Good afternoon,

On Tuesday, February 14th, the Themes II Panel of the ASC Curriculum Committee reviewed a course proposal for History 3375.

The Panel did not vote on the proposal as they would like the following points addressed:

- i. The reviewing faculty ask that the department demonstrate (in both the syllabus and the GE Form) a clearer connection between the course assignments and readings and the expected learning outcomes for the theme.

I will return History 3375 to the department queue via curriculum.osu.edu in order to address the Panel's requests.

Should you have any questions about the feedback of the Panel, please feel free to contact Bill Putikka and/or Heather Tanner (faculty Chair of the Themes II Panel and the TCT TAG, respectively; cc'd on this e-mail), or me.

Best,
Rachel

I acknowledge that the land that The Ohio State University occupies is the ancestral and contemporary territory of the Shawnee, Potawatomi, Delaware, Miami, Peoria, Seneca, Wyandotte, Ojibwe and Cherokee peoples. Specifically, the university resides on land ceded in the 1795 Treaty of Greenville and the forced removal of tribes through the Indian Removal Act of 1830. I honor the resiliency of these tribal nations and recognize the historical contexts that has and continues to affect the Indigenous peoples of this land.
