Good morning! I am writing to update the email below regarding the approval of the Music Theory and Aural Training sequence courses and the associated program changes. In addition to the approval of 2221, 2222, 3421, 3422, 2224, 2225, 3424, and 3425 (courses in the “major” sequences), this approval also extends to 2021, 2022, 3021, and 3022 (the “minor” or “non-major” versions) and THEIR associated program change(s). My apologies for the oversight!

Best,
Rachel

I acknowledge that the land that The Ohio State University occupies is the ancestral and contemporary territory of the Shawnee, Potawatomi, Delaware, Miami, Peoria, Seneca, Wyandotte, Ojibwe and Cherokee peoples. Specifically, the university resides on land ceded in the 1795 Treaty of Greenville and the forced removal of tribes through the Indian Removal Act of 1830. I honor the resiliency of these tribal nations and recognize the historical contexts that has and continues to affect the Indigenous peoples of this land.

Subject: Music 3422 & 3425 + Program Revisions

Good afternoon,

I am pleased to report that Eugenia Romero, faculty Chair of the Arts and Humanities 2 Panel of the ASC Curriculum Committee, has reviewed and approved the revision(s) to Music 3422 and 3425.

As a reminder, the syllabi for 3422 and 3425 were intended as exemplars for their respective sequences, and the Panel kindly requests that the other syllabi be modified to include the same changes that were made to 3422 and 3425. You may now update your advising sheets and other materials to reflect this change effective SP23.

These courses, as well as their counterparts (2221, 2222, 3421, 2224, 2225, and 3424) and the overall program change will continue to the full Arts and Sciences Curriculum Committee and the Committee on Academic Affairs as an informational item.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to reach out to me.

Best,
Rachel
