Good evening,

On Thursday, October 8th, the Race, Ethnicity and Gender Diversity Panel of the ASC Curriculum Committee reviewed the course proposal for Jewish Studies 2455/History 2455.

The Panel unanimously approved the request with one recommendation:

- The Panel recommends that the departments consider the different facets of intersectionality when discussing films like School Ties (how might the antisemitic characters have reacted differently if David were black, or gay?) and Annie Hall, (What light do the real-life actions of Woody Allen shed on the gender and power dynamics in the film? Is it still ethical to watch and study the work of artists whose personal behavior has been reprehensible?)

History 2455 and Jewish Studies 2455 will continue through the approval process.

Should you have any questions about the feedback of the Panel, please feel free to contact Maria Miriti (substitute chair of the NMS Panel for the 10/7 meeting; cc'd on this e-mail), or me.

Best,
Rachel

I acknowledge that the land that The Ohio State University occupies is the ancestral and contemporary territory of the Shawnee, Potawatomi, Delaware, Miami, Peoria, Seneca, Wyandotte, Ojibwe and Cherokee peoples. Specifically, the university resides on land ceded in the 1795 Treaty of Greenville and the forced removal of tribes through the Indian Removal Act of 1830. I honor the resiliency of these tribal nations and recognize the historical contexts that has and continues to affect the Indigenous peoples of this land.
