Good afternoon,

On Monday, November 6th, the Arts and Humanities 1 Subcommittee of the ASC Curriculum Committee reviewed a new course proposal for Russian 3750.

I am pleased to report that the Subcommittee unanimously approved the request with one recommendation:

- Recommendation: The reviewing faculty offer the friendly recommendation to update the Student Life – Disability Services statement in the course syllabus, as it was recently updated for the 2023-24 academic year, as well as the Mental Health statement. The most up-to-date statements can be found here on the ASC Curriculum and Assessment website.

Russian 3750 will continue through the approval process. My office will advance the proposal to the GEN Foundation: Race, Ethnicity and Gender Diversity Subcommittee for REGD review.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to reach out to David Staley, faculty Chair of the Arts and Humanities 1 Subcommittee, or me.

All my best,
Michael

I acknowledge that the land that The Ohio State University occupies is the ancestral and contemporary territory of the Shawnee, Potawatomi, Delaware, Miami, Peoria, Seneca, Wyandotte, Ojibwe and Cherokee peoples. Specifically, the university resides on land ceded in the 1795 Treaty of Greenville and the forced removal of tribes through the Indian Removal Act of 1830. I honor the resiliency of these tribal nations and recognize the historical contexts that has and continues to affect the Indigenous peoples of this land.
