Good afternoon,

On Thursday, December 16th, the Themes Panel of the ASC Curriculum Committee reviewed a new GE Theme: Lived Environment proposal for Arabic 3702

The Panel unanimously approved the request with one comment:

- Comment: The reviewing faculty found this course to be excellent and would like to use it as an exemplar of a proposal for the GE Theme: Lived Environments.

Arabic 3702 will continue through the approval process.

Should you have any questions about the feedback of the Panel, please feel free to contact Jim Fredal, faculty Chair of the ASCC Themes Panel, Lorraine Wallace, acting faculty Chair of the Theme Advisory Group: Lived Environments, or myself.

Best,
Michael

I acknowledge that the land that The Ohio State University occupies is the ancestral and contemporary territory of the Shawnee, Potawatomi, Delaware, Miami, Peoria, Seneca, Wyandotte, Ojibwe and Cherokee peoples. Specifically, the university resides on land ceded in the 1795 Treaty of Greeneville and the forced removal of tribes through the Indian Removal Act of 1830. I honor the resiliency of these tribal nations and recognize the historical contexts that has and continues to affect the Indigenous peoples of this land.
