

Singing Health Specialization

Curriculum

16 credit hours

Courses are drawn from the School of Music, the Department of Speech and Hearing Science, and the Department of Otolaryngology-Head and Neck Surgery.

CORE

11 credit hours

All students in the program take:

MUS 7810.21 (3)	History and Practice of Voice Pedagogy
MUS/SPH 7815 (2)	Seminar for Singing Health Specialists
OTOLARY 8803 (2)	Observations in Clinical Voice Pathology
OTOLARY 8804 (2)	Observations in Surgical Laryngology
OTOLARY 8809 (2)	Issues in Laryngology for the Vocal Health Professional

ELECTIVES

5 credit hours

SPH 8950 (2)	Seminar in Speech and Hearing Science (endoscopy)
SPH 5741 (3)	Voice Disorders
MUS 6200.21 (2) repeatable	Applied Music Secondary – voice (only for students who are not voice majors)
MUS 7715 (3)	Structure and Function of the Singing Mechanism (only for students who are not voice majors)
MUS 5177 (1-2)	Introduction to Alexander Technique

MINIMUM TOTAL

16 credit hours

AU13