Course description

By way of examining literature, historical accounts, primary writings from known historical figures, and contemporary Indian film, this course engages students with a look at how citizenship is imagined in nation states, how it was imagined in colonial India, and how it is manifest in post-colonial South Asia. While students learn factual information about South Asia, the fundamental goal of this class is to provide an advanced introduction to ways in which definitions, narratives, and lived realities about what it means to be a citizen of a country change over time. The course is set in South Asia, but it will force students to examine the histories of their own nations and cultures.

Course learning outcomes

By the end of this course, students should successfully be able to:

- Describe and analyze perspectives on citizenship that are pertinent to South Asia
- Describe and analyze social categories that are relevant to understanding citizenship in South Asia
- Analyze elements that are common to citizenship across nations and show competence in discussing what it takes to be a global citizen

- Show an understanding of how diversity in South Asia interacts with citizenship and structures of power local to South Asia
- Show an understanding of how legislative process and social hierarchies interact with the idea of citizenship

HOW THIS ONLINE COURSE WORKS

Mode of delivery: This course is 100% online. There are no required sessions when you must be logged in to Carmen at a scheduled time.

Pace of online activities: This course is divided into weekly modules that are released one week ahead of time. Students are expected to keep pace with weekly deadlines but may schedule their efforts freely within that time frame.

Credit hours and work expectations: This is a 3-credit-hour course. According to Ohio State policy (go.osu.edu/credithours), students should expect around 3 hours per week of time spent on direct instruction (instructor content and Carmen activities, for example) in addition to 6 hours of homework (reading and assignment preparation, for example) to receive a grade of (C) average.

Attendance and participation requirements: Because this is an online course, your attendance is based on your online activity and participation. The following is a summary of students' expected participation:

- Participating in online activities for attendance: AT LEAST ONCE PER WEEK

You are expected to log in to the course in Carmen every week. (During most weeks you will probably log in many times.) If you have a situation that might cause you to miss an entire week of class, discuss it with me as soon as possible.

- Office hours and live sessions: OPTIONAL

All live, scheduled events for the course, including my office hours, are optional.

Participating in discussion forums: 2+ TIMES PER WEEK

As part of your participation, each week you can expect to post at least twice as part of our substantive class discussion on the week's topics.

Course technology

The instructor does not provide technical support. For help with your password, university e-mail, Carmen, or any other technology issues, questions, or requests, contact the OSU IT Service Desk. Standard support hours are available at <https://ocio.osu.edu/help/hours>, and support for urgent issues is available 24x7.

- Basic computer and web-browsing skills
- Navigating Carmen

Technology skills necessary for this specific course

- Carmen Zoom text, audio, and video chat
- Collaborating using Carmen's Groups tools
- Recording, editing, and uploading audio/visual projects, should you choose that option for your final project, a written option is also available

Necessary equipment

- Computer: current Mac (OS X) or PC (Windows 10+) with high-speed internet connection
 - A tablet (e.g., University-issued iPad) is an acceptable alternative as long as you have a keyboard and the capacity to save documents as Word files or PDFs
- Microphone: built-in laptop or tablet mic or external microphone
- Webcam is a plus

Necessary software

- Word processor capable of saving in .doc, .docx, or .pdf formats (recommended: Microsoft Office 365 ProPlus): All Ohio State students are now eligible for free Microsoft Office 365 ProPlus through Microsoft's Student Advantage program. Each student can install Office on five PCs or Macs, five tablets, and five phones.
 - Students are able to access Word, Excel, PowerPoint, Outlook and other programs, depending on platform. Users will also receive 1 TB of OneDrive for Business storage.
 - Office 365 is installed within your BuckeyeMail account. Full instructions for downloading and installation can be found <https://ocio.osu.edu/kb04733>.
 - You are not required to use Microsoft Office. However, any assignments submitted through Carmen dropbox will only be accepted in .doc, .docx, and .pdf formats. No submissions via Google Docs, Box, Word Online, or OneDrive.
- Web browser: it is strongly recommended that you use Google Chrome for this course, especially for Carmen Zoom meetings and video streaming. Safari is not fully compatible with Carmen Zoom and some OSU video services. You are responsible for ensuring that your chosen browser works properly with all course technologies.

Carmen access

You will need to use BuckeyePass (buckeyepass.osu.edu) multi-factor authentication to access your courses in Carmen. To ensure that you are able to connect to Carmen at all times, it is recommended that you take the following steps:

- Register multiple devices in case something happens to your primary device. Visit the BuckeyePass - Adding a Device help article for step-by-step instructions (go.osu.edu/add-device).
- Request passcodes to keep as a backup authentication option. When you see the Duo login screen on your computer, click Enter a Passcode and then click the Text me new codes button that appears. This will text you ten passcodes good for 365 days that can each be used once.
- Download the Duo Mobile application (go.osu.edu/install-duo) to all of your registered devices for the ability to generate one-time codes in the event that you lose cell, data, or Wi-Fi service

If none of these options will meet the needs of your situation, you can contact the IT Service Desk at 614-688-4357(HELP) and IT support staff will work out a solution with you.

Assignment information

Discussion Questions: Students will respond to three discussion question prompts that entail thinking about and reflecting upon social justice, implications of diversity, intercultural competence. Prompts will be posted five days before they are due and will be discussed in class. All student responses will be open to the rest of the class to see and comment on. Responses should not be more than 500 words and must include reference to at least one reading. Value: 5 points each

Editorial. Students will write two editorials in the course of the semester. We will workshop how to write the editorial during class. Students will be given a list of newspapers and news stories from South Asia to use as resources for editorials. Value: 10 points each

Mid-Term Exam, on date indicated on the syllabus

There will be one take-home midterm exam. This exam will cover the first eight weeks of class material. This exam will have essay questions where students will be asked to respond to five questions in 200-250 words. Students will have five days to complete this exam. Value 15 points

Excellent exams will demonstrate complete understanding of the basic concepts introduced in the first eight weeks of the class. Essays will be well written, well organized, with clear thesis statements and nearly no mechanical errors. They will make direct reference to the readings, use actual examples to make their points, and will show an element of original thought.

Podcast. Podcasts must be done in a group of two or three around a topic that relates to citizenship in South Asia broadly. Students can pick topics about how current events, historical events, issues specific to South Asia as a whole or any country in South Asia, and issues with implications unique to South Asia as a whole or a country in South Asia affect citizenship. Podcasts are not just about facts, they can also be about opinions. Group members should rehearse their podcasts and present them as a discussion between two 'experts' where facts and opinions are discussed in tandem for consumption by the general public. We will workshop podcasts in class in the first half of the semester.

Final Project. The final version of the academic project will be a 5-8 page (1500-2000 words) paper that analyzes an issue or topic such as caste, religion and citizenship, democracy, secularism, or intersectionality, that you find interesting. You must discuss the historical significance of your topic, including discussions of at least five research articles or book chapters that address aspects of the issue, the conflict the issue creates or has created, and the social, cultural, and political significance of your chosen topic, drawing in some readings from class discussion. This will require some research on your part. This is an individual project.

Project Title, Abstract and Annotated Bibliography, due on date indicated in schedule, Value 10 points

Each student will turn in an abstract of your final project along with an annotated bibliography. The abstract should be about 300 words. It should include your thesis statement, which should state clearly and precisely the topic, its significance, and the social, cultural, and political significance of your example. Your annotated bibliography (not part of the 300 word limit) should list no fewer than 5 sources that you will draw from in documenting the claims you make about your example. You should include a minimum of three and a maximum of five sentences per source that explains why it is important for supporting your thesis. Your sources can include readings on the syllabus, but they must also go beyond what we have read together. These should not be fan sites on the web or official websites maintained by the artists. They should be critical scholarly or journalistic articles or book chapters

- Each student will share their abstract and bibliography with their small group for discussion and review. This activity will happen during class.

Final Paper, due on date indicated in schedule, Value 20 points

Your final paper should be a thorough development and demonstration of your thesis, well supported by the sources you cite in your bibliography as well as any other sources that you find during your research. Your paper must be well written, proofread, free of typographical and grammatical errors. You may not copy and paste material from the internet. That is plagiarism. You must write your own sentences and create your own analyses and interpretations of your example.

Late assignments

No late work will be accepted without consent from me (this consent will only be given in the rarest emergencies). Do your assignments well in advance, save your work frequently and in multiple locations, know where the nearest computer lab is in case of technical problems, lock up your dog, do whatever you need to do to ensure that assignments will be handed in on time. I recommend you write your Carmen posts in a separate document or copy them before you attempt to post so you have them if the post fails to go through. “Carmen ate my homework” is the new “the dog ate my homework”—and is not an excuse.

Grading scale

It is your responsibility to keep up with your average and expected grade for the course; I do not give out approximate averages. The best way to calculate an average is to divide the total points you have earned by the total points available to date in the semester, and then multiply by 100.

93–100: A	80–82.9: B-
90–92.9: A-	77–79.9: C+
87–89.9: B+	73–76.9: C
83–86.9: B	70 –72.9: C-

67 –69.9: D+
60 –66.9: D

Faculty feedback and response time

I am providing the following list to give you an idea of my intended availability throughout the course. (Remember that you can call 614-688-HELP at any time if you have a technical problem. I do not provide technical support, but I do provide support with things missing from Carmen, so contact me ASAP if you cannot see required reading, a dropbox, or something similar.)

Grading and feedback

For weekly assignments, you can generally expect feedback within 7 days. This includes your discussion questions and wiki contributions. Note that feedback on discussion boards will not necessarily be individual; it may consist of a post or comment directed at your whole group, or at a specific thread. For large assignments such as papers or midterms, you can generally expect grades within two weeks.

E-mail

I will reply to e-mails within 24 hours on school days. I make every effort to reply on the same business day to emails sent before 5pm. Receiving an email from me after hours or on the weekend is not a guarantee that I will reply after hours in the future.

Attendance, participation, and discussions

Student participation requirements

Because this is a distance-education course, your attendance is based on your online activity and participation. The following is a summary of everyone's expected participation:

- Logging in: AT LEAST ONCE PER WEEK TO PASS THE CLASS
Be sure you are logging in to the course in Carmen each week, including weeks with holidays or weeks with minimal online course activity. (During most weeks you will probably log in many times.) If you have a situation that might cause you to miss an entire week of class, discuss it with me as soon as possible.
- Excused absences/non-participation:
Excuses for missing an entire week of participation are similar to excused absence excuses in an in-person class. There are no exceptions to this policy.

Discussion and communication guidelines

The following are my expectations for how we will communicate as a class. Above all, please remember to be respectful and thoughtful.

- Writing style: While there is no need to participate in class discussions as if you were writing a research paper, you should remember to write using good grammar, spelling, and punctuation. Do not begin your emails to the instructor with “Yo,” write in text-speak, or the like; be reasonably professional. Informality (such as an occasional emoticon) is fine.
- Citing your sources: When we have academic discussions, please cite your sources to back up what you say. (For the textbook or other course materials, list at least the title and page numbers. For online sources, include a link.) Formal written assignments and the wiki contribution have more stringent requirements; see assignment sheets.
- Backing up your work: Consider composing your academic posts in a word processor, where you can save your work, and then copying into the Carmen discussion.
- Conduct expectations: Rules regarding basic classroom interaction remain fairly constant across all classes at the university, and we will maintain that decorum in this class even though we are not meeting in person. This course requires a commitment from all of us to maintain collegial, respectful spaces throughout: in large and small group discussions, blog comments, live sessions, and other venues. Because we are in a discussion-based environment and I believe in making the best possible use of your time in our classroom, guidelines governing your behavior in this class are strict. This also applies to communication about class or class-created groups outside of official platforms (for example, harassment of one of your small group colleagues on Twitter would still be a violation of our behavioral norms).

Other course policies

Academic integrity policy

Policies for this online course

- General policy: Plagiarism is the unauthorized use of the words or ideas of another person, misrepresenting someone else’s work as your own with or without their knowledge, quoting or paraphrasing without citing the original source, or providing work for someone else to use as their own. Plagiarism is absolutely not permitted in any assignment or venue used in this course: tests, papers, reviews, multimedia productions, discussion posts, your digital presence in live discussions, etc. It is a serious academic offense that will result in a report to the Committee on Academic Misconduct and potentially career-altering consequences. The University’s policies on plagiarism are described in detail in your student policies handbook. Please read this information carefully, and remember that at no point should words or ideas that are not your own be represented as such.
- Exams: You must complete the midterm yourself, without any external help or communication.

- Written assignments: In formal assignments, you should follow MLA style to cite the ideas and words of your research sources. Comprehensive information on MLA citation can be found here: https://owl.purdue.edu/owl/research_and_citation/mla_style/mla_style_introduction.html. You are encouraged to ask a trusted person to proofread your assignments before you turn them in--but no one else should revise or rewrite your work. The Writing Center is a great resource for proofreading and advice on improving your writing; distance appointments are available. See Resources section of this syllabus.
- Collaboration and informal peer-review: While study groups and peer-review of major written projects is encouraged, remember that comparing answers on a quiz or assignment is not permitted. If you're unsure about a particular situation, please feel free just to ask ahead of time.

Ohio State's academic integrity policy

It is the responsibility of the Committee on Academic Misconduct to investigate or establish procedures for the investigation of all reported cases of student academic misconduct. The term "academic misconduct" includes all forms of student academic misconduct wherever committed; illustrated by, but not limited to, cases of plagiarism and dishonest practices in connection with examinations. Instructors shall report all instances of alleged academic misconduct to the committee (Faculty Rule 3335-5-487). For additional information, see the Code of Student Conduct <http://studentlife.osu.edu/csc/>.

Accessibility accommodations for students with disabilities

The University strives to make all learning experiences as accessible as possible. If you anticipate or experience academic barriers based on a disability (including mental health, chronic or temporary medical conditions), please let me know immediately so that we can privately discuss options. To establish reasonable accommodations, I may request that you register with Student Life Disability Services. After registration, make arrangements with me as soon as possible to discuss your accommodations so that they may be implemented in a timely fashion. SLDS contact information: slds@osu.edu; 614-292-3307; slds.osu.edu; 098 Baker Hall, 113 W. 12th Avenue.

Accessibility of course technology

This online course requires use of Carmen (Ohio State's learning management system) and other online communication and multimedia tools. If you need additional services to use these technologies, please request accommodations with your instructor.

Resources for Success and Well-Being

This course: My approach to teaching is to facilitate student learning and success. I am not interested in penalizing students who are making a good-faith effort to produce high-quality work. We can make a plan for ensuring you can meet course requirements. Consulting early demonstrates your ability to plan ahead and advocate for yourself, and will get more sympathy than a panicked request on the due date.

Academic well-being: There are many resources available at OSU for students who would like academic support, including the Writing Center, Dennis Learning Center, and other services. If you find yourself in circumstances that pose a serious challenge to your ability to keep up academically (e.g. ongoing family crisis, chronic illness, hospitalization, financial crisis, or being a victim of violence), Student Advocacy is available to help you manage the situation.

- Writing Center: <http://cstw.osu.edu>
- Dennis Learning Center: <http://dennislearningcenter.osu.edu>
- Student Advocacy: <http://advocacy.osu.edu>
- An overview of student academic services and other direct links can be found here: <http://advising.osu.edu/welcome.shtml>

Personal well-being: OSU also has resources to help with emotional and bodily health. Counseling and Consultation Services (<http://ccs.osu.edu>, 614-292-5766), located in the Younkin Center on Neil Avenue and in Lincoln Tower, provides mental health care, referrals, counseling groups, wellness workshops, and substance abuse resources. They can help with feeling down, anxiety, difficulty concentrating, lack of motivation, interpersonal relationship problems, and substance abuse. CCS has an after-hours crisis line that can be reached at their main number, 614-292-5766 (ext. 2) outside of office hours. During work days, emergency consultations are also available. Outside resources include the National Suicide Prevention Hotline (1-800-273-TALK) and the Crisis Text Line, which can help you talk through any kind of crisis, including self-harm, domestic abuse, depression, sexual assault, family and friend problems, substance abuse, grief, and other situations (text START to 741-741).

- An overview of student well-being services can be found here: <http://ssc.osu.edu>.

Healthcare is available for all students at the Wilce Student Health Center on campus and accepts many insurance plans; it is mostly free for those on OSU student health insurance. If you are ill, they can give you an absence excuse as well as treatment. Same-day weekday appointments are available. After hours and on weekends, there are OSU urgent care facilities near campus that accept insurance; see <https://shs.osu.edu/emergencies/after-hours-care/>.

Increasing numbers of students are finding themselves without adequate food. The Buckeye Food Alliance (<https://www.buckeyefoodalliance.org>, 614-285-4067) runs a free food pantry for OSU students in Lincoln Tower, Suite 150, that is open four days a week.

Sexual assault crisis services are available to people of all genders and orientations through the local SARNCO hotline (614-267-7020) and area hospitals. Ongoing support is available through Counseling and Consultation and Wilce Student Health. OSU Hospital, CCS, and SARNCO are confidential. You can also find support and ways to report sexual assault or harassment through the University's Title IX office (<http://titleix.osu.edu>), which does not guarantee confidentiality. Be aware that many other OSU academic and coaching staff are mandatory reporters (required to convey reports of assault to the University) and also cannot guarantee confidentiality. (To be clear, I absolutely will help you get assistance, but you have a right to be aware of OSU's reporting policies.) Choose the support system that is right for you. Being a victim/survivor of sexual assault is never your fault, and you have the right to compassionate help.

Please do not hesitate to reach out if you are struggling and need help finding assistance.

GE THEME COURSES

Overview

Courses that are accepted into the General Education (GE) Themes must meet two sets of Expected Learning Outcomes (ELOs): those common for all GE Themes and one set specific to the content of the Theme. This form begins with the criteria common to all themes and has expandable sections relating to each specific theme.

A course may be accepted into more than one Theme if the ELOs for each theme are met. Courses seeking approval for multiple Themes will complete a submission document for each theme. Courses seeking approval as a 4-credit, Integrative Practices course need to complete a similar submission form for the chosen practice. It may be helpful to consult your Director of Undergraduate Studies or appropriate support staff person as you develop and submit your course.

Please enter text in the boxes to describe how your class will meet the ELOs of the Theme to which it applies. Please use language that is clear and concise and that colleagues outside of your discipline will be able to follow. You are encouraged to refer specifically to the syllabus submitted for the course, since the reviewers will also have that document. Because this document will be used in the course review and approval process, you should be as specific as possible, listing concrete activities, specific theories, names of scholars, titles of textbooks etc.
