Course Details

Course goals or learning objectives/outcomes

- Integrate informed analysis of contemporary issues with capstone studio work.
- Analyze conceptual and technical aspects of existing experiential media design projects.
- Identify ethical issues and stakeholder concerns.
- Discuss technical considerations and limitations.
- Research and distill writings and documentation on current experiential media design project in relationship to senior capstone project.
- Engage in informed discussion about experiential media design.

Content Topic List

- Technology development; technical innovation; current trends; critical analysis; decision making; accessible technologies; technology ethics; role of the designer; creative relationships; design for engagement; proceedings reading

Semester	Spring 2028
Location/Time	room/building, meets 2x/week for 80 minutes each meeting
Format	Seminar, 3 credits
Prerequisites	Design 4806 or permission of instructor
Description	Advanced analysis of contemporary experiential media design across the spectrum of producers. Focuses on advanced research methods for identifying, analyzing, and comparing current issues and working design processes pertinent to design, media and technology contexts through readings, writings, discussions, and viewings of existing and emerging work by those in related fields.

Course Goals

Upon completion of this course, students should be able to do the following:

1. Integrate informed analysis of contemporary issues with capstone studio work
2. Analyze conceptual and technical aspects of existing experiential media design projects
3. Identify ethical issues and stakeholder concerns
4. Discuss technical considerations and limitations
5. Research and distill writings and documentation on current experiential media design project in relationship to senior capstone project
6. Engage in informed and critical discussion about experiential media design

Associated Program Learning Outcomes

1. Critical Thinking and Analysis:

- a. Evaluate works of creative technology in terms of their formal, conceptual, ethical, historical, and social impacts. Associated course goals: (1),(2),(3) and (4)
- b. Apply fundamental critical thinking skills to the analysis and interpretation of experiential media projects with particular attention to user-centered practices. Associated course goals: (5) and (6)
- c. Appraise the context and implication of one's own work with regard to social responsibility. Associated course goals: (1) and (6)
- d. Organize and represent content structures in ways that are responsive to technological, social, and cultural systems. Associated course goals: (2) and (5)
- e. Correlate what is useful, usable, effective, and desirable with respect to user/ audience-centered digitally and physically based experiences. Associated course goals: (2)and (3)

2. Adaptability:

- a. Anticipate and adapt to new technologies, concepts, and processes in experiential media creation. Associated course goals: (1) and (2)

3. Professional Practice:

- a. Employ both verbal and visual aspects of communication in the presentation of resulting creative works. Associated course goals: (6)
- b. Present and defend work from an informed conceptual, ethical, historical, and social point of view. Associated course goals: (6)

Course Methodology

This seminar course employs instructional methods such as, but not limited to, intensive discussion, reading primary literature, and individual or group presentations.

In this seminar we will focus on specific and contemporary areas of the field of experiential media design to enrich and inform students' awareness and understanding of new technologies, concepts, and processes in experiential media creation.

Discussion will be a significant part of the in-person part of the course (2 hours/week). The expectation of discussion is that it is lively, rigorous, fluid and collaborative.

Assignments will consist of weekly readings and/or viewings, short response papers and a contextual paper reflecting on course topics in relationship to the student's current studio project.

For a 3-credit course, students should expect to spend 2 hours/week in-person, in-class, and 7 hours a week on reading, viewing and analytical writing.

Specific content topics will be determined on an annual basis to take advantage of new and emerging XMD projects, case studies and scholarly writings about them and the field.

Assignments

Readings and Viewings:

Weekly readings and/or viewings will be assigned a week prior to their due date. Students should complete the readings and or viewings with enough time to complete a thoughtful response writing that addresses the affiliated response question posed by the instructor.

Response Writings.....35 points

These writings are short (500 words) but thoughtful responses to the prior week's assigned readings and/or viewings. For each response writing, the instructor will pose a question to guide you in this writing. This writing should also help to prepare students for a rigorous in-class discussion about the topic.

Discussion Contribution.....30 points

Evaluation is based on listening attentively to the instructor and to colleagues; contributing answers and asking questions; using reasonably good evidence from the text and plausible, coherent explanations; concede to better points and arguments and, at the same time, make reasonable attempts to persuade instructor and peers.

Capstone Contextual Paper.....35 points

A ~1250-word contextual paper will be completed for the class, due at the end of the semester. This paper assignment asks the senior student to correlate their current capstone projects with one or more of the topics/readings or viewings to contextualize their own work in relationship to the work of others. In Week 10, students will be asked to submit their topic proposal for this paper and will receive feedback from the instructor on the proposed topic.

See Calendar of Topics and Assignment Briefs for further details.

Reading and Viewing Materials

Students will receive reading and viewing materials during the semester via Carmen. There will be an assortment of current journal articles, conference proceedings, short papers, and media to view covering a wide range of experiential media projects, emerging developments in the field and related materials.

Grading

Evaluations for each project deliverable will consist of a numerical grade following the grading scale listed below.:

Grading Scale

A+ (97–100), A (93–96), A- (90–92)
B+ (87–89), B (83–86), B- (80–82)
C+ (77–79), C (73–76), C- (70–72)
D+ (67–69), D (65–66), E (below 65)

Work evaluations fall within four equally weighted categories. Excellence in each of these categories constitutes a grade of “A”: Degree of exploration • Degree of resolution • Quality, depth, and synthesis of research • On-time completion.

Grading Policy

To receive a passing grade in the course, students must demonstrate satisfactory achievement of course learning objectives through fulfillment of course assignments and by contributing to class discussions. Adherence to deadlines is expected. It is the individual student's responsibility to keep track of the goals and deadlines and to present the work to the class and instructor on the specified dates. All assignments must be completed and turned in to receive a passing grade in the course.

Late or missed goals will be graded as follows:

- An assignment turned in after the original due date but by the start of the next class will have the grade reduced 10%
- An assignment turned in after the original due date and after the subsequent next class start time but before the start time of the 3rd subsequent class (1 week) will have the grade reduced 30%
- Late assignments turned in more than 4 classes (2 weeks) past the original due date will receive a grade (D).

Attendance Policy

All students are required to be on time and in attendance for each class. Arrive less than 10 minutes late to be counted as present. Four (4) absences will lower a final grade by 1/3 a letter. Five (5) absences will lower a final grade by one letter. Six (6) absences will result in a failing grade ("E") for the course. The need for excused absences should be discussed with the instructor (e.g., your own illness, family illness or death, conference presentations) Do not come to class if you are feeling ill, have a temperature or have been told to isolate or quarantine. Let me know if you are ill and you will be excused without penalty.

Disability Services

The University strives to make all learning experiences as accessible as possible. If you anticipate or experience academic barriers based on your disability (including mental health, chronic or temporary medical conditions), please let me know immediately so that we can privately discuss options. To establish reasonable accommodation, I request that you register with Student Life Disability Services. After registration, make arrangements with me as soon as possible to discuss your accommodation so that they may be implemented in a timely fashion. SLDS contact information: slds@osu.edu; 614-292-3307; slds.osu.edu; 098 Baker Hall, 113 W. 12th Avenue.

Help for Distressed Students

A recent American College Health Survey found stress, sleep problems, anxiety, depression, interpersonal concerns, death of a significant other, and alcohol use among the top ten health impediments to academic performance. Students experiencing personal problems or situational crises during the semester are encouraged to contact the OSU Counseling and Consultation Service (614-292-5766; www.ccs.osu.edu) for assistance, support, and advocacy. This service is free and confidential.

Religious Statement

Our inclusive environment allows for religious expression. Students requesting accommodations based on faith, religious or a spiritual belief system in regard to examinations, other academic requirements, or absences, are required to provide the instructor with written notice of specific dates for which the student requests alternative accommodations at the earliest possible date. For more information about religious accommodations at Ohio State, visit odi.osu.edu/religious-accommodations.

Academic Misconduct Statement

It is the responsibility of the Committee on Academic Misconduct to investigate or establish procedures for the investigation of all reported cases of student academic misconduct. The term “academic misconduct” includes all forms of student academic misconduct wherever committed; illustrated by, but not limited to, cases of plagiarism and dishonest practices in connection with examinations. Instructors shall report all instances of alleged academic misconduct to the committee (Faculty Rule 3335-5- 487). For additional information, see the Code of Student Conduct <http://studentlife.osu.edu/csc/>.

Calendar of Topics and Assignments

Note: All topics and readings listed are examples of types of topics and readings for this course. An updated topic and reading list will be curated when this course is offered in Spring 2028 to address contemporary issues.

Week 1

Weekly Discussion Topic: Introduction, Overview, Resources, Expectations

Assigned Readings and Viewing for Next Week:

Chapter 1

The Biography of the Pixel. Alvy Ray Smith. Leonardo. The MIT Press. Cambridge, MA 2021.

Chapter 1

Image Objects An Archaeology of Computer Graphics. Jacob Gaboury. The MIT Press. Cambridge, MA. 2021

Week 2

Weekly Discussion Topic: How and why various technologies were developed

Deliverables: Studio Contextual Paper

The Ohio State University
College of the Arts and Sciences Concurrence Form

The purpose of this form is to provide a simple system of obtaining departmental reactions to course requests. An e-mail may be substituted for this form.

An academic unit initiating a request should complete Section A of this form and send a copy of the form, course request, and syllabus to each of the academic units that might have related interests in the course. Units should be allowed two weeks to respond to requests for concurrence.

Academic units receiving this form should respond to Section B and return the form to the initiating unit. Overlap of course content and other problems should be resolved by the academic units before this form and all other accompanying documentation may be forwarded to the Office of Academic Affairs.

A. Proposal to review

Department of Design

Initiating Academic Unit	Course Number	Course Title
New major proposal and ten new courses			8/1/2023
Type of Proposal (New, Change, Withdrawal, or other)			Date request sent
ACCAD			8/15/2023
Academic Unit Asked to Review			Date response needed

B. Response from the Academic Unit reviewing

Response: include a reaction to the proposal, including a statement of support or non-support (continued on the back of this form or a separate sheet, if necessary).

ACCAD grants concurrence for Design's new major XMD based on agreements outlined in email exchanges in early May 2023 between Design and ACCAD. Basically, Design will be financing a lecturer who will duplicate Kyoung's ACCAD 5002 course. This will not happen until the first XMD cohorts reaches their 3d year, Design will see if 5301 is also impacted (can we add capacity or do we need to duplicate). More details in the emails.

Subject: Concurrence request

Dear Chairs and Directors,

The Department of Design is seeking your department's concurrence for a new Bachelor of Science in Design (BSD) program in Experiential Media Design (XMD).

The purpose of the undergraduate design program in Experiential Media Design (XMD) is to prepare designers in conceptualizing and constructing engaging and compelling user experiences through innovative, playful and collaborative creative media practices. Over the course of their studies, students become adept at aligning the principles of design with the construction of immersive experiences that engage people. Students learn to harness and apply the latest media technologies in ways that are uniquely tailored to the needs and requirements of each experience and its stakeholders.

For your review, I have attached the program proposal for the new major and syllabi for the ten new associated courses in the Department of Design, they are:

- DESIGN_XMDProgramProposal.pdf
- DESIGN_XMDNewCourses.pdf

I have also attached the College's fillable .pdf concurrence form if you would like to use that, or an email may be substituted for this form.

I would appreciate it if you would email your responses/concurrences to Dr. Mary Anne Beecher (beecher.17@osu.edu), the Department of Design Undergraduate Studies Chair. Responses are due by Tuesday, August 15, 2023. Concurrence will be assumed if no response is received within two weeks.

Thank you for your attention to this request, and thank you for your partnership,

Fabienne

Dear Fabienne,

We appreciate the recent discussions and concur.

In what will now be an action item on our side, we'll reflect on alternatives for reviving gentler introductions to programming that already on books or offering other pathways for students, but this won't restrict what you're seeking concurrence for at the moment.
