- Updated based on feedback, including credit hour rationale and updated syllabus (by Blacker, Noah on 08/30/2022 08:14 PM)
- Hi Noah, The feedback to the dept did not pertain to the Ed Abroad inventory and the GE rationale. It was all related to the syllabus (it still seems to be the old syllabus uploaded by Jackie) & no credit hour rationale was provided. #### Prerequisites

None. The language of this course is English.

Course description

This is a high impact, integrative “Education Abroad” 4-credit online course that fulfills the GE Theme in Citizenship for a Just and Diverse World. The course offers a virtual education abroad experience that includes immersive opportunities such as virtual reality visits to important sites in Istanbul, online conversations and collaborations with students in Turkey, and workshops and demonstrations with Turkish scholars and artists in cooking, music and dance, language, and more. With readings, videos, and diverse online sources, students will make additional forays into Turkish history, geography, literature, visual arts, architecture, sports, fashion, media, religion, politics and society. This class will also provide opportunities for explorations into issues of contemporary relevance and central importance to the study of Turkey, including the legacy of the Ottoman Empire, Islam and secularism, the East/West divide, nationalism, the role of the arts in society and social movements, and identity politics. Students will choose a topic they would like to explore in more depth and develop a creative project, such as a short film, a Turkish meal, or a particular Turkish art form.

Education abroad is proven to benefit undergraduates by broadening your perspectives, developing your intercultural competence, and contributing to your career opportunities. However, along with restrictions due to COVID-19, OSU students are unable to visit Turkey right now due to security concerns. This virtual education abroad program promises to deliver many of the benefits of education abroad as an intensive program with direct synchronous instruction, including online interactions with expert scholars and artists, and with college students at Kadir Has University in Istanbul, Turkey. Course modules will align with the Global Competence Certificate AND OSU's Intercultural Competence Certificate, giving you the opportunity to enhance your global and intercultural competence via regular class participation.

Course goals and expected learning outcomes

As part of the theme of Citizenship in a Just and Diverse World in the General Education curriculum, and as an Education Abroad 4-credit course, this course is designed to prepare students in the following ways.

Goals and Expected Learning Outcomes for Citizenship in a Just and Diverse World:

Goal 1: Successful students will analyze concepts of citizenship, justice and diversity at a more advanced and in-depth level than in the Foundations component.

ELO 1.1 Engage in critical and logical thinking about the topic or idea of citizenship for a just and diverse world.

ELO 1.2 Engage in an advanced, in-depth, scholarly exploration of the topic or idea of citizenship for a just and diverse world.

Goal 2: Successful students will integrate approaches to understanding citizenship for a just and diverse world by making connections to out-of-classroom experiences with academic knowledge or across disciplines and/or to work they have done in previous classes and that they anticipate doing in future.

ELO 2.1 Identify, describe and synthesize approaches or experiences as they apply to citizenship for a just and diverse world.

ELO 2.2 Demonstrate a developing sense of self as a learner through reflection, self-assessment and creative work, building on prior experiences to respond to new and challenging contexts.

Goal 3: Successful students will explore and analyze a range of perspectives on local, national or global citizenship and apply the knowledge, skills and dispositions that constitute citizenship.

ELO 3.1 Describe and analyze a range of perspectives on what constitutes citizenship and how it differs across political, cultural, national, global and/or historical communities.

ELO 3.2 Identify, reflect on and apply the knowledge, skills and dispositions required for intercultural competence as a global citizen.

Goal 4: Successful students will examine notions of justice amid difference and analyze and critique how these interact with historically and socially constructed ideas of citizenship and membership within society, both within the United States and around the world.

ELO 4.1 Examine, critique and evaluate various expressions and implications of diversity, equity and inclusion, and explore a variety of lived experiences.

ELO 4.2 Analyze and critique the intersection of concepts of justice, difference, citizenship, and how these interact with cultural traditions, structures of power and/or advocacy for social change.

Education Abroad and Away

Education Abroad courses help students explore cultures, life experiences and worldviews different from their own. This course explores “difficult differences” including racial, ethnic and gender inequality, and continuing struggles in Turkey for human rights, freedom, environmental justice, power, and other issues relevant to General Education themes.

Intercultural learning is augmented by immersion experiences in diverse communities in Istanbul.

HOW THIS ONLINE COURSE WORKS

Mode of delivery: This course is 100% online with weekly synchronous class sessions in Zoom.

Pace of online activities: This course is divided into weekly modules that are already available in CarmenCanvas. Students are expected to keep pace with weekly deadlines.

Credit hours and work expectations: This is a 4-credit-hour course. According to Ohio State policy for Education Abroad courses, a 4-credit hour course during an 8-week term should have 6.25 hours of direct instruction and 12.5 hours of other structured educational experiences per week, for a total of 18.75 hours per week.

Attendance and participation requirements: Because this is an online course, your attendance is based on your online activity in CarmenCanvas and participation in our weekly Zoom sessions. The following is a summary of students' expected participation:

- Participating in online activities and attendance: AT LEAST ONCE PER DAY
You are expected to log in to the course in Carmen every day and attend our weekly synchronous Zoom class sessions. We will meet 2 times a week for 3 hours and 15 minutes (some of that time will be dedicated to virtual excursions or the viewing of audiovisual materials). If you have a situation that might cause you to miss a class, discuss it with me as soon as possible. Attendance and Participation is required and will impact your grade (see Grading section below).
- Office hours: OPTIONAL
All live, scheduled class sessions for the course are required, while my office hours and other online events are optional.
- Participating in discussion forums: 2+ TIMES PER WEEK
As part of your participation, each week you can expect to post at least twice as part of our substantive online discussion on the week's topics.

See Course Schedule for assignment details and due dates.

Descriptions of major course assignments

Attendance and Participation (15 points)

You will earn these points by attending and participating in our weekly Zoom classes (2 times a week for 3 hours and 15 minutes). We have 15 class sessions and you get 1 point for each class in which you attend and fully participate. Full participation means that you are adding to the class discussion and activities by speaking or typing in the chat.

Cameras should be turned ON unless otherwise directed. Some of this class time will be dedicated to virtual excursions or the viewing of audiovisual course materials.

4 Online Discussion Posts and Replies (20 points)

Five times this session, you will be asked to post a substantial question or comment to our online discussions with students at Istanbul Technical University (ITU), following the provided prompts. You can earn 3 points for your original post (350 words); you can earn another 2 points for a substantial response you make on another student's post (150 words). The discussion board provides the opportunity to interact directly with people in the host country. Two of these discussions will be based on a collaborative activity assigned to small groups.

6 Written Reflections (30 points)

The instructor will schedule five reflection writing assignments that are worth 5 points each. Each reflection should be 2 pages long (500 words double-spaced). Each assignment will have its own prompt. Be sure to address each part of the prompt. These assignments will ask you to reflect on the course material as it relates to the Citizenship theme of this course and intercultural development.

Global Competence Certificate Modules and Activities (15 points)

As part of this class, you will complete the Global Competence Certificate (GCC) which includes 18 online learning modules. The GCC is a combination of online learning and live training. The content of the online modules helps you reflect on your own cultural identity and supports you as you learn about Turkish culture, manage your emotions, and build meaningful relationships across differences. You will participate in online quizzes and discussion forums within each module. Students will receive the Global Competence Certificate after completion of all modules and activities, along with assignment credit.

Story Map Collaborative Project (20 points)

Students will be assigned to small groups that include both OSU and ITU students. These groups will choose a site in Istanbul to research and explore virtually. Together, students will create a Story Map of their chosen site (10 points), write a short report (5 points), and present their project to the class (5 points).

Extra Credit Opportunities

Attendance at any relevant outside event (in person or online) can earn you 1 extra credit point in this class, up to 2 points total. Simply submit a 1-page description of the event that includes what you learned at the event and how it connects to the topics of this course. The instructor will regularly announce relevant outside events.

Academic integrity and collaboration policy for all assignments

- Written assignments: Your written assignments, including discussion posts, should be your own original work. You are encouraged to ask a trusted person to proofread your assignments before you turn them in, but no one else should revise or rewrite your work.

- Reusing past work: In general, you are prohibited in university courses from turning in work from a past class to your current class, even if you modify it. If you want to build on past research or revisit a topic you've explored in previous courses, please discuss the situation with me.
- Falsifying research or results: All research you will conduct in this course is intended to be a learning experience; you should never feel tempted to make your results or your library research look more successful than it was.
- Collaboration and informal peer-review: The course includes some opportunities for collaboration with your classmates. Remember that comparing answers on an assignment is not permitted. If you're unsure about a particular situation, please ask ahead of time.
- Group projects: This course includes a small group project, which can be stressful for students when it comes to dividing work, taking credit, and receiving grades and feedback. I have attempted to make the guidelines for group work as clear as possible for each activity and assignment, but please let me know if you have any questions.

Late assignments

Late submissions will be accepted for reduced credit up to 1 week past the deadline.

Grading scale

93 - 100 (A)	77 - 79.9 (C+)
90 - 92.9 (A-)	73 - 76.9 (C)

Instructor feedback and response time

I am providing the following list to give you an idea of my intended availability throughout the course. (Remember that you can call 614-688-4357(HELP) at any time if you have a technical problem.)

- Grading and feedback: For daily assignments, you can generally expect feedback within 2 days.
- Email: I will reply to emails within 24 hours on days when class is in session at the university.
- Discussion board: I will check and reply to messages in the discussion boards every 24 hours on school days.

OTHER COURSE POLICIES

Discussion and communication guidelines

The following are my expectations for how we should communicate as a class. Above all, please remember to be respectful and thoughtful.

- Writing style: While there is no need to participate in online discussions as if you were writing a research paper, you should remember to write using good grammar, spelling, and punctuation. Informality is fine for non-academic topics.
- Formatting: All written assignments for this class, with the exception of the online discussions, should be double-spaced, 12 pt font, with 1" margins.
- Tone and civility: Let's maintain a supportive learning community where everyone feels safe and where people can disagree amicably. Remember that sarcasm doesn't always come across online.
- Citing your sources: In all writing assignments, please cite your sources. Use credible, scholarly sources. (For the textbook or other course materials, list at least the title and page numbers. For online sources, include a link.) You may use any citation style you are familiar with, as long as you are consistent. You can access OSU library resources remotely: <https://library.osu.edu/site/labs/2011/03/28/osu-library-labs-off-campus-sign-in-bookmarklet/>
- Backing up your work: Consider composing your discussion posts in a word processor, where you can save your work, and then copying into the discussion.
- Collaboration: Students will sometimes collaborate in small groups. Each student should contribute equally to the activity and be responsible for their own work.

A significant component of our interactions in this class will occur through Zoom videoconferencing. Because this mode of discussion has benefits and challenges that differ from in-person class sessions, I want to share my expectations for how we will meet and communicate in Zoom:

- Technical Issues: If you encounter a technical issue with Zoom during a session, first make sure you are using the latest version of Zoom. Next, contact the IT Service Desk at go.osu.edu/it(link is external) or 614-688-4357(HELP). If issues continue, contact me after the session to learn how to make up for the missed content either via a recording or other means. I will not be able to address technical issues during a live session.
- Preparation: Come to the session having completed any readings or pre-work and be ready to have open, civil, and supportive discussions in video and chat spaces. I ask that you update your Zoom profile with your preferred name, pronouns, and add a picture with your face.
- Participation: At the start of our sessions, I will share specific expectations for how to use the chat, how to interact, and how to raise questions or concerns as we go. If you are unsure about expectations or are unsure about raising a question, please follow up with me afterward to make sure your questions are answered. Plan to be present during the entire class session as much as you are able. For some activities, I may ask you to share your faces on camera so that we can see each other and connect. Please feel encouraged to use a non-distracting virtual background(link is external). Many students and instructors prefer not to share their remote spaces for a variety of reasons. Mute your microphone when others are talking to minimize background noise in the meeting.
- Recordings: This course uses video and audio recordings of class lectures, student presentations, and related materials. These recordings are available to all students presently enrolled in the course. Please note that you are not allowed to share these recordings. This is to protect your FERPA rights and those of your fellow students.

If you have any concerns about participating in class over Zoom in this way, please let me know. My goal is to create a safe environment where we can benefit from seeing each other and connecting, but I want to prioritize your safety and well-being.

A new menu item in CarmenCanvas courses highlights academic policies and syllabus statements. This Academic Policies link will direct you to a webpage that lists policies that are typically found in the syllabus. They are also copy/pasted below.

Academic integrity policy

See Descriptions of major course assignments, above, for my specific guidelines about collaboration and academic integrity in the context of this online class.

It is the responsibility of the Committee on Academic Misconduct to investigate or establish procedures for the investigation of all reported cases of student academic misconduct. The term “academic misconduct” includes all forms of student academic misconduct wherever committed; illustrated by, but not limited to, cases of plagiarism and dishonest practices in connection with examinations. Instructors shall report all instances of alleged academic misconduct to the committee (Faculty Rule 3335-5-487). For additional information, see the Code of Student Conduct <http://studentlife.osu.edu/csc/>.

If I suspect that a student has committed academic misconduct in this course, I am obligated by university rules to report my suspicions to the Committee on Academic Misconduct. If COAM determines that you have violated the university’s Code of Student Conduct (i.e., committed academic misconduct), the sanctions for the misconduct could include a failing grade in this course and suspension or dismissal from the university. If you have any questions about the above policy or what constitutes academic misconduct in this course, please contact me.

The Ohio State University affirms the importance and value of diversity in the student body. Our programs and curricula reflect our multicultural society and global economy and seek to provide opportunities for students to learn more about persons who are different from them. We are committed to maintaining a community that recognizes and values the inherent worth and dignity of every person; fosters sensitivity, understanding, and mutual respect among each member of our community; and encourages each individual to strive to reach his or her own potential. Discrimination against any individual based upon protected status, which is defined as age, color, disability, gender identity or expression, national origin, race, religion, sex, sexual orientation, or veteran status, is prohibited.

Land Acknowledgement

We would like to acknowledge the land that The Ohio State University occupies is the ancestral and contemporary territory of the Shawnee, Potawatomi, Delaware, Miami, Peoria, Seneca, Wyandotte, Ojibwe and Cherokee peoples. Specifically, the university resides on land ceded in the 1795 Treaty of Greenville and the forced removal of tribes through the Indian Removal Act of 1830. I/We want to honor the resiliency of these tribal nations and recognize the historical contexts that has and continues to affect the Indigenous peoples of this land. More information on OSU's land acknowledgement can be found here: <https://mcc.osu.edu/about-us/land-acknowledgement>

Your mental health

As a student you may experience a range of issues that can cause barriers to learn, such as strained relationships, increased anxiety, alcohol/drug problems, feeling down, difficulty concentrating and/or lack of motivation. These mental health concerns or stressful events may lead to diminished academic performance or reduce a student's ability to participate in daily activities. No matter where you are engaged in distance learning, The Ohio State University's Student Life Counseling and Consultation Service (CCS) is here to support you. If you find yourself feeling isolated, anxious or overwhelmed, on-demand resources are available at go.osu.edu/ccsondemand. You can reach an on-call counselor when CCS is closed at 614- 292-5766, and 24-hour emergency help is also available through the 24/7 National Prevention Hotline at 1-800-273-TALK or at suicidepreventionlifeline.org. # GE THEME COURSES

Overview

Courses that are accepted into the General Education (GE) Themes must meet two sets of Expected Learning Outcomes (ELOs): those common for all GE Themes and one set specific to the content of the Theme. This form begins with the criteria common to all themes and has expandable sections relating to each specific theme.

A course may be accepted into more than one Theme if the ELOs for each theme are met. Courses seeking approval for multiple Themes will complete a submission document for each theme. Courses seeking approval as a 4-credit, Integrative Practices course need to complete a similar submission form for the chosen practice. It may be helpful to consult your Director of Undergraduate Studies or appropriate support staff person as you develop and submit your course.

Please enter text in the boxes to describe how your class will meet the ELOs of the Theme to which it applies. Please use language that is clear and concise and that colleagues outside of your discipline will be able to follow. You are encouraged to refer specifically to the syllabus submitted for the course, since the reviewers will also have that document. Because this document will be used in the course review and approval process, you should be as specific as possible, listing concrete activities, specific theories, names of scholars, titles of textbooks etc.

General Expectations of All Themes

GOAL 1: Successful students will analyze an important topic or idea at a more advanced and in-depth level than the foundations.

Please briefly identify the ways in which this course represents an advanced study of the focal theme. In this context, “advanced” refers to courses that are e.g., synthetic, rely on research or cutting-edge findings, or deeply engage with the subject matter, among other possibilities. (50-500 words)

Course subject & number

ELO 1.1 Engage in critical and logical thinking about the topic or idea of the theme. Please link this ELO to the course goals and topics and indicate specific activities/assignments through which it will be met. (50-700 words)

Course subject & number

GOAL 2: Successful students will integrate approaches to the theme by making connections to out-of-classroom experiences with academic knowledge or across disciplines and/or to work they have done in previous classes and that they anticipate doing in future.

ELO 2.1 Identify, describe, and synthesize approaches or experiences as they apply to the theme.

Please link this ELO to the course goals and topics and indicate specific activities/assignments through which it will be met. (50-700 words)

ELO 1.1 Describe and analyze a range of perspectives on what constitutes citizenship and how it differs across political, cultural, national, global, and/or historical communities. Please link this ELO to the course goals and topics and indicate specific activities/assignments through which it will be met. (50-700 words)

Education Abroad & Away Course Inventory

Overview

The GE allows students to take a single, 4+ credit course to satisfy a particular GE Theme requirement if that course includes key practices that are recognized as integrative and high impact. Courses seeking one of these designations need to provide a completed Integrative Practices Inventory at the time of course submission. This will be evaluated with the rest of the course materials (syllabus, Theme Course submission document, etc). Approved Integrative Practices courses will need to participate in assessment both for their Theme category and for their integrative practice.

Please enter text in the boxes below to describe how your class will meet the expectations of Education Abroad & Away Courses. Expectations for workload and credit-hours for Education Abroad & Away courses are outlined by the Office of International Affairs and described in the Arts and Sciences Curriculum and Operations Manual. It also may be helpful to consult the Description & Expectations document for this pedagogical practice or to consult your Director of Undergraduate Studies or appropriate support staff person as you complete this Inventory and submit your course.

Please use language that is clear and concise and that colleagues outside of your discipline will be able to follow. You are encouraged to refer specifically to the syllabus submitted for the course, since the reviewers will also have that document. Because this document will be used in the course review and approval process, you should be as specific as possible, listing concrete activities, specific theories, names of scholars, titles of textbooks etc.

Moodle Discussion 2: Political Cartoon Analysis

For this assignment, you will work in a small group to analyze together a Turkish or Ottoman political cartoon. Find your name in one of the groups below, and your assigned cartoon. The Group Leader will be responsible for initially getting all of the OSU students in the group connected (your Group page in Carmen has its own discussion board). The Group Leader will then schedule an online meeting of the OSU students in their group (via Zoom or other), and all are expected to attend. During that meeting, everyone in the group will follow these 5 steps together:

1. Before doing any research or trying to interpret meaning, just describe what you see. (i.e. "A man holding a baby.")
  2. Look up any information provided about the cartoon, like the cartoonist and time period or place that the cartoon was published.
  3. Look up and do your best to translate all Turkish words and phrases in the cartoon and cartoon description (you do not need to translate Ottoman text).
  4. Using online research, interpret the meaning of the cartoon. What symbols are used? What famous figures are represented? What might be the overall message that the cartoonist is attempting to convey?
  5. Finally, after you all come to an agreement, write up a brief analysis based on your work in the steps above. Be sure to use the materials from this course to help you situate the cartoon within a larger historical, social, or political context.

You might decide to individually choose some part of the research "labor" (image research, translation, analysis) as a practical way to "divide and conquer." Next, go into our Moodle (KHAS Learn) discussion board by Monday April 12th and share your analysis from step 5 with the Kadir Has students listed in the title of your small group. Invite the students in Istanbul to offer any feedback, additional information, and possible revisions to your analysis by Thursday April 15th. Everyone in the group should then participate in a back-and-forth conversation about the cartoon in the discussion board. Then, ONLY the Group Leader will copy/paste the entire discussion into the Carmen assignment folder for grading, by Friday April 16th.

Course includes direct (equivalent of “in-class”) and indirect (equivalent of “out-of-class”) instruction at a ratio of about 1:2.

Provide a brief outline of a typical course week, categorizing course activities and estimating the approximate time to complete them or participate:

In the case of course delivery change requests, the course demonstrates comparable rigor in meeting course learning outcomes.

Frequent, Varied Assignments/Assessments

For more information: <https://teaching.resources.osu.edu/teaching-topics/designing-assessments-student>

Student success in online courses is maximized when there are frequent, varied learning activities. Possible approaches:

Opportunities for students to receive course information through a variety of different sources, including indirect sources, such as textbooks and lectures, and direct sources, such as scholarly resources and field observation

Variety of assignment formats to provide students with multiple means of demonstrating learning

Opportunities for students to apply course knowledge and skills to authentic, real-world tasks in assignments

Community Building

For more information: <https://teaching.resources.osu.edu/teaching-topics/student-interaction-online>

Students engage more fully in courses when they have an opportunity to interact with their peers and feel they are part of a community of learners. Possible approaches:

Opportunities for students to interact academically with classmates through regular class discussion or group assignments

Opportunities for students to interact socially with classmates, such as through video conference sessions or a course Q&A forum

Attention is paid to other ways to minimize transactional distance (psychological and communicative gaps between students and their peers, instructor, course content, and institution)

Transparency and Metacognitive Explanations

For more information: <https://teaching.resources.osu.edu/teaching-topics/supporting-student-learning-your>

Students have successful, meaningful experiences when they understand how the components of a course connect together, when they have guidance on how to study, and when they are encouraged to take ownership of their learning. Possible approaches:

Instructor explanations about the learning goals and overall design or organization of the course

Context or rationale to explain the purpose and relevance of major tasks and assignments

Guidance or resources for ancillary skills necessary to complete assignments, such as conducting library research or using technology tools

Opportunities for students to take ownership or leadership in their learning, such as by choosing topics of interest for an assignment or leading a group discussion or meeting

Opportunities for students to reflect on their learning process, including their goals, study strategies, and progress

Opportunities for students to provide feedback on the course
