Good afternoon,

On Friday, March 11th, the Themes Panel of the ASC Curriculum Committee reviewed a new High-Impact Practice: Research & Creative Inquiry proposal for Anthropology 3050. Please see below for the Panel's feedback:

The Panel unanimously approved the request with one comment:

- Comment: The Panel finds the research aspect of the course to be much improved and thanks the course proposer for a timely and well-constructed revision.

Anthropology 3050 will continue through the approval process.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to reach out to Jim Fredal, faculty Chair of the ASCC Themes Panel, or myself.

Best,
Michael

I acknowledge that the land that The Ohio State University occupies is the ancestral and contemporary territory of the Shawnee, Potawatomi, Delaware, Miami, Peoria, Seneca, Wyandotte, Ojibwe and Cherokee peoples. Specifically, the university resides on land ceded in the 1795 Treaty of Greeneville and the forced removal of tribes through the Indian Removal Act of 1830. I honor the resiliency of these tribal nations and recognize the historical contexts that has and continues to affect the Indigenous peoples of this land.
