Good evening,

On Tuesday, April 18th, the Themes II Panel of the Arts and Sciences Curriculum Committee and the Theme Advisory Group: Traditions, Cultures and Transformations reviewed a course proposal for History 3375.

The reviewing faculty unanimously approved the request; History 3375 will continue through the approval process.

Should you have any questions about the feedback of the Panel, please feel free to contact Heather Tanner (faculty Chair of the Theme Advisory Group: Traditions, Cultures and Transformations; cc'd on this e-mail), or me.

Best,
Rachel

I acknowledge that the land that The Ohio State University occupies is the ancestral and contemporary territory of the Shawnee, Potawatomi, Delaware, Miami, Peoria, Seneca, Wyandotte, Ojibwe and Cherokee peoples. Specifically, the university resides on land ceded in the 1795 Treaty of Greenville and the forced removal of tribes through the Indian Removal Act of 1830. I honor the resiliency of these tribal nations and recognize the historical contexts that has and continues to affect the Indigenous peoples of this land.
