Please return this form and any attachments to Todd Bitters, bitters.4@osu.edu, no later than MARCH 1.

Shaun Russell is a Senior Lecturer in the English department, where he predominantly teaches Writing and Information Literacy (formerly First-year Composition) and other General Education courses. While his research interests engage with Renaissance literature, particularly the relationship between seventeenth century women poets and publication, he is a generalist at heart, dedicated to teaching a broad range of topics. So far, he has one academic publication in George Herbert Journal and another in progress. As a Ph.D. student, he received the Outstanding Graduate Teaching award for Second-year Writing in 2020 after teaching the course theme of Character and Characterization. While at University of Maryland, he also received both an Academic Writing Program service award, and the Kinnaird essay prize for the best essay by an M.A. student in English. Beyond composition courses, he has also taught intro courses on poetry, fiction, and Shakespeare, and on two occasions was a TA for the large seminar on English Literature before 1800. Most pertinent to this proposal is that since 2018, he has taught ten sections of English 1110, and one section of English 2367.01 with a thematic focus on music and meaning, which has proven to be a fruitful topic for student writing—one that has increasingly led to unique and rewarding insights about the power of music, and its engagement with social justice.

ARTSCI 1137.xx: Music and Social Justice

Course: ARTSCI 1137.xx
Credits: 1
Grading: A-E
Classroom: TBA
Class time: TBA (Once a week for the full semester)
Office hours: TBA
Office loc.: 573 Denney Hall
Professor: Dr. Shaun James Russell
Contact: russell.1131@osu.edu

Course Description

Course Theme: Music and Social Justice

Course Description: In modern history, popular music has traditionally been a form of entertainment, often enjoyed and appreciated passively without requiring serious engagement on the part of the listener. Yet during periods of social upheaval and unrest, some songs have put their finger on the pulse of large-scale societal issues, elevating the passive listening experience to a call to action, with listeners being urged to help right certain wrongs. In this course, we will be exploring a wide range of songs that have engaged with many of the issues our country (among others) has grappled with over the past century or so, including, but not limited to: civil rights, race relations, war, famine, poverty, immigration, sexuality, and inequality. While I will choose many songs for discussion according to weekly themes, each student will also bring in one song and present on how it is meaningful in its intended context. Note that no pre-existing musical knowledge is necessary for this course—only a general awareness of popular music, and an appreciation for how music can help to aid social change.

Course Objectives

- To engage students in understanding the social context of multiple historical periods
- To illustrate how music has been used for expressions of social justice
- To build awareness of how forms of popular media can channel important issues
- To demonstrate interdisciplinarity by linking multiple discrete ASC fields such as history, sociology, and music

Required Materials

- A notebook / binder and writing utensil(s) for notes and potential exercises
- A laptop / tablet (ideally w/ earbuds or headphones) for listening to music, watching videos, and accessing Carmen in class

Assignments

Weekly Discussion Boards

30 points

Each week you will have a guided prompt on Carmen that relates to the weekly theme, and you will be expected to make a substantive post of at least 200 words. These discussion posts will often be used to kickstart the next week's discussion and help us segue into the main topic in class.

“Hear and Tell” Presentation

20 points

Each student will be required to find a song (or music video) that engages meaningfully with a topic related to social justice. The song will be played, and each student will then spend five minutes discussing key element of its social context, its history, its meaning (broadly defined), and other elements with a view toward fostering discussion among the class. The grade will be based in part on source relevance and the quality of the material presented (i.e. it will less about public speaking ability and more about content). A basic script / presentation notes will also be submitted.

Final Reflection Paper

20 points

This final paper will be approximately 1000 words (around three full double-spaced pages), and will require you to honestly reflect on what you have learned throughout the course, and how you might use what you've learned in other courses as well as your daily life. You will not be required to do new research for this paper or make an argument, but you should draw on the various assignments, posts, and discussions that have occurred over the semester to arrive at a sincere takeaway.

Participation

20 points

There is a reason why participation is 20% of the grade: a seminar simply cannot work without lively interactive discussion among all students. This grade encompasses your engagement in in-class discussion, your involvement in group work, and your overall attentiveness. It should be quite easy to get full marks, but it is not a given—you'll need to be actively invested in the class.

Attendance

10 points

Woody Allen has been quoted as saying “Eighty percent of success in life is just showing up.” In this class, the percentage is much lower. As with the Participation grade, you need to be in class to engage with discussions, and this portion of the grade reflects that fact. Missing the occasional class is fine, so long as you let me know in advance. Missing multiple classes without an excuse, however, will lower your attendance grade by two points per missed class.

Total:

100 points

Course Policies

Grading: This course uses a standard grade scale, but note that at the end of the course, if you find yourself half a point below the higher grade, I will round up (as seen below). Because of this lenient policy, note that grades are non-negotiable.

A: 92.5-100    A-: 89.5-92.5    B+: 86.5-89.5    B: 82.5-86.5    B-: 79.5-82.5    C+: 76.5-79.5

C: 72.5-76.5    C-: 69.5-72.5    D+: 66.5-69.5    D: 59.5-66.5    E/NP: 0-59.5

Student Work for all assignments should be submitted on Carmen by 11:59 PM on the day before each class session, unless otherwise indicated. Late submission of an assignment will result in the deduction of one full letter grade for each day past the due date (for example, B+ to C+). The grade will not be affected when an assignment is late for reasons that would result in an excused absence, but you need to email me before the due date for this to be allowed.

Discussion Posts are expected to be posted (and subsequently read) by all students prior to the pertinent class session. Knowing what one another wrote in advance of class will aid discussion.

Attendance is vital to your success in this class, given its seminar format and focus on discussion. That being said, I am also well aware that you may need to miss class for any number of reasons: illness, appointments, family matters, or sometimes for reasons that are simply none of my business. And that's fine! My absence policy is this: it is your responsibility to contact me via email as soon as possible if you must miss class, regardless of the reason. I'll consider it an "excused absence" if you let me know before class, but missing multiple classes without letting me know will result in unexcused absences that will detract from your Attendance grade.

Lateness is disruptive to the classroom environment, and prevents you from fully participating and absorbing the information and materials discussed in class. Since classes will typically start right on time, habitual lateness will lower your participation grade.

Electronic Devices: Laptops, tablets, smartphones, and various other electronic devices are encouraged in class, and are even necessary...but for academic purposes only. If class gets a little boring, it may be hard to resist checking your email, monitoring social media, or leveling up in your favorite MMORPG...but resist you must. Real talk here: in a small, discussion-based class like this, your distraction is always obvious to the professor and your fellow students.

Class Cancellation Policy: If class is cancelled due to weather, illness, or emergency, I will contact you via email and make an announcement on Carmen a.s.a.p. In addition, I will also contact you as soon as possible after the cancellation to convey any expectations of you for our next class meeting.

Office Hours/Communication: I strongly encourage you to make use of my office hours, which are listed at the top of this syllabus, though I ask you to let me know ahead of time (via email) if you plan on meeting—it allows me to prepare as needed. Even beyond those listed hours, I am open to meeting on Zoom at other times, as my schedule allows, so please don't hesitate to contact me. Also, I tend to be very responsive to email, so feel free to send along emails with any questions / comments etc. at your leisure, and I should get back to you fairly quickly.

Academic Misconduct: It is the responsibility of the Committee on Academic Misconduct to investigate or establish procedures for the investigation of all reported cases of student academic misconduct. The term "academic misconduct" includes all forms of student academic misconduct wherever committed; illustrated by, but not limited to, cases of plagiarism and dishonest practices in connection with examinations. Instructors shall report all instances of alleged academic misconduct to the committee (Faculty Rule 3335-5-487). For additional information, see the Code of Student Conduct <http://studentlife.osu.edu/csc/>.

Accessibility: The University strives to make all learning experiences as accessible as possible. In light of the current pandemic, students seeking to request COVID-related accommodations may do so through the university's request process, managed by Student Life Disability Services. If you anticipate or experience academic barriers based on your disability (including mental health, chronic or temporary medical conditions), please let me know immediately so that we can privately discuss options. To establish reasonable accommodations, I may request that you register with Student Life Disability Services. After registration, make arrangements with me as soon as possible to discuss your accommodations so that they may be implemented in a timely fashion. ### Resources

COVID-19 Safety Statement: To ensure a safe living, learning, and working environment for all Ohio State Buckeyes, please continue checking the University's Safe and Healthy Buckeyes webpage for updates on COVID-19 policies. As of this semester, masks are optional in the classroom, but as a class, we will continue to follow university guidance on pandemic safety policies. I will help to guide you through any possible significant changes to the class and/or semester.

Counseling and Consultation Services: As a student you may experience a range of issues that can cause barriers to learning, such as strained relationships, increased anxiety, alcohol/drug problems, feeling down, difficulty concentrating and/or lack of motivation. These mental health concerns or stressful events may lead to diminished academic performance or reduce a student's ability to participate in daily activities. The Ohio State University offers services to assist you with addressing these and other concerns you may be experiencing. If you or someone you know are suffering from any of the aforementioned conditions, you can learn more about the broad range of confidential mental health services available on campus via the Office of Student Life's Counseling and Consultation Service (CCS) by visiting ccs.osu.edu or calling 614-292-5766. CCS is located on the 4th Floor of the Younkin Success Center and 10th Floor of Lincoln Tower. You can reach an on-call counselor when CCS is closed at 614-292-5766 and 24 hour emergency help is also available through the 24/7 National Suicide Prevention Hotline at 1-800-273-TALK or at suicidepreventionlifeline.org. Additional 24-hour crisis services include NetCare Access (614) 276-2273 and OSU Hospital Emergency Department (614) 293-8333.

Student Advocacy Center: The Student Advocacy Center is committed to helping students navigate Ohio State's structure and to resolving issues that they encounter at the university. Their office is located at 001 Drackett Tower, 191 W. Lane Ave., Columbus, OH 43210. Reach them by calling (614) 292-1111 or by emailing advocacy@osu.edu

Title IX makes it clear that violence and harassment based on sex and gender are Civil Rights offenses subject to the same kinds of accountability and the same kinds of support applied to offenses against other protected categories (e.g., race). If you or someone you know has been sexually harassed or assaulted, you may find the appropriate resources at <http://titleix.osu.edu> or by contacting the Ohio State Title IX Coordinator at titleix@osu.edu.

ELECTRONIC RECORD AND SIGNATURE DISCLOSURE

From time to time, The Ohio State University (we, us or Company) may be required by law to provide to you certain written notices or disclosures. Described below are the terms and conditions for providing to you such notices and disclosures electronically through the DocuSign system. Please read the information below carefully and thoroughly, and if you can access this information electronically to your satisfaction and agree to this Electronic Record and Signature Disclosure (ERSD), please confirm your agreement by selecting the check-box next to 'I agree to use electronic records and signatures' before clicking 'CONTINUE' within the DocuSign system.

Getting paper copies

At any time, you may request from us a paper copy of any record provided or made available electronically to you by us. You will have the ability to download and print documents we send to you through the DocuSign system during and immediately after the signing session and, if you elect to create a DocuSign account, you may access the documents for a limited period of time (usually 30 days) after such documents are first sent to you. After such time, if you wish for us to send you paper copies of any such documents from our office to you, you will be charged a $0.00 per-page fee. You may request delivery of such paper copies from us by following the procedure described below.

Withdrawing your consent

If you decide to receive notices and disclosures from us electronically, you may at any time change your mind and tell us that thereafter you want to receive required notices and disclosures only in paper format. How you must inform us of your decision to receive future notices and disclosure in paper format and withdraw your consent to receive notices and disclosures electronically is described below.

Consequences of changing your mind

If you elect to receive required notices and disclosures only in paper format, it will slow the speed at which we can complete certain steps in transactions with you and delivering services to you because we will need first to send the required notices or disclosures to you in paper format, and then wait until we receive back from you your acknowledgment of your receipt of such paper notices or disclosures. Further, you will no longer be able to use the DocuSign system to receive required notices and consents electronically from us or to sign electronically documents from us.

All notices and disclosures will be sent to you electronically

Unless you tell us otherwise in accordance with the procedures described herein, we will provide electronically to you through the DocuSign system all required notices, disclosures, authorizations, acknowledgements, and other documents that are required to be provided or made available to you during the course of our relationship with you. To reduce the chance of you inadvertently not receiving any notice or disclosure, we prefer to provide all of the required notices and disclosures to you by the same method and to the same address that you have given us. Thus, you can receive all the disclosures and notices electronically or in paper format through the paper mail delivery system. If you do not agree with this process, please let us know as described below. Please also see the paragraph immediately above that describes the consequences of your electing not to receive delivery of the notices and disclosures electronically from us.

How to contact The Ohio State University:

You may contact us to let us know of your changes as to how we may contact you electronically, to request paper copies of certain information from us, and to withdraw your prior consent to receive notices and disclosures electronically as follows:

To contact us by email send messages to: swisher.169@osu.edu

To advise The Ohio State University of your new email address

To let us know of a change in your email address where we should send notices and disclosures electronically to you, you must send an email message to us at swisher.169@osu.edu and in the body of such request you must state: your previous email address, your new email address. We do not require any other information from you to change your email address.

If you created a DocuSign account, you may update it with your new email address through your account preferences.

To request paper copies from The Ohio State University

To request delivery from us of paper copies of the notices and disclosures previously provided by us to you electronically, you must send us an email to esignature@osu.edu and in the body of such request you must state your email address, full name, mailing address, and telephone number. We will bill you for any fees at that time, if any.

To withdraw your consent with The Ohio State University

To inform us that you no longer wish to receive future notices and disclosures in electronic format you may:

- i. decline to sign a document from within your signing session, and on the subsequent page, select the check-box indicating you wish to withdraw your consent, or you may;
- ii. send us an email to swisher.169@osu.edu and in the body of such request you must state your email, full name, mailing address, and telephone number. We do not need any other information from you to withdraw consent.. The consequences of your withdrawing consent for online documents will be that transactions may take a longer time to process..

Required hardware and software

The minimum system requirements for using the DocuSign system may change over time. The current system requirements are found here: <https://support.docusign.com/guides/signer-guide-signing-system-requirements>.

Acknowledging your access and consent to receive and sign documents electronically

To confirm to us that you can access this information electronically, which will be similar to other electronic notices and disclosures that we will provide to you, please confirm that you have read this ERSD, and (i) that you are able to print on paper or electronically save this ERSD for your future reference and access; or (ii) that you are able to email this ERSD to an email address where you will be able to print on paper or save it for your future reference and access. Further, if you consent to receiving notices and disclosures exclusively in electronic format as described herein, then select the check-box next to ‘I agree to use electronic records and signatures’ before clicking ‘CONTINUE’ within the DocuSign system.

By selecting the check-box next to ‘I agree to use electronic records and signatures’, you confirm that:

- You can access and read this Electronic Record and Signature Disclosure; and
- You can print on paper this Electronic Record and Signature Disclosure, or save or send this Electronic Record and Disclosure to a location where you can print it, for future reference and access; and
- Until or unless you notify The Ohio State University as described above, you consent to receive exclusively through electronic means all notices, disclosures, authorizations, acknowledgements, and other documents that are required to be provided or made available to you by The Ohio State University during the course of your relationship with The Ohio State University.
