Program Learning Goals

Note: these are required for all undergraduate degree programs and majors now, and will be required for all graduate and professional degree programs in 2012. Nonetheless, all programs are encouraged to complete these now.

Program Learning Goals

- Students will have a heightened understanding of the histories and contributions of diverse racial and cultural sub-groups of Asian Americans.
- Students will become more aware of the relationships among these groups and between them and non-Asian American populations.
- Students will gain a deeper understanding of theoretical perspectives that explain and complicate the construction and reconstruction of race, ethnicity, and other cultural identifications, particularly sexual orientation, class, and gender over time
- Students will become more aware of their own identities and roles in society.
- Students will develop critical awareness of historical and contemporary research and research methodologies associated with Asian American Studies.

Assessment

Assessment plan includes student learning goals, how those goals are evaluated, and how the information collected is used to improve student learning. An assessment plan is required for undergraduate majors and degrees. Graduate and professional degree programs are encouraged to complete this now, but will not be required to do so until 2012.

Is this a degree program (undergraduate, graduate, or professional) or major proposal? No

Program Specializations/Sub-Plans

If you do not specify a program specialization/sub-plan it will be assumed you are submitting this program for all program specializations/sub-plans.

Pre-Major

Does this Program have a Pre-Major? No
