology

This online course requires use of CarmenCanvas (Ohio State's learning management system) and other online communication and multimedia tools. If you need additional services to use these technologies, please request accommodations with your instructor.

- Canvas accessibility (go.osu.edu/canvas-accessibility)
- Streaming audio and video
- CarmenZoom accessibility (go.osu.edu/zoom-accessibility)
- Collaborative course tools
- MindTap (Cengage) Accessibility (<https://www.cengage.com/accessibility/>)

Typing Accents in French

Typing French accents on your computer is an essential part of completing your assignments correctly. Please see this link for detailed instructions. Google Input Tools is another option for creating French accent marks on a computer. It is considered a spelling error if you do not type in accents as required.

Connect with the Department of French and Italian

As you learn about the exciting topics featured in this course, we encourage you to enhance your studies by connecting with the Department of French and Italian. Though they will not be meeting this term, the department has a French Club and an Italian Club and organizes a variety of events throughout the year including scholarly lectures, music performances, and film screenings in future terms. Stay in touch with us via Twitter at @FRIT_OSU or via Facebook at facebook.com/fritatosu!

If you really love your class, consider adding a major or minor. The Department of French and Italian offers four majors and two minors, through which you will discover the appreciation of other cultures, become bilingual, widen your career opportunities, and gain valuable skills. We offer study abroad programs in Québec, Canada; Dijon, Montpellier, Nantes and Paris, France; Bologna, Lecce and Siena, Italy; and Dakar, Senegal for all levels of language proficiency. The department holds an annual scholarship competition with awards that can be used towards tuition or study abroad. We would also be happy to help you make a plan for double majoring. Learn more about Why Study French or Italian at frit.osu.edu/ug.

Activities:

French Club

You are encouraged to join the French Club in a future term; the group attends French films together, organizes French meals and meets regularly to have discussions. Your instructor will provide you with more information or you may contact the Department of French and Italian at 292-4938.

Café +

We encourage you throughout your academic career at OSU to participate in Café +, an inter-level French conversation table sponsored and led by FIGSA (French and Italian Graduate Student Association). Graduate Teaching Associates host 1-hour Zoom sessions, divided into 15-minute slots, that can be used for tutoring or conversation practice. You will need to sign up before hand for a 15-minute slot and fill out the required information (please make sure you reserve your time using your OSU name.# email address so your bonus can be credited to you correctly). Only Café + conversation practice will count toward your extra credit points (not tutoring). Once you have attended 2 conversation sessions (a total of 30 minutes), you will receive .5 point towards a speaking quiz, speaking assignment, or weekly participation grade. You can sign up for Café + here. PLEASE NOTE: Failure to attend a Café + conversation group without canceling at least 30 minutes in advance will be marked as a no-show. If you have a no-show, you will need to attend 3 Café + meetings to receive .5 bonus.

French Resources

The French channel TV5 offers tools for furthering your study of the French language.

The Crane Café is open in the Hagerty Hall World Media and Culture Center. For information please visit this site: <https://cllc.osu.edu/http%3A/wmcc.osu.edu/cranecafe.htm/crane-café>

Students can access international television broadcasts in a comfortable café setting, with state-of-the-art overhead speakers for access to audio transmissions.

Please visit the Departmental Web site to learn more about French resources (films, restaurants, clubs) in this area along with links to Francophone sites in categories such as government, press, business, and culture. In addition, the Departmental site gives detailed information about studying French beyond the 100-level. Information pertaining to studying abroad can be found at the Office of International Affairs web site.

French 1102.01 Elementary French 2:

Instructor: _____ Telephone / email: _____/_____

Office: _____ Office Hours: _____ Final Exam: _____

GE Goals:

Students demonstrate skills in communication across ethnic, cultural, ideological, and national boundaries, and appreciate other cultures and patterns of thought.

GE Expected Learning Outcomes:

1. Students employ communicative skills (e.g. speaking, listening, reading, and/or writing) in a language other than their native language.
2. Students describe and analyze the cultural contexts and manifestations of the peoples who speak the language that they are studying.
3. Students compare and contrast the cultures and communities of the language that they are studying with their own.

Welcome to French 1101.02! In this course, you will continue to develop your ability to read, speak, write, and understand French. In order for this to happen, you need to hear A LOT of French and interact in French. As in 1101, your instructor will make every effort to speak exclusively in French and you are expected to make your best effort to interact with your instructor and classmates in French as well. You may not (and you are not expected to) understand every single word your instructor says, but you should be able to get the general idea of what message your instructor is trying to communicate to you. Your instructor will use gestures, visuals, and other techniques to help make messages and concepts clear. Keep in mind that making errors is a natural and necessary part of learning a new language, so please do not feel nervous when you make mistakes speaking in class. The activities in this course will allow you to learn interesting information about your classmates, your instructors, and the French-speaking world in addition to helping you acquire skills in French.

Course Objectives: French 1102.01 is the second course of a sequence (1101, 1102, 1103) that leads to fulfillment of the general education requirement (GE) for the Foreign Language category. This course satisfies the expected learning outcomes for the GE in a variety of ways. You will continue to develop your speaking skills by interacting with your instructor and by completing tasks with your classmates in pairs and in small groups. You will develop your reading skills by reading authentic cultural texts in your book and online. Your listening comprehension skills will continue to develop as you complete on-line listening activities and as you listen to and reflect on your classmates' reactions to class discussions. You will continue to refine your listening skills through watching short videos related to cultural topics about the Francophone world, and as you watch the film that accompanies the textbook, Liaisons. You will continue to develop your writing skills by writing reaction statements and short essays related to the reading texts and in-class activities. The cultural topics you will learn include important historical figures in the French-speaking world, holidays and traditions, art and literature, and different lifestyles in French and Francophone societies. Throughout this course, you will compare and contrast French and Francophone cultures with your own by examining the products, perspectives, and practices of these cultures.

At the end of French 1102, you should be able to:

- pick out familiar words and phrases from French songs, videos and films to be able to comprehend the overall message of what is communicated in these mediums;
- understand presentations by the instructor on French and Francophone cultures with frequent explanations and clarifications;
- read and understand short, authentic texts and dialogues;

- engage in brief conversations and complete simple tasks with your classmates, the instructor, and native speakers who are sympathetic to the communicative needs of language learners;
- write essays on topics related to readings or material used in class using the structures and vocabulary you have learned in both 1101 and 1102;
- understand different aspects of French and Francophone cultures;
- discuss competently (in English) a variety of topics related to French and Francophone culture and society and make contrasts and comparisons with your own culture.

PLACEMENT EXAMS

You are required to fill out the 'course registration form' on the first day of class to ensure that you are taking the appropriate level of French. If your instructor finds that you need to take the French language placement exam, you must do so before the second Friday of the semester. If the exam has not been taken at this point it will be too late for you to enroll in any other French classes and you may risk being dropped from the class. You may take the exam by contacting the CLLC (Center for Languages, Literatures and Cultures) at 614-292-4361; a BuckID is necessary. Please contact your instructor or the Placement Adviser (Julie Parson, parson.30@osu.edu) if you have any questions.

Required Materials: You have two options for purchasing the required materials for this course. These are available in the bookstore, or you may make your purchase through Carmen.

Devoirs [Homework]

Because at-home preparation is critical, the homework grade is given substantial weight, 20%. Not doing homework on time will have a negative impact on your grade. You are assigned homework to prepare you for the next day's class lesson and activities. You are expected to have prepared all homework for each class before coming to class (before 8am of each class day).

(1) Daily Online Homework:

Daily homework for this course must be completed online in Mindtap. On the first day of class, your instructor will give you instructions to help you register for Mindtap.

Homework in Mindtap is automatically graded by Mindtap. If you get some items wrong, you may redo the activity 2 more times (3 total attempts) to obtain a better score.

When you log into Mindtap to do your homework, you will see the due date for each set of assignments. You have until 8:00 am on the day that each assignment is due to complete each assignment. For example, for assignments due Tuesday November 20, you must complete them by 8:00am on Tuesday Nov. 20 to receive credit.

** Please note that you do not need to wait until the due date to complete assignments. Due dates reflect the last possible date you can do the assignments, but you can and should always work ahead when possible. You are encouraged to do homework daily rather than waiting until the end of the chapter. You can see all of the activities due for the entire course when you log in, or you can click the calendar icon to see activities due each week.

It is your responsibility to consult the syllabus and to log into Mindtap (not Carmen) to see the due dates for each assignment. Your instructor is not obligated to accept any late work.

(2) Short writing activities: You will have a few short essays to write based on chapter themes in Liaisons. You will do these assignments in Mindtap. Dues dates for these assignments are listed in your syllabus as well as in Mindtap.

(3) Discussion Forums: You will engage in five discussion forums in Carmen. In addition to posting your response, you must respond/react to at least one of your classmate’s posts to receive full credit. The purpose of this activity is not to practice grammar but for you to communicate your ideas to your classmates using language you have learned so far. You may make some errors but do your best to make your ideas and responses comprehensible to your classmates. Your instructor will not correct grammatical errors in this assignment but may respond to some of the posts. Dues dates for these assignments are listed in your syllabus as well as on Carmen.

It is your responsibility to consult the syllabus and to log into Mindtap to see the due dates for each assignment. You can see the due dates each week by clicking on the calendar icon in Mindtap. Your instructor is not obligated to accept any late work. (Please note that the due dates for the Discussion Forums are listed on Carmen.)

Weekly Participation Grade:

Regular attendance and participation in class activities are essential for successful language acquisition. In order to progress in understanding and speaking French, you must hear and speak it on a regular basis. Therefore, you must prepare carefully for class by reading all the assigned pages indicated in your daily syllabus and do all the necessary assignments in iLrn before class. You will be asked to volunteer often and participate actively. Making errors is normal, but it is necessary that you make your best effort to speak French at all times, even during partner and small group work. The only exception to this rule is during designated cultural discussions, at which time a limited amount of English is permitted so that you can analyze and have an in-depth discussion about the products, practices, and perspectives of Francophone cultures. Finally, group discussion is encouraged; arrange the desks in a semi-circle before class begins and do not feel the need to be called on before speaking. The following scale is used to assess your weekly performance:

Performance Grade

20	18-19	16-17	14-15	0-14
Volunteers to speak in class frequently without being called on. Attentive and prepared for class. Consistently makes excellent contributions to class discussions. Excellent participation in pair/small group work. Excellent efforts to use French at all times, even when not engaged in class activities (except during designated cultural discussions as described in your syllabus). No inappropriate phone or electronic device use in class. On time. No absences.	Volunteers to speak in class frequently without being called on. 5 points off for each unexcused absence.

Checking e-mail, social media, texting, web surfing or doing homework during class time will have a negative impact on your grade!

You will receive a 20 pt. performance grade approximately once a week. These scores will be averaged at the end of the semester to obtain your final participation grade for the course. As a reminder, unexcused absences (i.e., without a written medical excuse) or tardiness will result in a lower performance grade. If you are absent, logically, you cannot be there to contribute to classroom discussions and activities. You are allowed 4 grace absences that will not affect your performance grade (see more info below regarding absences and grace absences). Further absences beyond these 4 will negatively impact your participation grade.

Extra Credit Toward Participation Grade

There are a number of ways to earn extra credit toward your participation grade.

(1) Liaisons musicales and Si vous y allez cultural activities: In the textbook Liaisons, you will see short cultural notes about music and interesting places to visit in the Francophone world in the side bars of the book. These same culture notes can be found in Mindtap with expansion activities. You may complete these activities in Mindtap for ½ an extra credit point each toward your weekly participation grade. You may do as many of these as you like but you can only count two of these a week (for a total of 1 pt a week) toward each week's participation grade. You may complete these activities in English.

(2) Café +: You may receive extra credit by attending the French conversation table Café +. You will earn 1 pt if you attend for 30 minutes and 2 pts if you attend for one hour each week. A maximum of 2 pts a week of Café + extra credit may be earned toward your participation grade. Please see "Activities" section for more info about Café +.

(3) French Club: You may receive up to 2 pts a week for attending French club activities. See "Activities" section for more info.

Policy on Absences

Daily class attendance is crucial for the development of your language skills and therefore for success in this course. Regular attendance is expected. Absences will be closely monitored and fall into three categories: excused absences, grace absences, and unexcused absences. Any unexcused absences will negatively affect your final course grade.

Excused absences:

Makeup work/exams will be permitted only when the instructor is presented with verifiable documentation for acceptable excusable absences. "Verifiable" means that you can provide official, original documentation to account for the reason. Such documentation typically provides a phone number that can be called for verification. It is your responsibility to notify your instructor of any excused absence as far in advance as possible. Legitimate excused absences must be accompanied by dated written documentation in the form of: an official letter or note from a doctor with contact phone number, letter on letterhead from the company/establishment of the career interview, death notice/obituary, program from funeral, official note from OSU coach/advisor, and so on. When in doubt of the kind of documentation needed, please ask your instructor.

You must provide verifiable documentation to your instructor upon your return to class. If you cannot provide documentation upon your return to class, you must negotiate a reasonable time frame with your instructor in which to provide this documentation. This reasonable time frame should not exceed 1 week. If you do not let your instructor know that you have documentation when you return to class, your absence will not be excused. No documentation will be accepted after the last day of class.

Since participation and in-class communicative activities cannot be made up, the number of excused absences cannot exceed 16. That is, even if a student has valid documentation or an accommodation from SLDS, the total number of excused absences cannot exceed 16. If a student has more than 16 absences, even if they can provide valid documentation for those absences, we cannot excuse them. Students will then receive 0s for their participation points and any assignments due on those days after 16 excused (with documentation) absences. Students who find themselves in this situation should notify their academic counselor as soon as possible to explore options for late withdrawal or retroactive withdrawal.

Grace Absences: There may be times when you may not feel well but not seek medical attention or you have personal events that make it difficult to attend class. For these reasons, you will be allowed 4 “grace absences” (equivalent to 1 week of class) without the need for official documentation that will not affect your participation grade. You may not use grace absences to make up quizzes, exams, presentations or compositions. Note that should you be absent the day of a quiz, exam, presentation, or composition, you must present official, documented proof of illness or of some other calamity in order to be able to make it up. Otherwise, you will receive a zero!

Please use these 4 grace absences wisely! They should be reserved for foreseeable or unforeseeable events and emergencies, and illness for which medical attention is not sought. Any additional absences beyond the 4 “grace absences” will be considered unexcused.

Note: The BuckMD Explanatory Statement for Absence from Class forms will NOT be accepted as official documentation for this course. You are given 4 grace absences because we take into account that there are times you may not feel well but not see a doctor. You are expected to reserve and use your 4 grace absences to cover this and any other type of absence that cannot be officially documented.

Unexcused Absences: Any additional absences (beyond the “4 grace absences” and any excused absences [maximum 16]) will be considered unexcused.

Each unexcused absence will result in the lowering of your final course grade by 1% at the end of the semester. For example, if your overall grade is 92% (A-) and you have three (3) unexcused absences (beyond the “4 grace absences” and any allowed excused absences), your final assigned course grade will be 89% (B+) [i.e.,  $92\% - 3\% = 89\%$ ].

In sum, make sure that you clearly understand the attendance and tardiness policies for this course, that you keep track of your own attendance and tardiness records, and that you make wise decisions regarding if and when you miss class.

Please note: It is your responsibility to know when your final is as well as dates for all other exams/quizzes, compositions, presentations, etc. Do not make travel arrangements before you know your exam schedule and other important in-class assignment due dates. Having purchased a plane ticket (either by you or someone else) or other arrangements for travel that falls on an exam day is not a legitimate excuse to make up or reschedule exams/assignments.

Some examples of ACCEPTABLE excuses include:

- Emergency/extreme situations such as illness, family medical emergency, or death in the family
- A career interview that cannot be rescheduled outside of class time
- Governmental duties such as subpoenas, jury duty, and military service

Some examples of UNACCEPTABLE excuses include:

- Family vacations
- Conflicts with work schedule (You are a student first at OSU. Instructors expect students' class schedule/performance to take precedence over work schedules.)
- Athletic/recreational activities that are not affiliated with OSU
- Note from Student Health Services that indicates "The patient was not seen here during this condition..."

- Note from a professor/instructor of another course indicating that you were late/weren't in French class due to your choice to attend office hours or other meeting offered during the hours of your French course.

Interrogations vocabulaires [Prep checks]

You will have 13 vocabulary checks, worth 10 pts. each, throughout the semester, as indicated on the schedule. The purpose of these checks is to verify that students have studied the vocabulary for the day's lesson. You should be able to do well if you have read the material and completed the assigned iLrn activities on your own the night before. Each check will take no more than 5 minutes of class time. At the end of the semester, you may drop your lowest grade. Makeup checks will not be administered.

Contrôles (5) [Chapter quizzes]

There will be five chapter quizzes, one on chapitre 6&7, one on chapitre 8, one on chapitre 9, one on chapitre 10, and one on chapitre 11. These quizzes assess your proficiency in listening comprehension and writing as well as your comprehension of the cultural information in Liaisons. You can also expect questions related to the film, Liaisons, that you watch in class.

The quizzes are driven by the communicative learning goals (listed in your daily schedule) that shape your class discussions each day so it is important that you pay attention to what was discussed in class each day. To prepare for the quizzes, attend class regularly, complete all homework on time, and participate in class as best you can. Review the communicative learning goals for each lesson and make sure you can answer all the questions and remember what your classmates said in relation to each goal.

Your contrôles will be returned to you to go over during class but you must return it to your instructor at the end of class.

Interrogations orales: Oui, je peux dire! [Speaking quizzes]

You will take short speaking quizzes called Oui, je peux dire! to assess your speaking ability. You will access these quizzes in Carmen.

You may re-record yourself as many times as you wish and submit the version that you feel is the best. However, once a recording is submitted, you cannot submit it again. All recordings must be submitted before midnight. You may not seek any language assistance from anyone to do this recording. The use of translators is strictly prohibited.

Please refer to your daily schedule and Carmen for due dates.

Rubric for Oui, je peux dire!
Meets Expectations: Student performed task with ease; while some structures may have been non-native, students had excellent command of vocabulary and would be easily understood by a sympathetic native speaker without having to ask for clarification; good fluency and pronunciation for this level. All task requirements met. Content is interesting and well-developed.	9-10
Meets Most Expectations: Student performed task with relative ease; many traces of non-native structures but demonstrated a relatively good command of vocabulary and would still be understood by a sympathetic native speaker with some effort; some	8

minor issues in pronunciation that do not impede comprehensibility. All task requirements met.
Meets Some Expectations: Despite some significant issues with fluency, pronunciation, and structural/lexical errors, student is still able to get the main message (but perhaps not all the details) across to a sympathetic native speaker. All task requirements met.	7
Needs Work: Student performed task with great difficulty; nearly or completely incomprehensible; incomplete or information not relevant to the task; poor pronunciation for this level that impedes comprehensibility. Student is unable to apply communicative skills at the level expected for this course.	1-6

Examen oral: Concours Liaisons [oral exam]

Towards the end of the semester, you will work in groups to present a scene from the film Liaisons. You may film your scene to show in class or perform your scene live in front of the class. Your instructor will provide you with a document with more details about this activity. You will receive an individual and a group grade on this exam.

Examen final [final exam]

The final exam will primarily focus on material from chapitre 12 but may also contain some content from previous lessons.

The exam will take place during Final Exam Week based on the University Final Exam Schedule. Note the date and time of your exam in the space below:

Makeup Exams

Makeup exams are given only for emergency/extreme conditions with the proper documentation.* Students who are absent on the day of the exam for an excusable reason* should contact the instructor to make up the exam before or immediately following their absence. If a student fails to contact the instructor within 24 hours of missing an exam, a make-up may not be given. Students who know in advance that they must be absent on an exam day for an excusable reason* should make arrangements with the instructor to take the exam prior to the exam day. If a student is absent on the day of the exam for an unexcused reason, he/she will receive a zero on the exam. Exams must be made up within 3 days. If an exam is not made up by then, the instructor will not administer a makeup exam. After 3 days, the Language Program Director ( wong.240@osu.edu ) will determine whether a student may make up an exam.

* See Policy on Absences above

Disability Services

Students with disabilities who require accommodations for access and participation in this course must be registered with the Office for Disability Services (ODS). Please contact ODS at (614) 292-3307 or (614) 292-0901 (TDD). After registering with Student Life Disability Services, students need to contact their instructor as soon as possible so that your instructor knows that you have requested an accommodation. We cannot guarantee that accommodations can be provided if requests are made less than 3 days prior to exams.

Counseling Services: If you feel a need to see a counselor/therapist, there is a broad range of confidential mental health services available on campus through the Office of Student Life's Counseling and Consultation Service (CCS). You can visit their website (ccs.osu.edu) or call 614-292-5766. CCS is located on the 4th Floor of the Younkin Success Center and 10th Floor of Lincoln Tower. You can reach an on-call counselor when CCS is closed at 614-292-5766 and 24 hour emergency help is also available through the 24/7 National Suicide Prevention Hotline at 1-800-273-TALK or at suicidepreventionlifeline.org.

E-Mail

You are expected to check your e-mail frequently as your instructor may send you important messages at any time throughout the semester.

Typing Accents in French

If you are required to hand in any typed assignments in French, the following Web site explains how to enter French accent marks on the computer:

<https://frit.osu.edu/undergrad/language-program/french-resources/reference>

This page may be printed out for ease of use. It is considered a spelling error if you do not type in accents as required.

Connect with the Department of French and Italian

As you learn about the exciting topics featured in this course, we encourage you to enhance your studies by connecting with the Department of French and Italian. The department has a French Club and an Italian Club, and organizes a variety of events throughout the year including scholarly lectures, music performances, and film screenings. Stay in touch with us via Twitter at @FRIT_OSU or via Facebook at facebook.com/fritatosu!

If you really love your class, consider adding a major or minor. The Department of French and Italian offers four majors and two minors, through which you will discover the appreciation of other cultures, become bilingual, widen your career opportunities, and gain valuable skills. We offer study abroad programs in Québec, Canada; Dijon, Montpellier, Nantes and Paris, France; Bologna, Lecce and Siena, Italy; and Dakar, Senegal for all levels of language proficiency. The department holds an annual scholarship competition with awards that can be used towards tuition or study abroad. We would also be happy to help you make a plan for double majoring. Learn more about Why Study French or Italian at frit.osu.edu/ug.

Activities:

French Club

You are encouraged to join the French Club; the group attends French films together, organizes French meals and meets regularly to have discussions. Your instructor will provide you with more information or you may contact the Department of French and Italian at 292-4938.

Café +

We encourage you throughout your academic career at OSU to participate in Café +, an inter-level French conversation table sponsored and led by FIGSA (French and Italian Graduate Student Association). Café + meets on a weekly basis and invites French speakers of all levels to get together over coffee and practice French conversational skills in a casual and friendly environment. Topics of discussion are diverse, and generally follow the interests of the students in attendance. Café + meets in the Crane Café in Hagerty Hall. (Just look for the reserved tables to find the group.) This is an excellent opportunity to improve your speaking skills and enlarge your French vocabulary in a casual, real-world setting! Your instructor will provide you with this semester's Café + meeting days and times when they are made available, or you may contact the Department of French and Italian at 292-4938.

French Resources

The French channel TV5 is available on dormitory televisions as optional channel 606:
http://www.tv5.org/TV5Site/programmes/accueil\_continent.php

The Crane Café is open in the Hagerty Hall World Media and Culture Center. For information please visit this site: <https://cllc.osu.edu/http%3A/wmcc.osu.edu/cranecafe.htm/crane-café>
 Students can access international television broadcasts in a comfortable café setting, with state-of-the-art overhead speakers for access to audio transmissions.

Please visit the Departmental Web site to learn more about French resources (films, restaurants, clubs) in this area along with links to Francophone sites in categories such as government, press, business, and culture. In addition, the Departmental site gives detailed information about studying French beyond the 100-level. Information pertaining to studying abroad can be found at the Office of International Affairs Web site: <http://oia.osu.edu/>

Disruptive Behavior

According to the Code of Student Conduct disorderly or disruptive behavior that unreasonably interferes with university activities or with the legitimate activities of a member of the university community is prohibited.

Phones/Electronic Devices

The program does not permit the use of cell phones or other electronic devices in class. Exceptions will be made for assistive technologies for the vision-or hearing-impaired in consultation with ODS.

Academic Misconduct

Students enrolled in courses at The Ohio State University are expected to adhere to the highest standards of academic conduct. All suspected cases of misconduct will be reported to the Committee on Academic Misconduct as required by University rules. Examples of academic misconduct in this course include but are not limited to the following:

- Copying work or otherwise turning in written work that is not original to you. Cheating in this case applies both to the copier and the person who allows his or her work to be copied.
- Copying answers directly from the answer key (as opposed to doing the assignment first and then correcting mistakes from the answer key) on workbook assignments.
- Having someone else do or write your assignments for you.
- Using a translator in any way to complete compositions, presentations or other assignments.
- Having anyone other than your instructor help you with your compositions or presentations. Tutors may answer questions about assignments from the workbook or textbook, but they may not help with compositions or presentations.
- Receiving or passing exam information to other students before, during or after the exam. Cheating in this case applies both to the receiver of the exam information and the person who gives the information.
- Alteration of university forms used to drop or add courses to a program, or unauthorized use of those forms including the forging of signatures.
- Use of any unauthorized aids on exams (e.g., cheat sheets, textbook, etc) is strictly prohibited.
- Presenting the same exposé topic that you presented in a previous French course.
- Note: Copying text for a presentation directly from online or written sources is considered Academic Misconduct and will be reported. You can consult the Internet or written works for your research, but your presentation must be written in your own words.

Students are responsible for understanding what constitutes academic dishonesty. For more information on this topic, consult the Ohio State University's policy on Academic Misconduct at: <http://oaa.osu.edu/coam.html>

All suspected cases of academic misconduct will be reported to the Committee on Academic Misconduct as required by University rules.

In its classrooms, the Department of French and Italian maintains a positive learning environment free from all harmful forms of discrimination. You are expected to adhere to this policy.

Rationale for creation of permanent synchronous DL French courses 1101.21, 1102.21, 1103.21, and 1155.21

1101.21, 1102.21, 1103.21, and 1155.21 will be permanent synchronous DL versions of the courses offered through the French 1101-1103 sequence. Right now, we offer the following versions of these courses: .01 (In person), .51 (Individualized Instruction), and .61 (Distance Learning Individualized Instruction). With the .21 version we are seeking to create a synchronous DL version. Creating a new code for these courses will make it easier for students to select the version that is best for them.

We are seeking to create synchronous DL versions of these courses for the following main reasons:

1. We hope the course can reach a broader audience and afford greater flexibility for students in the DL format. Since these courses count for the GE requirement in a foreign language, this greater scheduling flexibility will help students meet graduation requirements in a timely fashion. The only permanent DL version of these courses that we currently offer is the .61 versions. However, the .61 versions are Individualized Instruction and asynchronous versions, which are not always a good fit for every student. Moreover, it is not possible to offer French 1155 in the .61 format, so this request would allow us to offer a distance version of that class. Furthermore, offering these courses in a synchronous distance format gives some students (such as high school students or branch campus students) more possibilities for being successful in learning a foreign language.
2. Having a permanent DL version of these courses will also afford the department the option of continuing to offer the courses should the instructor need to be off campus on an SA or for some other reason (particularly if tenure track faculty teach these courses).

Note: These courses are currently being offered as DL due to Covid and are working well.

*Since the GE goals and assessment for the .21 courses will be the same as for the other versions of French 1101, 1102, 1103, and 1155, we are not including the GE assessment documents with these requests.
