Good evening,

On Thursday, March 23rd, the Social and Behavioral Sciences Panel of the ASC Curriculum Committee reviewed a course proposal for Sociology 7770.

The Panel unanimously approved the request with two contingencies and one recommendation:

- a. Contingency: The Panel asks that the department include in the syllabus the full Academic Misconduct statement mandated by the Arts and Sciences Curriculum Committee. The statement is available in an easy-to-copy/paste format here: <https://ascas.osu.edu/curriculum/syllabus-elements>.
- b. Contingency: The Panel asks that the department include in the syllabus the full Disability Services statement mandated by the Arts and Sciences Curriculum Committee. The statement is available in an easy-to-copy/paste format here: <https://ascas.osu.edu/curriculum/syllabus-elements>.
- c. Recommendation: The Panel recommends that the department provide a more detailed description of the instructor's expectations of students surrounding in-class participation (syllabus pg. 3), given that participation makes up such a large portion of students' grades.

As a reminder, contingencies (in bold above) must be addressed and resubmitted via curriculum.osu.edu before a course can move forward in the approval process. Recommendations (in italics above) should be implemented when the course is next taught. I will return Sociology 7770 to the department queue via curriculum.osu.edu in order to address the Panel's requests.

Should you have any questions about the feedback of the Panel, please feel free to contact Christina Roup (faculty Chair of the SBS Panel; cc'd on this e-mail), or me.

Best,
Rachel

I acknowledge that the land that The Ohio State University occupies is the ancestral and contemporary territory of the Shawnee, Potawatomi, Delaware, Miami, Peoria, Seneca, Wyandotte, Ojibwe and Cherokee peoples. Specifically, the university resides on land ceded in the 1795 Treaty of Greenville and the forced removal of tribes through the Indian Removal Act of 1830. I honor the resiliency of these tribal nations and recognize the historical contexts that has and continues to affect the Indigenous peoples of this land.
