Good afternoon,

The revisions to History of Art 4630 have been received and reviewed. Unfortunately, at this time, the contingency from the Subcommittee has not been fully satisfied.

While the religious accommodations statement has been added, and the Subcommittee thanks you for including this new, legally mandated syllabus statement, the required link has not been included in the syllabus. As a reminder, the "Policy: Religious Holidays, Holy Days and Observances" link is a required part of this statement and must be included at the end of the statement, again as this is a new legal mandate as required by the ORC.

I will return the proposal back to the department in order to allow you to add this required link (which can be copied and pasted from above or can be found on the ASC Curriculum and Assessment Services website).

Please let me know if you have any questions and thank you for including this new legal mandate within your syllabus.

All my best,
Michael

I acknowledge that the land that The Ohio State University occupies is the ancestral and contemporary territory of the Shawnee, Potawatomi, Delaware, Miami, Peoria, Seneca, Wyandotte, Ojibwe and Cherokee peoples. Specifically, the university resides on land ceded in the 1795 Treaty of Greenville and the forced removal of tribes through the Indian Removal Act of 1830. I honor the resiliency of these tribal nations and recognize the historical contexts that has and continues to affect the Indigenous peoples of this land.

Subject: History of Art 4630

Good morning,

On Monday, April 29th, the Themes II Subcommittee of the ASC Curriculum Committee reviewed a GEN Theme: Citizenship for a Diverse and Just World request for History of Art 4630.

I am pleased to report that the Subcommittee has unanimously approved the request with one contingency and two recommendations:

- Contingency: The reviewing faculty ask that the Religious Accommodation statement be updated within the course syllabus (as found on pages 5-6 of the syllabus). On March 1st, 2024, the Arts and Sciences Curriculum Committee updated the required statement to be in compliance with the new statement, which was provided by the Office of Undergraduate Education and vetted by the Office of Legal Affairs. Please note, the "Policy: Religious Holidays, Holy Days and Observations" link is a required element of the statement. The newly updated statement has been updated on the syllabus elements page of the ASC Curriculum and Assessment Services website.
- Recommendation: The reviewing faculty recommend providing the GEL Visual and Performing Arts Goals, ELOs, and explanatory paragraph within the course syllabus for the benefit of students remaining on the GEL program. The GEL Goals and ELOs can be found on the ASC Curriculum and Assessment Services website.
- Recommendation: The reviewing faculty recommend updating the Student Life – Disability Services statement (as found on page 5 of the syllabus), as it was recently updated for the 2023-2024 Academic Year. The most up-to-date statement can be found on the syllabus elements page of the ASC Curriculum and Assessment Services website.

I will return History of Art 4630 to the departmental queue via curriculum.osu.edu in order to address the Subcommittee's feedback.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to reach out to Birgitte Søland, faculty Chair of the Theme Advisory Group: Citizenship for a Diverse and Just World, Ila Nagar, faculty Chair of the Themes II Subcommittee, or me.

All my best,

Michael
