Dr. Hedgecoth -

Good morning! I am pleased to inform you that the revisions to the musicology courses in all degrees and majors offered by the School of Music were approved by the Arts and Humanities 1 Panel of the Arts and Sciences Curriculum Committee today (formal feedback will follow this email in a few days.) However, since we are very close to the end of the academic year, I wanted to go ahead and reach out about next steps. The revision will next be reviewed by the full ASCC. The last 2021-22 meeting of the ASCC is scheduled for Friday, May 6th, 9:00-11:00AM. It is customary to invite the appropriate faculty representative to come talk to ASCC about a program revision and answer any questions the committee members might have. Could you please let us know if you will be able to attend the ASCC on that day? The meeting will take place on Zoom. We have other guests with agenda items that will be discussed first, but we estimate that the committee might discuss your proposal around 9:40 AM. Thanks in advance for letting us know if you're able to make it at that time.

Best,
Rachel

I acknowledge that the land that The Ohio State University occupies is the ancestral and contemporary territory of the Shawnee, Potawatomi, Delaware, Miami, Peoria, Seneca, Wyandotte, Ojibwe and Cherokee peoples. Specifically, the university resides on land ceded in the 1795 Treaty of Greenville and the forced removal of tribes through the Indian Removal Act of 1830. I honor the resiliency of these tribal nations and recognize the historical contexts that has and continues to affect the Indigenous peoples of this land.
