Good morning,

On Friday, December 8th, the Race, Ethnicity and Gender Diversity Subcommittee of the ASC Curriculum Committee reviewed a course proposal for Russian 3750.

The Subcommittee unanimously approved the request with one contingency and two recommendations:

- a. Contingency: The Subcommittee asks that the department amend the course description in curriculum.osu.edu (under "General Information") to include some mention of the intersectional study of race, ethnicity and gender diversity so that all future iterations of the course are focused on these topics.
- b. Recommendation: The Subcommittee suggests that the department include in the descriptions of the midterm and final exams (syllabus pg. 7) a mention of how REGD topics/ELOs will be covered/assessed in these important assignments.
- c. Recommendation: The Subcommittee recommends that the department consider altering the statement about how the course address the GEN Goals/ELOs (syllabus pg. 3). They suggest providing more information about how indigeneity is integrated with race, ethnicity, and gender rather than explaining the study of indigeneity as something that is done "alongside" REGD topics.

As a reminder, contingencies (in bold above) must be addressed and resubmitted via curriculum.osu.edu before a course can move forward in the approval process. Recommendations (in italics above) should be implemented when the course is next taught. I will return Russian 3750 to the department queue via curriculum.osu.edu in order to address the Subcommittee's requests.

Should you have any questions about the feedback of the Subcommittee, please feel free to contact Richard Fletcher (faculty Chair of the REGD Subcommittee; cc'd on this e-mail), or me.

Best,
Rachel
