Good morning,

On Thursday, September 9th, the Social and Behavioral Sciences Panel of the ASC Curriculum Committee reviewed a new course proposal for Anthropology 2350.

The Panel did not vote on the proposal and would like the following points addressed:

- The Panel requests that the course be moved to a higher course number designation (such as to the 3000-level). This course appears significantly more advanced compared to other, comparable courses within the Department of Anthropology at the 2000-level.
- Please include all the Goals and ELOs for the requested new GE Themes: Sustainability category within the syllabus. The new GE Goals and ELOs can be found at the following OAA website: <https://oaa.osu.edu/ohio-state-ge-program>
- The Panel asks if this new course will become a part of any major programs offered by the Department of Anthropology. If this is the case, please provide a curriculum map for each program this new course can become a part of.
- On page 4 of the syllabus, under the Grading Policy section, there is mention of the course using the OSU standard grading scheme. Please remove this language, as Ohio State does not have a standardized grading scheme.

I will return Anthropology 2350 to the department queue via curriculum.osu.edu in order to address the Panel's requests.

Should you have any questions about the feedback of the Panel, please feel free to contact Mat Coleman (faculty Chair of the SBS Panel; cc'd on this e-mail), or me.

Best,
Michael
