Hi Michael,

I need to run this by Maurice Stevens, who created the course. I'll get back to you as soon as I hear from him.

Good afternoon Mark Anthony, Barry, and Spencer,

As my office was looking to advance these courses to OAA, we noticed that the course title on the Comparative Studies version of the course in curriculum.osu.edu also utilizes the title "Intersections: New Approaches to Theorizing Difference".

Would Comparative Studies be okay with my office removing the "New" to keep the course title in-line with AAAS and WGSS? If so, please let me know, and my office will handle that minor change and advance the courses.

Thank you for letting me know!

All my best,
Michael

I acknowledge that the land that The Ohio State University occupies is the ancestral and contemporary territory of the Shawnee, Potawatomi, Delaware, Miami, Peoria, Seneca, Wyandotte, Ojibwe and Cherokee peoples. Specifically, the university resides on land ceded in the 1795 Treaty of Greenville and the forced removal of tribes through the Indian Removal Act of 1830. I honor the resiliency of these tribal nations and recognize the historical contexts that has and continues to affect the Indigenous peoples of this land.

Subject: WGSS, AAAS, Comparative Studies 4921 - Response Required

Good morning,

On Friday, January 27th, the Themes 1 Panel of the ASC Curriculum Committee reviewed a GEN

Theme: Citizenship for a Diverse and Just World request for WGSS/AAAS/Comparative Studies 4921.
Please see below for their feedback.

I am pleased to report that the Panel unanimously approved the request with one comment they would like for the department to address:

- The WGSS version of the course has the course title of “Intersections: New Approaches to Theorizing Difference” while the AAAS and Comparative Studies versions have the course title of “Intersections: Approaches to Theorizing Difference”. Given that these are cross-listed courses, they are required to have the same title.

Will the departments work together to decide upon a title of the course and reply to this email to let me know your decision? This is an administrative issue that my office can handle directly, so we do not need to send the courses back to your respective departments. Once we have your decision, my office will make that change and advance the courses to OAA.

Should you have any questions regarding this change, please do not hesitate to reach out to Jim Fredal, faculty Chair of the ASCC Themes 1 Panel, Birgitte Soland, faculty Chair of the Theme Advisory Group: Citizenship for a Diverse and Just World, or me.

All my best,
Michael
