Hi Michael,

Thanks for reaching out.

Neither ANTHROP 5685 nor 5686 will fulfill the Embedded Literacy Advanced Writing. All of the other ANTHROP courses listed on pages 19-20 of the pdf will fulfill the Advanced Writing: 3401, 5603, 5608, 5609, 5610, 5642, 5651, and 5700.

Both ANTHROP 2200 and 3504 can fulfill the Embedded Literacy Technology.

Let me know if you have any additional questions!

Thanks,
Cameron

Good afternoon Debbie, Sarah, and Cameron,

I hope this email finds you well! My office is taking care of some end-of-semester housekeeping, and we noticed a couple of small discrepancies in the embedded literacy requirements for the new Forensic Anthropology BS.

In the materials that were approved when the major was created, page 17 of the PDF lists ANTHROP 3504 as the required Embedded Literacy Technology requirement. However, in the supplied advising sheet (appendix A, on page 24 of the PDF), it seems to indicate that ANTHROP 2200 is being utilized to fulfill the Embedded Literacy Technology requirement. Please see here for the document that I am referencing:

https://ascnet.osu.edu/storage/request\_documents/5510/Forensic%20Anthropology%20Major.pdf

Additionally, in the materials that were approved when the major was created, page 20 of the PDF, there is mention that ANTHROP 5685 Summer Field School can fulfill the Embedded Literacy Advanced Writing Requirement. However, on the advising sheet (appendix A, page 24), this does not appear.

Would you mind clarifying for me what course(s) the department is utilizing to fulfill the Embedded Literacy Technology and Embedded Literacy Advanced Writing requirements for the Forensic Anthropology BS?

Thank you!

All my best,
Michael
