Global Citizenship Themes Review Panel

This letter is written to address the theme panel's review for our course HTHRHS 4590 Global Health Inequity. We have responded to the concerns as presented to us below.

- “The reviewing faculty found this course to be extremely exciting and worthwhile to students and an exceptional example of a distance-learning course, but they are still unclear about the connection to the GE Theme: Citizenship.”
 - With regards to strengthening the connection of the course goals and the GE theme Citizenship: by being exposed to the multiple health inequalities both, in the US and abroad, we are able to broaden students' perspectives of the unjust circumstances that local and global communities face (raising awareness) and most importantly, empower students to understand their role in their community and reflect on their chosen career path.

- “The reviewing faculty respectfully ask to provide further clarification within the course syllabus and GE submission form about how the course plans on engaging students with the idea of Citizenship. For example, in the GE Themes submission form in the provided answer for ELO 1.1 (engaging in critical and logical thinking), it is exceptionally clear that students will be engaging in the required thinking. However, there is no indication that students will be required to think critically and logically about the idea of Citizenship. The reviewing faculty request that more explicit links to Citizenship be made apparent throughout the syllabus and the GE submission form. “
 - With regards to the concerns that there is no indication that students will be required to think critically and logically about the idea of Citizenship: teaching/education for global citizenship it's a framework that is promoted in this 4590 course and goes beyond school boundaries as students are encouraged to think outside boxes and promote solutions to current urgent issues that impact population health: urban poverty, systemic and structural racism, housing inequalities, food insecurity, education, employment conditions, etc.
 - We have added explicit language to each reflection and assignment that calls out the connections between the topic and its potential connection to citizenship. Additionally, we have linked each assignment on the syllabus course outline to the theme and course ELOs. We have also further demonstrated within the narrative on the submission form how theme goals and ELOs are met by course ELOs. We have also called out the changes in the examples we have provided in the assignments that demonstrated the explicit connections to citizenship.

- According to OXFAM (model used for curricular design), a global citizenship related curriculum helps students to: a) Build their own understanding of world events, b) Think about their values and what's important to them, c) Take learning into the real world, d) Challenge ignorance and intolerance, e) Get involved in their local, national and global communities, f) Develop an argument and voice their opinions, and g) See that they have power to act and influence the world around them. These are important learning outcomes of 4590 Global Health Inequalities and are the foundations components of defining citizenship and both the individual and community contribution/obligation to citizenship..
- In addition, students are excited and engaged in critical thinking by working on the assignments and participating in weekly discussions. Samples of critical reflections assignments and infographics for Spring 22 are included as attached file and described in the submission form..
- “The reviewing faculty offer a friendly recommendation that the midterm be clarified to state whether it will take place asynchronously or synchronously. This recommendation can be implemented the next time the course is offered.”
 - The midterm for 4590 will be offered asynchronously -exam will be released 48-72 hours prior to deadline and students will be able to critically reflect on current events that relate to health equity in the US and abroad (I implemented this method in AU21.

Thank you for your review and consideration.

Sincerely,

Marcia Nahikian-Nelms, PhD,RDN.LD

Phone number: (614) 685-0896

Office: 231A Atwell Hall

Class Meeting Schedule: This course is 100% online with weekly synchronous 1-hr sessions

Credit hours: 3-credit-hour course

Student/Office hours: Thursdays 10:30 – 11:45pm

Course description & organization

The focus of this course is on recognizing health inequalities locally and beyond. Students will examine why communities in both the Global South and North have limited/unequal access to (high-quality) healthcare and most importantly what can be done to promote health equity for all. Key topics include urban poverty, systemic and structural racism, maternal and child health, infectious and chronic diseases, nutrition, sanitation, access to safe water, and environmental health. Class discussions and activities incorporate critical perspectives on the role of social determinants of health in population health in both, first and third world countries. Students will explicitly tie the topics of social justice and health inequity to global citizenship in each discussion and assignment.

The course is 100% online with (01) weekly synchronous meeting (required). Content is divided into weekly modules with an overview, lecture content, assigned readings, additional resources, weekly discussions, and critical reflection assignments.

Course Goals & Objectives: Our objectives are three-fold:

Human health & wellbeing: Successful students will explore social, economic, political and environmental factors that affect how people experience health and have a major impact in their lives and wellbeing. The in-depth exploration will be done from a social justice and systemic perspective addressing access, or lack thereof, to opportunities.

On being educated global citizens: Successful students will be interculturally competent global citizens who can engage with significant aspects of the human condition -in particularly health within local, state, national, and global settings.

Citizenship for a just and diverse world: Successful students will examine notions of justice and inequities and analyze and critique how these interact with historically and socially constructed ideas of global citizenship and social justice in the US and beyond.

COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES (ELOS)

By the end of this course, students should successfully be able to:

1. Understand how people in the world have different experiences with health. An area of emphasis will be equitable access to good quality healthcare among the urban poor.
2. Explore and analyze health and wellbeing from theoretical, socio-economic, scientific, historical, cultural, technological, policy, and/or personal perspectives. Interpret global burden of disease data and analyze current trends.
3. Identify, reflect on, and apply the skills needed for resiliency and wellbeing among communities in both the North and the South.
4. Analyze and discuss the healthcare institutions, systems and the diverse cultural traditions of both the United States and other nations, and issues of global interdependence including impact of globalization.
5. Examine, critique, and appreciate various expressions and implications of diversity, equity, and inclusion among marginalized communities in the U.S. and beyond.
6. Describe, analyze, and critique the roles and impacts of human activity on both human society and the natural world.
7. Apply the knowledge, skills, attitudes and qualities of an interculturally competent global citizen in the context of equitable access to good quality healthcare for all.
8. Describe and analyze a range of perspectives on what constitutes global citizenship and our commitment to the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs).
9. Analyze and critique the intersection of concepts of justice, difference, citizenship, and how these interact with cultural traditions, structures of power and/or advocacy for social change.
10. Leave inspired to be an advocate for health equity locally and globally.

General Education Category: Theme: Citizenship for a Diverse and Just World.

GOAL 1: Successful students will explore and analyze a range of perspectives on local, national, or global citizenship, and apply the knowledge, skills, and dispositions that constitute citizenship.

Theme Learning Outcomes:

1. Describe and analyze a range of perspectives on what constitutes citizenship and how it differs across political, cultural, national, global, and/or historical communities. (ELO 6,7,8,9,10)
2. Identify, reflect on, and apply the knowledge, skills and dispositions required for intercultural competence as a global citizen. (ELO 6,7,8,9,10)

GOAL 2: Successful students will examine notions of justice amidst difference and analyze and critique how these interact with historically and socially constructed ideas of citizenship and membership within societies, both within the US and/or around the world.

1. Examine, critique, and evaluate various expressions and implications of diversity, equity, inclusion, and explore a variety of lived experiences. ((ELO 5,6,7,8,9,10))
2. Analyze and critique the intersection of concepts of justice, difference, citizenship, and how these interact with cultural traditions, structures of power and/or advocacy for social change. (ELO 6,7,8,9,10)

COURSE POLICIES

All School and Program course policies apply to this course. Handbooks are available on the HRS website: hrs.osu.edu. These provide all required policies and procedures required for students accepted into SHRS academic programs.

Mode of Delivery This course is 100% online. Students will find a sequence of materials and activities each week in Carmen, and will meet for a weekly synchronous Zoom discussion session during the scheduled class meeting time. This course is divided into weekly modules that are released one week ahead of time. Apart from weekly Zoom meetings, students may schedule their efforts freely throughout the week as they keep pace with weekly due dates. All materials will be provided via Carmen and all assignments will be completed via Canvas file upload. All necessary materials will be provided in the content section of Carmen. A tutorial is available at <https://ocio.osu.edu/audience/students>. Notices about this course will be sent to your name.#@buckeyemail.osu.edu account. All students must have an active OSU email account and remain electronically connected to OSU. Emails may be forwarded to an external email address. Please contact the Help Desk for more information.

Credit hours and work expectations: This is a 3 credit-hour course. According to Ohio State bylaws on instruction (go.osu.edu/credit hours), students should expect around 3 hours per week of time spent on direct instruction (instructor content and Carmen activities, for example) in addition to 6 hours of homework (reading and assignment preparation, for example) to receive a grade of C average.

Synchronous Online Weekly Meetings: This class will utilize (01) synchronous weekly meeting. During the weekly meeting, students are expected to have the ability to answer questions if called upon and should have access to a working microphone. For an optimal class experience please make sure you:

- Participate in a location with reliable Internet connection (avoid free and public Wi-Fi spots if possible).
- Choose a location with minimal distractions in terms of excessive background noise.
- Use a USB headset microphone for audio participation.
- Please test your computer using the course technology through Carmen.
- For more information, visit the Carmen Connect Participant page located at: <https://odee.osu.edu/resourcecenter/carmenconnect/quickstart-checklist>

Course technology: For help with your password, university e-mail, Carmen, or any other technology issues, questions, or requests, contact the OSU IT Service Desk. Standard support hours are available at <https://ocio.osu.edu/help/hours>, and support for urgent issues is available 24x7.

Self-Service and Chat support: <http://ocio.osu.edu/selfservice> • Phone: 614-688-HELP (4357) Email: 8help@osu.edu • TDD: 614-688-8743

Attendance / Participation Expectations: Because this is an online course, your attendance is based on your online activity and participation. As noted above, this course is not a self-paced learning experience. If you have a situation that might cause you to miss an entire week of class, discuss it with me as soon as possible. The following is a summary of students' expected participation:

Weekly Zoom sessions: REQUIRED. All synchronous, scheduled class sessions for the course are mandatory and required. Zoom instructor office hours: OPTIONAL. You are encouraged to note my office hours in your weekly schedule and attend as you have questions, but these sessions are optional.

Participating in online activities for attendance: AT LEAST ONCE PER WEEK. You are expected to log in to the course in Carmen every week to engage with course readings, documentaries and short videos, and to download instructions for assignments. During most weeks you will probably log in many times.

Late Assignment Submissions: All assignments are due in their entirety on the due date/time noted in Carmen course page. There will be a 20% penalty per day late and no assignments will be accepted if late more than three days. Partial submissions are not allowed and will not be graded.

Instructor Feedback and Response Expectations:

Email Response: Please reach out directly via email to Maria.Brunette@osumc.edu

Graded Materials Return: I anticipate to grade all assignments no later than 72 hours after due date.

UNIVERSITY POLICIES

Academic Integrity: "Academic integrity is essential to maintaining an environment that fosters excellence in teaching, research, and other educational and scholarly activities. Thus, The Ohio State University and the Committee on Academic Misconduct (COAM) expect that all students have read and understand the University's Code of Student Conduct, and that all students will complete all academic and scholarly assignments with fairness and honesty. Students must recognize that failure to follow the rules and guidelines established in the University's Code of Student Conduct and this syllabus may constitute Academic Misconduct. The Ohio State University's Code of Student Conduct (Section 3335- 23-04) defines academic misconduct as: Any activity that tends to compromise the academic integrity of the University, or subvert the educational process. Examples of academic misconduct include (but are not limited to) plagiarism, collusion (unauthorized collaboration), copying the work of another student, and possession of unauthorized materials during an examination. Ignorance of the University's Code of Student Conduct is never considered an excuse for academic misconduct, so I recommend that you review the Code of Student Conduct and, specifically, the sections dealing with academic misconduct. If I suspect that a student has committed academic misconduct in this course, I am obligated by University Rules to report my suspicions to the Committee on Academic Misconduct. If COAM determines that you have violated the University's Code of Student Conduct (i.e., committed academic misconduct), the sanctions for the misconduct could include a failing grade in this course and suspension or dismissal from the University. If you have any questions about the above policy or what constitutes academic misconduct in this course, please contact me." (Faculty Rule 3335-5-487). For additional information, see the Code of Student Conduct [<http://studentconduct.osu.edu/>].

Accessibility Accommodations for Students with Disabilities: The university strives to make all learning experiences as accessible as possible. In light of the current pandemic, students seeking to request COVID-related accommodations may do so through the university's request process, managed by Student Life Disability Services. If you anticipate or experience academic barriers based on your disability (including mental health, chronic, or temporary medical conditions), please let me know immediately so that we can privately discuss options. To establish reasonable accommodations, I may request that you register with Student Life Disability Services. After registration, make arrangements with me as soon as possible to discuss your accommodations so that they may be implemented in a timely fashion. SLDS contact information: slds@osu.edu; 614-292-3307; slds.osu.edu; 098 Baker Hall, 113 W. 12th Avenue.

Your Mental Health: Counseling and Consultation Services: Ohio State University's Student Life Counseling and Consultation Service (CCS) is here to support you. If you are a student in the School of Health and Rehabilitation Sciences, you may schedule an appointment with our mental health counselors: email hsrc.com.counseling@osumc.edu, indicate which program you are enrolled in and that you are interested in scheduling an initial counseling appointment. If you find yourself feeling isolated, anxious or overwhelmed, on-demand resources are available at go.osu.edu/ccsondemand. You can reach an on-call counselor when CCS is closed at 614- 292-5766, and 24-hour emergency help is also available through the 24/7 National Prevention Hotline at 1-800-273-TALK or at suicidepreventionlifeline.org. The Ohio State Wellness app is also a great resource available at go.osu.edu/wellnessapp.

Commitment to a diverse and inclusive learning environment: "The Ohio State University affirms the importance and value of diversity in the student body. Our programs and curricula reflect our multicultural society and global economy and seek to provide opportunities for students to learn more about persons who are different from them. We are committed to maintaining a community that recognizes and values the inherent worth and dignity of every person; fosters sensitivity, understanding, and mutual respect among each member of our community; and encourages each individual to strive to reach his or her own potential. Discrimination against any individual based upon protected status, which is defined as age, color, disability, gender identity or expression, national origin, race, religion, sex, sexual orientation, or veteran status, is prohibited."

Safety and health requirements: All teaching staff and students are required to comply with and stay up to date on all University safety and health guidance, which includes wearing a facemask in any indoor space and maintaining a safe physical distance at all times. Non-compliance will be warned first and disciplinary actions will be taken for repeated offenses.

Creating an environment free from harassment, discrimination and sexual misconduct: The Ohio State University is committed to building and maintaining a community to reflect diversity and to improve opportunities for all. All Buckeyes have the right to be free from harassment, discrimination, and sexual misconduct. Ohio State does not discriminate on the basis of age, ancestry, color, disability, ethnicity, gender, gender identity or expression, genetic information, HIV/AIDS status, military status, national origin, pregnancy (childbirth, false pregnancy, termination of pregnancy, or recovery therefrom), race, religion, sex, sexual orientation, or protected veteran status, or any other bases under the law, in its activities, academic programs, admission, and employment. Members of the university community also have the right to be free from all forms of sexual misconduct: sexual harassment, sexual assault, relationship violence, stalking, and sexual exploitation. To report harassment, discrimination, sexual misconduct, or retaliation and/or seek confidential and non-confidential resources and supportive measures, contact the Office of Institutional Equity:

- Online reporting form at equity.osu.edu,
- Call 614-247-5838 or TTY 614-688-8605,
- Or Email equity@osu.edu

The university is committed to stopping sexual misconduct, preventing its recurrence, eliminating any hostile environment, and remedying its discriminatory effects. All university employees have reporting responsibilities to the Office of Institutional Equity to ensure the university can take appropriate action:

- All university employees, except those exempted by legal privilege of confidentiality or expressly identified as a confidential reporter, have an obligation to report incidents of sexual assault immediately.
- The following employees have an obligation to report all other forms of sexual misconduct as soon as practicable but at most within five workdays of becoming aware of such information: 1. Any human resource professional (HRP); 2. Anyone who supervises faculty, staff, students, or volunteers; 3. Chair/director; and 4. Faculty member.

Grievances and Solving Problems: Please see HRS Student Handbook Policy # 5 and Policy #20 – Student Appeal Process. In general, a student should meet with the instructor of record for the course first and then, as outlined in Policy #5 and #20, a student should then take any problem or grievance to the Division Director.

Conduct in the Classroom and Academic Learning Environment: Students will adhere to the code of student conduct for The Ohio State University at all times. Students in the School of HRS have additional professional requirements for behavior due to the nature of their professional training and the environments in which learning may occur. Please see HRS Student Handbook Policy # 6.

Trigger Warning Language: "Some contents of this course may involve media that may be triggering to some students due to descriptions of and/or scenes depicting acts of violence, acts of war, or sexual violence and its aftermath. If needed, please take care of yourself while watching/reading this material (leaving classroom to take a water/bathroom break, debriefing with a friend, contacting a Sexual Violence Support Coordinator at 614-292-1111).

COVID

Continuous engagement with this course is essential to learning the material. Students are expected to attend class and engage with assignments and discussion prompts for every scheduled meeting, participating at least once per week for courses with fully remote participation. Students who need to miss class or who are not able to participate due to illness (COVID-19 or other illnesses), exposure to COVID-19, care for family members exposed to COVID-19 or other reasons are expected to contact the instructor as soon as possible to arrange for accommodation. Students in special situations or those requiring specific, long-term or other accommodation should seek support from appropriate university offices including but not limited to: Student Advocacy, Student Life Disability Services and the Office of Institutional Equity.

Copyright: ©-The materials used in connection with this course may be subject to copyright protection and are only for the use of students officially enrolled in the course for the educational purposes associated with the course. Copyright law must be considered before copying, retaining, or disseminating materials outside of the course.

GRADING AND EVALUATION

Graded assignments may come in three forms, and students should note the expectations for each in the descriptions of our class assignments below.

Assignment type:

- Independent Work: Strictly non-collaborative, original-individual work. You may discuss this assignment only with your instructor. Discussions with other individuals, either in person or electronically, are strictly prohibited.
- Collaboration Required: An explicit expectation for collaboration among students either in-class or outside (i.e. group work).
- Optional-Collaboration: Students are permitted, but not required, to discuss the assignment or ideas with each other. However, all submitted work must be one's original and individual creation.

Course Assignments & Examinations: There are three category of assignments including short papers/reflections, infographics and a final group project. Only a midterm examination will be given.

- Critical reflections (Individual, 6 total, 10% each): Students will be asked to write a critical assessment of a global health topic assigned by the instructor. Students will identify and review relevant sources of information (scientific articles, reports, case studies, news articles, etc.), synthesize the information, and discuss their perspectives. Students will share their work with the class and stimulate discussion.

- Global Health Equity Infographics (Individual, 2 total, 5% each): Students will be asked to prepare an infographic for a particular topic covered during class.
- Global Health Equity Infographic (Collaborative/Group, 1 total, 5%): Students in groups of 2 will be asked to prepare an infographic for a particular topic covered during class.
- Final Project (10%): Working in groups of 2, students will be asked to complete a project on a global health equity topic. Students will be asked to propose a solution to improve specific health outcomes using community empowerment and social media strategies.
- Midterm Exam (10%): Information covered during the first 7-8 weeks of the semester will be evaluated via this midterm exam. All assigned readings, book chapters, documentaries, group discussions, etc. will be included in the elaboration of the exam.
- Critical Thinking and Class Participation (5%): The instructor will individually evaluate student contributions during required weekly synchronous Zoom session.

Grading Scale: The course is letter graded. Final grades will be calculated as a percent (points earned divided by possible points) and the following percent system will be used to award a letter grade:

93–100: A
90–92.9: A-
87–89.9: B+
83–86.9: B
80–82.9: B-
77–79.9: C+
73–76.9: C
70–72.9: C-
67–69.9: D+

Audiovisual Materials (Videos and documentaries): Please make sure you take the time to watch and reflect on the additional materials available in our Carmen course page. OSU Media Services has kindly uploaded them so you could watch them at a time that is most convenient to you. Additional short clips, TED talks and podcasts will be posted weekly in our course page.

Class documentaries/DVDs specifically selected for this course are available and students would need to log in Carmen course page.

GE THEME COURSES

Overview

Courses that are accepted into the General Education (GE) Themes must meet two sets of Expected Learning Outcomes (ELOs): those common for all GE Themes and one set specific to the content of the Theme. This form begins with the criteria common to all themes and has expandable sections relating to each specific theme.

A course may be accepted into more than one Theme if the ELOs for each theme are met. Courses seeking approval for multiple Themes will complete a submission document for each theme. Courses seeking approval as a 4-credit, Integrative Practices course need to complete a similar submission form for the chosen practice. It may be helpful to consult your Director of Undergraduate Studies or appropriate support staff person as you develop and submit your course.

Please enter text in the boxes to describe how your class will meet the ELOs of the Theme to which it applies. Please use language that is clear and concise and that colleagues outside of your discipline will be able to follow. You are encouraged to refer specifically to the syllabus submitted for the course, since the reviewers will also have that document. Because this document will be used in the course review and approval process, you should be as specific as possible, listing concrete activities, specific theories, names of scholars, titles of textbooks etc.

Course subject & number

General Expectations of All Themes

GOAL 1: Successful students will analyze an important topic or idea at a more advanced and in-depth level than the foundations.

Please briefly identify the ways in which this course represents an advanced study of the focal theme. In this context, “advanced” refers to courses that are e.g., synthetic, rely on research or cutting-edge findings, or deeply engage with the subject matter, among other possibilities. (50-500 words)

Course subject & number

ELO 1.1 Engage in critical and logical thinking about the topic or idea of the theme. Please link this ELO to the course goals and topics and indicate specific activities/assignments through which it will be met. (50-700 words)

ELO 1.2 Engage in an advanced, in-depth, scholarly exploration of the topic or idea of the theme. Please link this ELO to the course goals and topics and indicate specific activities/assignments through which it will be met. (50-700 words)

Course subject & number

GOAL 2: Successful students will integrate approaches to the theme by making connections to out-of-classroom experiences with academic knowledge or across disciplines and/or to work they have done in previous classes and that they anticipate doing in future.

ELO 2.1 Identify, describe, and synthesize approaches or experiences as they apply to the theme.

Please link this ELO to the course goals and topics and indicate specific activities/assignments through which it will be met. (50-700 words)

ELO 2.2 Demonstrate a developing sense of self as a learner through reflection, self-assessment, and creative work, building on prior experiences to respond to new and challenging contexts. Please link this ELO to the course goals and topics and indicate specific activities/assignments through which it will be met.

(50-700 words)

Course subject & number

Specific Expectations of Courses in Citizenship

GOAL 1: Successful students will explore and analyze a range of perspectives on local, national, or global citizenship, and apply the knowledge, skills, and dispositions that constitute citizenship.

ELO 1.1 Describe and analyze a range of perspectives on what constitutes citizenship and how it differs across political, cultural, national, global, and/or historical communities. Please link this ELO to the course goals and topics and indicate specific activities/assignments through which it will be met. (50-700 words)

ELO 1.2 Identify, reflect on, and apply the knowledge, skills and dispositions required for intercultural competence as a global citizen. Please link this ELO to the course goals and topics and indicate specific activities/assignments through which it will be met. (50-700 words)

Course subject & number

GOAL 2: Successful students will examine notions of justice amidst difference and analyze and critique how these interact with historically and socially constructed ideas of citizenship and membership within societies, both within the US and/or around the world.

ELO 2.1 Examine, critique, and evaluate various expressions and implications of diversity, equity, inclusion, and explore a variety of lived experiences. Please link this ELO to the course goals and topics and indicate specific activities/assignments through which it will be met. (50-700 words)

2.2 Analyze and critique the intersection of concepts of justice, difference, citizenship, and how these interact with cultural traditions, structures of power and/or advocacy for social change. Please link this ELO to the course goals and topics and indicate specific activities/assignments through which it will be met. (50-700 words)

Syllabus

Proposed syllabus uses the ODEE distance learning syllabus template (or own college distance learning syllabus template based on ODEE model), includes boilerplate language where required, as well as a clear description of the technical and academic support services offered, and how learners can obtain them. YES

Syllabus is consistent and is easy to understand from the student perspective. YES Select

Syllabus includes a schedule with dates and/or a description of what constitutes the beginning and end of a week or module. YES

If there are required synchronous sessions, the syllabus clearly states when they will happen and how to access them. YES

Instructor Presence

For more on instructor presence: <https://teaching.resources.osu.edu/teaching-topics/online-instructor-presence>

Students should have opportunities for regular and substantive academic interactions with the course instructor. Some ways to achieve this objective:

- X Regular instructor communications with the class via announcements or weekly check-ins
- X Instructional content, such as video, audio, or interactive lessons, that is visibly created or mediated by the instructor
- X Regular participation in class discussion, such as in Carmen discussions or synchronous sessions
- X Regular opportunities for students to receive personal instructor feedback on assignments

- Please comment on this dimension of the proposed course (or select/explain methods above):
Enter comments, 1-3 sentences... Participating in online activities for attendance: at least once per week

You are expected to log in to the course in Carmen every week. During most weeks you will probably log in many times. If you have a situation that might cause you to miss an entire week of class, discuss it with me as soon as possible.

Zoom meetings and office hours: optional

All live, scheduled events for the course, including my office hours, are optional. I will post recordings of synchronous sessions for those who cannot attend.

Participating in discussion forums: two or more times per week

As part of your participation, each week you can expect to post at least twice as part of our substantive class discussion on the week's topics.

Delivery Well-Suited to DL/DH Environment

Which components of this course are planned for synchronous delivery and which for asynchronous delivery? (For DH, address what is planned for in-person meetings as well.)

Enter details about synchronous and asynchronous components... yes Mode of delivery: This online course will consist of one online synchronous meeting per week, and weekly asynchronous online learning. Please note: online does not mean self-study in this course. Students are expected to contribute to class discussions during synchronous online meetings and online discussion boards each week. All materials will be provided via Carmen and all assignments will be completed via Canvas file upload. All necessary materials will be provided in the content section of Carmen. A tutorial is available at <https://ocio.osu.edu/audience/students>. Notices about this course will be sent to your name.#@buckeyemail.osu.edu account. All students must have an active OSU email account and remain electronically connected to OSU. Emails may be forwarded to an external email address. Please contact the Help Desk for more information. Because this is an online course, your attendance is based on your online activity and participation. The following is a summary of everyone's expected participation:

- Participating in online activities for attendance: You are expected to attend the course at the scheduled time once a week. You are expected to log in to the course in Carmen every week. (During most weeks you will probably log in many times.) If you have a situation that might cause you to miss an entire week of class, discuss it with me as soon as possible.
- Office hours and live sessions: office hours are available on request and are optional.

Credit hours and work expectations: This is a 3 credit-hour course. According to Ohio State bylaws on instruction (go.osu.edu/credit hours), students should expect around 3 hours per week of time spent on direct instruction (instructor content and Carmen activities, for example) in addition to 6 hours of homework (reading and assignment preparation, for example) to receive a grade of C average.

Attendance and participation requirements: Research shows regular participation is one of the highest predictors of success.

Workload Estimation

For more information about calculating online instruction time: ODEE Credit Hour Estimation

Course credit hours align with estimated average weekly time to complete the course successfully. Select Yes (see above)

Course includes direct (equivalent of "in-class") and indirect (equivalent of "out-of-class") instruction at a ratio of about 1:2. Select Yes See above

Provide a brief outline of a typical course week, categorizing course activities and estimating the approximate time to complete them or participate:

Enter details... Pace of online activities: This course is divided into weekly modules that are released on Monday each week. You will have one week to complete all learning materials, quizzes, discussions, and/or assignments for that week's module, which are due the following Sunday by 11:59pm. Students are expected to keep pace with weekly deadlines but may schedule their efforts freely within that time frame.

In the case of course delivery change requests, the course demonstrates comparable rigor in meeting course learning outcomes. Select NA

Accessibility

For tools and training on accessibility: Digital Accessibility Services

Instructor(s) teaching the course will have taken Digital Accessibility training (starting in 2022) and will ensure all course materials and activities meet requirements for diverse learners, including alternate means of accessing course materials when appropriate. Select Yes

Information is provided about the accessibility of all technologies required in the course. All third-party tools (tools without campus-wide license agreements) have their accessibility statements included. Select Yes

Description of any anticipated accommodation requests and how they have been/will be addressed. Enter comments... Yes

Frequent, Varied Assignments/Assessments

For more information: <https://teaching.resources.osu.edu/teaching-topics/designing-assessments-student>

Student success in online courses is maximized when there are frequent, varied learning activities. Possible approaches:

- Opportunities for students to receive course information through a variety of different sources, including indirect sources, such as textbooks and lectures, and direct sources, such as scholarly resources and field observation
- Variety of assignment formats to provide students with multiple means of demonstrating learning
- Opportunities for students to apply course knowledge and skills to authentic, real-world tasks in assignments

Community Building

For more information: <https://teaching.resources.osu.edu/teaching-topics/student-interaction-online>

Students engage more fully in courses when they have an opportunity to interact with their peers and feel they are part of a community of learners. Possible approaches:

- X Opportunities for students to interact academically with classmates through regular class discussion or group assignments
- X Opportunities for students to interact socially with classmates, such as through video conference sessions or a course Q&A forum
- X Attention is paid to other ways to minimize transactional distance (psychological and communicative gaps between students and their peers, instructor, course content, and institution)

Please comment on this dimension of the proposed course (or select methods above):

Transparency and Metacognitive Explanations

For more information: <https://teaching.resources.osu.edu/teaching-topics/supporting-student-learning-your>

Students have successful, meaningful experiences when they understand how the components of a course connect together, when they have guidance on how to study, and when they are encouraged to take ownership of their learning. Possible approaches:

- X Instructor explanations about the learning goals and overall design or organization of the course
- X Context or rationale to explain the purpose and relevance of major tasks and assignments
- X Guidance or resources for ancillary skills necessary to complete assignments, such as conducting library research or using technology tools
- X Opportunities for students to take ownership or leadership in their learning, such as by choosing topics of interest for an assignment or leading a group discussion or meeting
- X Opportunities for students to reflect on their learning process, including their goals, study strategies, and progress
- X Opportunities for students to provide feedback on the course
