Good evening,

On Tuesday, April 18th, the Themes II Panel of the ASC Curriculum Committee and the Theme Advisory Group: Traditions, Cultures and Transformations reviewed a course proposal for History 3580.

The reviewing faculty unanimously approved the request with one recommendation:

- i. Recommendation: The reviewing faculty recommend that the department include in the syllabus more information about how the course's readings, topics, and assignments will connect explicitly to the goals and ELOs. For example, according to the GEN Submission Form, the idea of anti-colonialism plays a large role in how ELO's 2.1 and 3.2 are met, but this concept is not named on the syllabus or addressed in the course assignments.

As a reminder, recommendations (in italics above) should be implemented when the course is next taught.

History 3580 will continue through the approval process.

Should you have any questions about the feedback of the Panel, please feel free to contact Ila Nagar, Heather Tanner (faculty Chairs of the Themes II Panel and the Theme Advisory Group: Traditions, Cultures and Transformations [respectively]; cc'd on this e-mail), or me.

Best,
Rachel

I acknowledge that the land that The Ohio State University occupies is the ancestral and contemporary territory of the Shawnee, Potawatomi, Delaware, Miami, Peoria, Seneca, Wyandotte, Ojibwe and Cherokee peoples. Specifically, the university resides on land ceded in the 1795 Treaty of Greenville and the forced removal of tribes through the Indian Removal Act of 1830. I honor the resiliency of these tribal nations and recognize the historical contexts that has and continues to affect the Indigenous peoples of this land.
