Good morning,

On Tuesday, October 25th, the Themes 2 Panel of the ASC Curriculum Committee reviewed a new GEN Theme: Migration, Mobility and Immobility request for Comparative Studies 4597.03.

I am pleased to report that the Panel unanimously approved the request with one contingency:

- Contingency: The reviewing faculty ask that the course syllabus include all information (Goals, ELOs, and brief rationale paragraph) for the course's approved legacy General Education (GEL) categories. As a reminder, Comparative Studies 4597.03 is approved for GEL categories Cross-Disciplinary Seminar and Diversity – Global Studies and the GEL Goals and ELOs can be found on the ASC Curriculum and Assessment Services website at: <https://ascas.osu.edu/legacy-general-education-gel-goals-and-elos>.

I will return Comparative Studies 4597.03 to the departmental queue via curriculum.osu.edu in order to address the Panel's above feedback.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to reach out to Bill Putikka, faculty Chair of the ASCC Themes 2 Panel, or me.

All my best,
Michael

I acknowledge that the land that The Ohio State University occupies is the ancestral and contemporary territory of the Shawnee, Potawatomi, Delaware, Miami, Peoria, Seneca, Wyandotte, Ojibwe and Cherokee peoples. Specifically, the university resides on land ceded in the 1795 Treaty of Greenville and the forced removal of tribes through the Indian Removal Act of 1830. I honor the resiliency of these tribal nations and recognize the historical contexts that has and continues to affect the Indigenous peoples of this land.
