Good morning,

On Thursday, March 23rd, the Social and Behavioral Sciences Panel of the ASC Curriculum Committee reviewed a course proposal for a new First Year Seminar – I'm a Spatial Thinker, What About You From Dr. T.E. Parece.

The Panel unanimously approved the request with one recommendation:

- a. Recommendation: The Panel recommends that the department use the most up-to-date version of the Student Life Disabilities Services statement (syllabus pg. 3 under "Disability Services"). An up-to-date statement can be found here:
<https://ascas.osu.edu/curriculum/syllabus-elements>.

As a reminder, recommendations (in italics above) should be implemented when the course is next taught.

Todd Bitters, Director of the First-Year Seminar program, will be in touch with you for all the practical arrangements related to teaching the course.

Should you have any questions about the feedback of the Panel, please feel free to contact Christina Roup (faculty Chair of the SBS Panel; cc'd on this e-mail), or me.

Best,
Rachel

I acknowledge that the land that The Ohio State University occupies is the ancestral and contemporary territory of the Shawnee, Potawatomi, Delaware, Miami, Peoria, Seneca, Wyandotte, Ojibwe and Cherokee peoples. Specifically, the university resides on land ceded in the 1795 Treaty of Greeneville and the forced removal of tribes through the Indian Removal Act of 1830. I honor the resiliency of these tribal nations and recognize the historical contexts that has and continues to affect the Indigenous peoples of this land.
