Good morning,

On Friday, March 10th, the Themes 1 Panel of the ASC Curriculum Committee reviewed a GEN Theme: Citizenship for a Diverse and Just World proposal for Sociology 3302.

The Panel did not vote on the proposal at this time. They ask that the following feedback be addressed:

- The reviewing faculty thank the instructor for the revisions provided. However, at this time, they are unable to approve the revision. They ask that the course more thoroughly engage with the GEN Theme: Citizenship for a Diverse and Just World Goals and ELOs, as they are not convinced that Citizenship is addressed within the course to a level that warrants inclusion within the Theme. More specifically, they also ask that ELO 4.1 be more explicitly engaged throughout the entirety of the course, as they were unable to see where this ELO was addressed.
- Birgitte Soland, faculty Chair of the Theme Advisory Group: Citizenship for a Diverse and Just World, extends the opportunity for the course proposer to have a discussion with the Theme Advisory Group, should they find this useful. Please email her at Soland.1 if you would like to schedule a meeting with her and the Theme Advisory Group.

I will return Sociology 3302 to the departmental queue via curriculum.osu.edu in order to address the Panel's above feedback.

Should you have any questions regarding this feedback, please do not hesitate to reach out to Birgitte Soland, faculty Chair of the Theme Advisory Group: Citizenship for a Diverse and Just World, or me.

All my best,
Michael
