Good morning,

On Wednesday, October 5th, the Arts and Humanities 1 Panel reviewed a level-change request, title change, and increase in credit hours request for German 3798.02. Please see below for the Panel's feedback.

The Panel unanimously approved the request with one contingency:

- Contingency: The Panel finds this course to be an excellent study abroad course and would like to utilize this as a model syllabus going forward for the language departments on how to craft a 4-credit hour study abroad. However, they ask that the department/instructor reach out to Bernadette Vankeerbergen, ASC Assistant Dean for Curriculum, to more thoroughly show that this course meets the 4-credit hour standard for study abroad. While the Panel believes this course will hit the minimum requirements, the syllabus and the credit hour rationale currently only appear to be accounting for 3-credit hours of work.

I will return German 3798.02 to the departmental queue via curriculum.osu.edu in order to address the Panel's feedback above. Please note that once the Arts and Humanities 1 Panel's contingency has been satisfied, it will then move to the ASCC Themes Panel for consideration of its requested GEN Theme and High-Impact Practice.

Should you have any questions regarding this feedback, please do not hesitate to reach out to David Staley, faculty Chair of the Arts and Humanities 1 Panel, or me.

All my best,
Michael

I acknowledge that the land that The Ohio State University occupies is the ancestral and contemporary territory of the Shawnee, Potawatomi, Delaware, Miami, Peoria, Seneca, Wyandotte, Ojibwe and Cherokee peoples. Specifically, the university resides on land ceded in the 1795 Treaty of Greenville and the forced removal of tribes through the Indian Removal Act of 1830. I honor the resiliency of these tribal nations and recognize the historical contexts that has and continues to affect the Indigenous peoples of this land.
