Good afternoon,

On Monday, March 21st, the Arts and Humanities 1 Panel of the ASC Curriculum Committee reviewed a distance learning proposal for History 4625.

The Panel unanimously approved the request with one recommendation:

- Recommendation: The Panel recommends providing more information in the course syllabus regarding the course essays, such as if they must be submitted in single or double space, formatting preferences, etc.

History 4625 will continue through the approval process.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to reach out to David Staley, faculty Chair of the Arts and Humanities 1 Panel, or myself.

Best,
Michael

I acknowledge that the land that The Ohio State University occupies is the ancestral and contemporary territory of the Shawnee, Potawatomi, Delaware, Miami, Peoria, Seneca, Wyandotte, Ojibwe and Cherokee peoples. Specifically, the university resides on land ceded in the 1795 Treaty of Greeneville and the forced removal of tribes through the Indian Removal Act of 1830. I honor the resiliency of these tribal nations and recognize the historical contexts that has and continues to affect the Indigenous peoples of this land.
