Good morning Phoebe and Ila,

On Friday, May 12th, the Themes 1 Panel of the ASC Curriculum Committee reviewed a new GEN Theme: Citizenship for a Diverse and Just World request for Turkish 3797.

I am pleased to report that the Panel unanimously approved the revision with one recommendation:

- Recommendation: The reviewing faculty recommend clarifying how many class sessions students will need to attend. On page 8 of the syllabus, it mentions there are only 15 class sessions. However, on page 1 of the syllabus, it mentions the course will meet twice a week.

Turkish 3797 will continue through the approval process. My office will advance the course to OAA.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to reach out to Jim Fredal, faculty Chair of the ASCC Themes 1 Panel, Birgitte Soland, faculty Chair of the Theme Advisory Group: Citizenship for a Diverse and Just World, or me.

All my best,
Michael
