Good afternoon,

On Thursday, December 16th, the Themes Panel of the ASC Curriculum Committee reviewed a new GE Theme: Lived Environment proposal for History 2701.

The Panel unanimously approved the request with two contingencies and two recommendations:

- Contingency: The reviewing faculty request that a statement explaining how the GE Theme: Lived Environments ELOs will be satisfied be included underneath the GE Goals and ELOs, as this is a requirement of General Education courses within the College of Arts and Sciences.
- Contingency: The reviewing faculty request the addition of GE Theme: Lived Environment ELO 1.2 to the course syllabus, as it is currently missing. The GE Goals and ELOs can be found on the Office of Academic Affairs website at: <https://oaa.osu.edu/ohio-state-ge-program>.
- Recommendation: The reviewing faculty recommend removing the grade of D- from the grading scale, as The Ohio State University does not award the letter grade of D-.
- Recommendation: The reviewing faculty recommend tying the course description to the GE Theme: Lived Environments to help students help connect this course to the GE Theme.

I will return History 2701 to the departmental queue via curriculum.osu.edu to address the Panel's feedback.

Should you have any questions about the feedback of the Panel, please feel free to contact Jim Fredal, faculty Chair of the ASCC Themes Panel, Lorraine Wallace, acting faculty Chair of the Theme Advisory Group: Lived Environments, or myself.

Best,
Michael

I acknowledge that the land that The Ohio State University occupies is the ancestral and contemporary territory of the Shawnee, Potawatomi, Delaware, Miami, Peoria, Seneca, Wyandotte, Ojibwe and Cherokee peoples. Specifically, the university resides on land ceded in the 1795 Treaty of Greenville and the forced removal of tribes through the Indian Removal Act of 1830. I honor the resiliency of these tribal nations and recognize the historical contexts that has and continues to affect the Indigenous peoples of this land.
