Good afternoon Beth and MaryKatherine,

On Wednesday, September 7th, the Arts and Humanities 1 Panel reviewed a new course request for English 3011.02. Please see below for the Panel's feedback.

English 3011.02 was unanimously approved with one contingency and one recommendation:

- Contingency: The Panel ask that curriculum maps be provided for any major concentrations that this course can fit within. The provided documents labeled as curriculum maps are advising sheets and not a curriculum map, which provides a plan for how a course will meet major-specific outcomes.
- Recommendation: The Panel recommends providing a bibliography of all course readings and texts in the course syllabus for the benefit of students enrolled in the course.

I will return English 3011.02 to the departmental queue via curriculum.osu.edu in order to address the Panel's feedback.

Should you have any questions regarding this feedback, please do not hesitate to reach out to David Staley, faculty Chair of the Arts and Humanities 1 Panel, or myself.

All my best,
Michael

I acknowledge that the land that The Ohio State University occupies is the ancestral and contemporary territory of the Shawnee, Potawatomi, Delaware, Miami, Peoria, Seneca, Wyandotte, Ojibwe and Cherokee peoples. Specifically, the university resides on land ceded in the 1795 Treaty of Greeneville and the forced removal of tribes through the Indian Removal Act of 1830. I honor the resiliency of these tribal nations and recognize the historical contexts that has and continues to affect the Indigenous peoples of this land.
