Good morning,

On Thursday, November 4th, the Arts and Humanities 1 Panel of the ASC Curriculum Committee reviewed a new course proposal for South Asian Studies 3220.

The Panel unanimously approved the request with three contingencies:

- Contingency: The Panel requests clarification about whether recorded lectures will be a requirement for students within the course and, if so, to add this requirement to the syllabus.
- Contingency: The Panel noticed that on week 9 of the syllabus the students are asked to watch a film utilizing the streaming service Netflix. If this is the case, the Panel requests that a Netflix subscription be listed as a required course material.
- Contingency: The Panel requests that the GE category title, Goals, ELOs and a statement explaining how the GE ELOs are met be added to the syllabus as currently, on page 2 of the syllabus, only half the Goals and ELOs are listed and there is no statement. This is a requirement of General Educations within the College of Arts and Sciences. The GE language can be found on the Office of Academic Affairs website at: <https://oaa.osu.edu/ohio-state-ge-program>.

I will return South Asian Studies 3220 to the departmental queue via curriculum.osu.edu in order to address the Panel's concerns.

Should you have any questions about the feedback of the Panel, please feel free to contact Brad Steinmetz (faculty Chair of the A&H1 Panel; cc'd on this e-mail), or me.

Best,
Michael
