Good afternoon,

On Tuesday, September 7th, the Race, Ethnic and Gender Diversity Panel of the ASC Curriculum Committee reviewed a new REGD course proposal for German 2256.

The Panel did not vote on the proposal as they would like the following points addressed:

- The Panel believes that the category of Ethnicity is not covered at a level that satisfies the requirements of the ELOs for the GE Foundation: REGD and suggests adding additional material related to Ethnicity or more clearly articulating in both the GE submission forms and the syllabus how current course materials connect with Ethnicity.
- The assignments in the syllabus do not clearly articulate how they will deal with issues of race, ethnicity and gender diversity and the Panel kindly requests that information about how individual assignments will engage with the GE Foundation: REGD Goals and ELOs.
- The Panel feels as if the syllabus and GE submission forms have a slight disconnection and would like to kindly ask that the information provided in the GE submission forms be included within the syllabus. For example, include information about how the course will engage with ideas of race, ethnic and gender diversity when investigating the Black Sherlock Holmes, as found on page 6 in the course calendar section of the syllabus.
- The Panel kindly requests that all courses submitted in the new GE Foundation: REGD include a Land Acknowledgment, which can be found on the Multicultural Center's website at: <https://mcc.osu.edu/about-us/land-acknowledgement>
- On page 2 of the syllabus, under the required texts section, the syllabus mentions that students can obtain materials at the SBX bookstore. This bookstore has closed and is no longer an option for students to utilize.
- The Panel would like to note that the course syllabus mentions the use of the Secure Media Library (found on page 2 of the syllabus). The Secure Media Library is now defunct and no longer a resource the University provides and the Panel suggests removing it from the syllabus.

I will return German 2256 to the department queue via curriculum.osu.edu in order to address the Panel's requests.

Should you have any questions about the feedback of the Panel, please feel free to contact Richard Fletcher (faculty Chair of the REGD Panel; cc'd on this e-mail), or me.

Best,
Michael
