Course Change Information

What change is being proposed? (If more than one, what changes are being proposed?)

Moving the course into the Foundation Historical or Cultural Studies (3 credits)

What is the rationale for the proposed change(s)?

The committee for the GE Citizenship Theme did not consider the course fitting for the theme. After deliberation, based on the committee feedback, we decided that this course will fit best in the Cultural Studies Foundation.

What are the programmatic implications of the proposed change(s)?

(e.g. program requirements to be added or removed, changes to be made in available resources, effect on other programs that use the course?)

NA

Is approval of the request contingent upon the approval of other course or curricular program request? No

Is this a request to withdraw the course? No

Course Description

Why do spies fascinate us? From efforts to hack U.S. presidential elections to data surveillance on social media, from WikiLeaks to Maria Butina, we are continually confronted in the media by stories of espionage. And although the Cold War ended over three decades ago, in America today, Russia is—rightly or wrongly—often perceived as the spying enemy.

This course explores the concept of the spy in the cultural imaginations of both Russia and the West as a means for thinking about national and global citizenship. We will look at stories of real and fictional spies and hackers, as well as at constructions of otherness and the enemy, to understand how espionage both troubles and clarifies our understandings of citizenship in a diverse and multi-national world. We will trace how the spy film or tv show has changed over the last century and how it continues to drive American culture today, particularly in the wake of Russia's brutal war against Ukraine that began in 2014. Topics will include the ethics of espionage, stereotyping in popular culture, the relationship between fiction and the political imagination, Western (especially American) and Russian views of each other, the Cold War, media portrayal of Russian-American relations, diversity and representation in the media, privacy, security, war, and justice. We'll look at major popular spy thrillers alongside readings on real Cold-War and post-Soviet espionage practices in Russia and the U.S. in order to ask how history intertwines with culture. We will consider what spy narratives imply about power structures in society and the subjugation of populations along lines of class, race, gender, sexuality, and ability status. And how might new spy stories, like the Marvel film Black Widow (2021), continue to shape our cultural views and beliefs about citizenship today? We'll also keep a close eye on any relevant current events, including Russian espionage and aggression in Ukraine.

Course Goals and Expected Learning Outcomes

By the end of this course, students should successfully be able to:

- GOAL 1: Students will understand the history of the espionage tale and its common tropes in both Russian culture and American culture.
 - LO 1 Students will be able to list and describe the characteristics of major fictional spies in Russian culture and American culture.
 - LO 2 Students will be able to compare and contrast the tropes of American/Western espionage tales with those of Russian ones.
 - LO 3 Students will be able to analyze the historical and cultural factors that account for differences between the development of Russian and American/Western espionage tales.
- GOAL 2: Students will be able to engage with espionage themes in films, television episodes, and journalism using the analytical skills of scholars of cultural studies.
 - LO 1 Students will be able to assess the dynamic relationship between the fictional spy stories of popular culture and the historical circumstances in which they were created and received.
 - LO 2 Students will be able to interpret what spy stories imply about such concepts as power structures in society; nationalism, fear, and the enemy; and the subjugation of populations along lines of class, race, gender, sexuality, and ability status.
 - LO 3 Students will be able to use the cultural tropes proper to the spy story as a lens to evaluate contemporary media narratives about Russian spies and hackers.
- GOAL 3: Students will know the broad history of the Cold War and its immediate pre- and post-history, with specific attention to intelligence efforts between Russia and the United States (and its Western allies).
 - LO 1 Students will be able to describe the basic function and operations of the KGB and its predecessors and successors.
 - LO 2 Students will be able to identify and explain strengths and weaknesses in American intelligence efforts toward the USSR and Soviet intelligence efforts toward the U.S. during the Cold War.
 - LO 3 Students will be able to identify and describe the work of key historical intelligence agents and double agents working between Russia and the U.S. (and its Western allies), such as Oleg Gordievsky and Kim Philby.
 - LO 4 Students will be able to evaluate how political developments, such as the fall of the USSR or the presidency of Vladimir Putin, have influenced espionage practices.

- GOAL 4: Students will appreciate the role of historical circumstances, the media, and popular culture in shaping Russian perspectives on America and American perspectives on Russia over time.

- LO 1 Students will be able to recognize and critique cultural stereotypes underlying films and tv episodes.
- LO 2 Students will be able to show how both fictional and non-fictional spy stories shape national narratives about enemies, otherness, nationhood, and power, including recent trends of “Russophobia” in the American media.
- LO 3 Students will be able to reflect on the ways in which their own perceptions are shaped by popular culture narratives, including their understandings of power, gender, sexuality, and national cultures.

General Education Goals and Expected Learning Outcomes

As part of the Historical and Cultural Studies category of the General Education curriculum, this course is designed to prepare students to be able to do the following:

- GOAL 1: Successful students will evaluate significant cultural phenomena and ideas to develop capacities for aesthetic and cultural response, judgment, interpretation, and evaluation.
- LO 1 Analyze and interpret selected major forms of human thought, culture, ideas, or expression.
- LO 2 Describe and analyze selected cultural phenomena and ideas across time using a diverse range of primary and secondary sources and an explicit focus on different theories and methodologies.
- LO 3 Use appropriate sources and methods to construct an integrated and comparative perspective of cultural periods, events, or ideas that influence human perceptions, beliefs, and behaviors.
- LO 4 Evaluate social and ethical implications in cultural studies.

This course fulfills the Cultural Studies GE outcomes by guiding students in the study of espionage as a historical and cultural category: both the history of espionage as it has been practiced by security forces in Russia/USSR and the West, and the culture of espionage as it has been portrayed in film and television in Russia/USSR and the West.

This course also fulfills the goals and learning outcomes for GE Legacy Diversity: Global Studies and Visual and Performing Arts:

GE LEGACY DIVERSITY: GLOBAL STUDIES

- GOAL: Students understand the pluralistic nature of institutions, society, and culture in the United States and across the world in order to become educated, productive, and principled citizens.

- LO 1 Students understand some of the political, economic, cultural, physical, social, and philosophical aspects of one or more of the world's nations, peoples, and cultures outside the U.S.
- LO 2 Students recognize the role of national and international diversity in shaping their own attitudes and values as global citizens.

This course fulfills the Diversity: Global Studies GE outcomes because students examine aspects of the political, cultural, and social diversity of Russia of the past century through study of Russian films and television shows, as well as history of espionage in Russia.

GE LEGACY VISUAL AND PERFORMING ARTS

- GOAL: Students evaluate significant works of art in order to develop capacities for aesthetic and historical response and judgment; interpretation and evaluation; critical listening, reading, seeing, thinking, and writing; and experiencing the arts and reflecting on that experience.

LO 1 Students analyze, appreciate, and interpret significant works of art.

LO 2 Students engage in informed observation and/or active participation in a discipline within the visual, spatial, and performing arts.

This course fulfills the Visual and Performing Arts GE outcomes because students analyze, appreciate, and interpret significant Russian and Western films, television episodes, and propaganda images in active-learning tasks, quizzes, and larger assignments. Learning and practicing the tools for critical analysis of visual materials are a focus of the course.

HOW THIS ONLINE COURSE WORKS

Mode of delivery: This course is 100% online and asynchronous. There are no required sessions when you must be logged in to Carmen at a scheduled time.

Pace of online activities: This course is divided into weekly modules that are released every Monday, with weekly assignments due every Sunday at midnight. Students are expected to keep pace with weekly deadlines but may schedule their efforts freely within that time frame.

Credit hours and work expectations: This is a 3-credit-hour course. According to Ohio State policy (go.osu.edu/credithours), students should expect around 3 hours per week of time spent on direct instruction (instructor content and Carmen activities, for example) in addition to 6 hours of homework (reading and assignment preparation, for example) to receive a grade of (C) average.

Attendance and participation requirements: Because this is an online course, your attendance is based on your online activity and participation. The following is a summary of students' expected participation:

- Participating in online activities for attendance: AT LEAST ONCE PER WEEK
You are expected to log in to the course in Carmen every week. (During most weeks you will probably log in many times.) If you have a situation that might cause you to miss an entire week of class, discuss it with me as soon as possible.

- Office hours and live sessions: OPTIONAL
All live, scheduled events for the course, including my office hours, are optional.
- Participating in discussion forums: 1+ TIMES PER WEEK
As part of your participation, each week you can expect to post at least once as part of our substantive class discussion (in the form of active-learning tasks) on the week's topics.

COURSE MATERIALS AND TECHNOLOGIES

Textbooks

None

Other Fees or Requirements

You do not need to purchase any books for this class. But you will need to stream some of our films and tv episodes for a small fee from companies such as Amazon, Apple, Google, etc. (Sadly, for legal reasons, OSU no longer allows instructors to make films available to students if those films can be streamed commercially.) Many of our other materials are available for free on various sites (see links on Carmen). Your total cost of materials for this course should be under $15.

Course Technology

Technology support

For help with your password, university email, Carmen, or any other technology issues, questions, or requests, contact the Ohio State IT Service Desk. Standard support hours are available at ocio.osu.edu/help/hours, and support for urgent issues is available 24/7.

- Self-Service and Chat support: ocio.osu.edu/help
- Phone: 614-688-4357(HELP)
- Email: servicedesk@osu.edu
- TDD: 614-688-8743

Technology skills needed for this course

- Basic computer and web-browsing skills
- Navigating Carmen (go.osu.edu/canvasstudent)

- CarmenZoom virtual meetings (go.osu.edu/zoom-meetings)
- Recording, editing, and uploading video (go.osu.edu/video-assignment-guide)

Required equipment

- Computer: current Mac (MacOs) or PC (Windows 10) with high-speed internet connection
- Webcam: built-in or external webcam, fully installed and tested
- Microphone: built-in laptop or tablet mic or external microphone
- Other: a mobile device (smartphone or tablet) to use for BuckeyePass authentication

Required software

- Microsoft Office 365: All Ohio State students are now eligible for free Microsoft Office 365. Full instructions for downloading and installation can be found at go.osu.edu/office365help.

Carmen access

You will need to use BuckeyePass (buckeyepass.osu.edu) multi-factor authentication to access your courses in Carmen. To ensure that you are able to connect to Carmen at all times, it is recommended that you take the following steps:

- Register multiple devices in case something happens to your primary device. Visit the BuckeyePass - Adding a Device help article for step-by-step instructions (go.osu.edu/add-device).
- Request passcodes to keep as a backup authentication option. When you see the Duo login screen on your computer, click Enter a Passcode and then click the Text me new codes button that appears. This will text you ten passcodes good for 365 days that can each be used once.
- Download the Duo Mobile application (go.osu.edu/install-duo) to all of your registered devices for the ability to generate one-time codes in the event that you lose cell, data, or Wi-Fi service

If none of these options will meet the needs of your situation, you can contact the IT Service Desk at 614-688-4357(HELP) and IT support staff will work out a solution with you.

See course schedule below for due dates.

Descriptions of Major Course Assignments

Active-Learning Tasks (weekly)

Description: You will have one or more active-learning tasks due each Sunday at 11:59pm. These tasks will usually consist of either a structured small-group discussion or a small-group activity (such as collectively annotating a scene from a film) and will be assigned and facilitated on Carmen. Your contributions to the tasks will be assessed for accuracy, meaningfulness, and level of engagement. Each week's task or tasks will be worth a total of 30 points, so that each week's work receives equal weight, even if one week requires one larger task, while a different week requires two smaller tasks. Although these tasks are generally done in small groups, you will not need to coordinate with your group members to complete your work. Your lowest grade(s) for one week's active learning task(s) will be dropped at the end of the semester. (Please note that Carmen does not allow me to make this adjustment automatically, but I will do it manually after the final week of the course.)

Academic integrity and collaboration: You may consult course materials to complete this assignment, but collaboration is not permitted. Academic misconduct rules apply.

Quizzes (weekly)

Description: You will have one multiple-choice and short-answer quiz due each Sunday at 11:59pm. These quizzes will cover all of our assigned materials for the week: any film or tv episodes, readings, and lectures. You may reference our course materials when taking these quizzes, but you may not collaborate with other people. These quizzes are meant to aid your learning process, rather than to be punitive, and thus, you may take each of them an unlimited number of times (even beyond the weekly deadline). Your one lowest quiz grade for the semester will be dropped automatically in Carmen.

Academic integrity and collaboration: You may consult course materials to complete this assignment, but collaboration is not permitted. Academic misconduct rules apply.

Russia Reflection Essay

Description: At the beginning of the semester, you will write one fairly informal Russia Reflection Essay on your perceptions of Russia and expectations for your learning this semester.

Academic integrity and collaboration: Collaboration is not permitted. Academic misconduct rules apply.

Exams (3)

Description: You will have three exams designed to assess your learning and further your understanding of what we have covered in the course. These exams will consist of short-response and short-essay questions, and you may reference course materials—though you may not collaborate with other people—when taking them. The exams will be made available to you at least one week before they are due. If you have kept up with the course material, you can expect to spend about one hour on each one. Note that they are not timed.

Academic integrity and collaboration: You may consult course materials to complete this assignment, but collaboration is not permitted. Academic misconduct rules apply.

Soviet Cultural Officer Report

Description: For the Soviet Cultural Officer Report, you will assess a scene from one of our films or tv episodes from the perspective of a Soviet official reporting on the scene's ideological suitability for showing in the USSR. You will be provided with a template of questions to answer in short paragraphs, for a total of about 500–650 words.

Academic integrity and collaboration: You may consult course materials to complete this assignment, but collaboration is not permitted. Academic misconduct rules apply.

Create-Your-Own Russian Spy Project

Description: The Create-Your-Own Russian Spy Project asks you to complete a survey in which you pitch a new Russian spy tv or film character to an American media company like Netflix, Amazon, Hulu, or Sony. As with the Soviet Cultural Officer Report, you will write about 500–650 words total in response to several specific questions. You will be asked to show critical awareness of both the Western and Russian traditions of portraying Russian spies. In part, your aim is to correct misconceptions about Russian spies by better aligning your fictional spy with historical truth.

Academic integrity and collaboration: You may consult course materials to complete this assignment, but collaboration is not permitted. Academic misconduct rules apply.

Semester Reflection Essay

Description: Your second small final assignment for the course is a short and fairly informal Semester Reflection Essay. This is an exercise in metacognition in which you reflect on something you learned this semester that you want to remember in the future.

Academic integrity and collaboration: You may consult course materials to complete this assignment, but collaboration is not permitted. Academic misconduct rules apply.

Late Assignments

I fully understand that students are busy people with complex lives, and I am generally flexible with deadlines, so long as students are in contact with me about their needs. For any deadline in this class you may request a 48-hour deadline extension via a Google form that is linked on our Carmen homepage. All deadline requests that go through this form are automatically granted. You do not need to disclose to me the reasons for your extension request if you do not want to. If you require an extension of more than 48 hours, please contact me directly. Note that you will not see a change to the deadline you see in Carmen, but if you submit the form, you may trust that I have extended your deadline.

Grading Scale

Instructor Feedback and Response Time

I am providing the following list to give you an idea of my intended availability throughout the course. (Remember that you can call 614-688-4357(HELP) at any time if you have a technical problem.)

- Grading and feedback: For regular weekly assignments, you can generally expect feedback within 3 days. For larger assignments, you can generally expect feedback within 10 days.
- Email: I will reply to emails within 24 hours on days when class is in session at the university.
- Discussion board: I will check and reply to messages in the discussion boards every 24 hours on school days.

OTHER COURSE POLICIES

Discussion and Communication Guidelines

The following are my expectations for how we should communicate as a class. Above all, please remember to be respectful and thoughtful.

- Writing style: While there is no need to participate in class discussions as if you were writing a research paper, you should remember to write using good grammar, spelling, and punctuation. A more conversational tone is fine for non-academic topics.
- Tone and civility: Let's maintain a supportive learning community where everyone feels safe and where people can disagree amicably. Remember that sarcasm doesn't always come across online.
- Citing your sources: When we have academic discussions, please cite your sources to back up what you say. For the textbook or other course materials, list at least the title and page numbers. For online sources, include a link.
- Backing up your work: Consider composing your academic posts in a word processor, where you can save your work, and then copying into the Carmen discussion.

Academic Integrity Policy

See Descriptions of Major Course Assignments, above, for my specific guidelines about collaboration and academic integrity in the context of this online class.

It is the responsibility of the Committee on Academic Misconduct to investigate or establish procedures for the investigation of all reported cases of student academic misconduct. The term "academic misconduct" includes all forms of student academic misconduct wherever committed; illustrated by, but not limited to, cases of plagiarism and dishonest practices in connection with examinations. Instructors shall report all instances of alleged academic misconduct to the committee (Faculty Rule 3335-5-487). For additional information, see the Code of Student Conduct <http://studentlife.osu.edu/csc/>.

If I suspect that a student has committed academic misconduct in this course, I am obligated by university rules to report my suspicions to the Committee on Academic Misconduct. If COAM determines that you have violated the university's Code of Student Conduct (i.e., committed academic misconduct), the sanctions for the misconduct could include a failing grade in this course and suspension or dismissal from the university. If you have any questions about the above policy or what constitutes academic misconduct in this course, please contact me.

Other sources of information on academic misconduct (integrity) to which you can refer include:

- Committee on Academic Misconduct web page (go.osu.edu/coam)
- Ten Suggestions for Preserving Academic Integrity (go.osu.edu/ten-suggestions)

Student Services and Advising

University Student Services can be accessed through BuckeyeLink. More information is available here: <https://contactbuckeyelink.osu.edu/>

Advising resources for students are available here: <http://advising.osu.edu>

Copyright for Instructional Materials

The materials used in connection with this course may be subject to copyright protection and are only for the use of students officially enrolled in the course for the educational purposes associated with the course. Copyright law must be considered before copying, retaining, or disseminating materials outside of the course.

Statement on Title IX

Title IX makes it clear that violence and harassment based on sex and gender are Civil Rights offenses subject to the same kinds of accountability and the same kinds of support applied to offenses against other protected categories (e.g., race). If you or someone you know has been sexually harassed or assaulted, you may find the appropriate resources at <http://titleix.osu.edu> or by contacting the Ohio State Title IX Coordinator at titleix@osu.edu

Commitment to a Diverse and Inclusive Learning Environment

The Ohio State University affirms the importance and value of diversity in the student body. Our programs and curricula reflect our multicultural society and global economy and seek to provide opportunities for students to learn more about persons who are different from them. We are committed to maintaining a community that recognizes and values the inherent worth and dignity of every person; fosters sensitivity, understanding, and mutual respect among each member of our community; and encourages each individual to strive to reach his or her own potential. Discrimination against any individual based upon protected status, which is defined as age, color, disability, gender identity or expression, national origin, race, religion, sex, sexual orientation, or veteran status, is prohibited.

Statement on Religious Accommodations

It is Ohio State's policy to reasonably accommodate the sincerely held religious beliefs and practices of all students. The policy permits a student to be absent for up to three days each academic semester for reasons of faith or religious or spiritual belief.

Students planning to use religious beliefs or practices accommodations for course requirements must inform the instructor in writing no later than 14 days after the course begins. The instructor is then responsible for scheduling an alternative time and date for the course requirement, which may be before or after the original time and date of the course requirement. These alternative accommodations will remain confidential. It is the student's responsibility to ensure that all course assignments are completed.

Land Acknowledgement

We would like to acknowledge the land that The Ohio State University occupies is the ancestral and contemporary territory of the Shawnee, Potawatomi, Delaware, Miami, Peoria, Seneca, Wyandotte, Ojibwe and Cherokee peoples. Specifically, the university resides on land ceded in the 1795 Treaty of Greenville and the forced removal of tribes through the Indian Removal Act of 1830. I/We want to honor the resiliency of these tribal nations and recognize the historical contexts that has and continues to affect the Indigenous peoples of this land.

More information on OSU's land acknowledgement can be found here:

<https://mcc.osu.edu/about-us/land-acknowledgement>

Your Mental Health

As a student you may experience a range of issues that can cause barriers to learning, such as strained relationships, increased anxiety, alcohol/drug problems, feeling down, difficulty concentrating and/or lack of motivation. These mental health concerns or stressful events may lead to diminished academic performance or reduce a student's ability to participate in daily activities. The Ohio State University offers services to assist you with addressing these and other concerns you may be experiencing. If you or someone you know are suffering from any of the aforementioned conditions, you can learn more about the broad range of confidential mental health services available on campus via the Office of Student Life's Counseling and Consultation Service (CCS) by visiting ccs.osu.edu or calling 614-292-5766. CCS is located on the 4th Floor of the Younkin Success Center and 10th Floor of Lincoln Tower. You can reach an on call counselor when CCS is closed at 614-292-5766 and 24 hour emergency help is also available 24/7 by dialing 988 to reach the Suicide and Crisis Lifeline.

ACCESSIBILITY ACCOMMODATIONS FOR STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES

Requesting Accommodations

The University strives to make all learning experiences as accessible as possible. In light of the current pandemic, students seeking to request COVID-related accommodations may do so through the university's request process, managed by Student Life Disability Services. If you anticipate or experience academic barriers based on your disability (including mental health, chronic or temporary medical conditions), please let me know immediately so that we can privately discuss options. To establish reasonable accommodations, I may request that you register with Student Life Disability Services. After registration, make arrangements with me as soon as possible to discuss your accommodations so that they may be implemented in a timely fashion. SLDS contact information: slds@osu.edu; 614-292-3307; slds.osu.edu; 098 Baker Hall, 113 W. 12th Avenue.

Accessibility of Course Technology

This online course requires use of CarmenCanvas (Ohio State's learning management system) and other online communication and multimedia tools. If you need additional services to use these technologies, please request accommodations with your instructor.

		Choose-Your-Own week (aka, Russian Spies Are Everywhere): This week, I'd like you to watch a Russian spy-themed movie or tv episode of your choice and apply to it what you've learned from our class. You'll find on Carmen for this week a list of possible movies or episodes you could watch, though the list will not be exclusive. You'll then engage in discussion with your classmates on Carmen of how the media you watched illuminates or challenges the themes and concerns of our course. This week is about moving beyond this course and applying our knowledge to new materials. Due: active-learning task(s) and quiz on Sunday, Apr 14 at 11:59pm
14	Apr 15–21	Lecture topics: reflecting back on the semester, concluding thoughts, suggestions for further learning No assigned reading or viewing material for our final week. Instead, we will use this time for synthesizing and reflecting on the topics we've covered this semester. Plus, you can use the time to work on your Exam #3, Create-Your-Own Russian Spy Project, and Semester Reflection Essay. You will still have lecture material posted to Carmen and an active-learning task and quiz due this week even though you don't have any outside content to watch or read. Due: active-learning task(s), quiz, and Exam #3 on Sunday, Apr 21 at 11:59pm

Final assignments (Create-Your-Own Russian Spy Project and Semester Reflection Essay) due on Monday, April 29 at 11:59pm.

GE Foundation Courses

Overview

Courses that are accepted into the General Education (GE) Foundations provide introductory or foundational coverage of the subject of that category. Additionally, each course must meet a set of Expected Learning Outcomes (ELO). Courses may be accepted into more than one Foundation, but ELOs for each Foundation must be met. It may be helpful to consult your Director of Undergraduate Studies or appropriate support staff person as you develop and submit your course.

This form contains sections outlining the ELOs of each Foundation category. You can navigate between them using the Bookmarks function in Acrobat. Please enter text in the boxes to describe how your class meets the ELOs of the Foundation(s) to which it applies. Because this document will be used in the course review and approval process, you should use language that is clear and concise and that colleagues outside of your discipline will be able to follow. Please be as specific as possible, listing concrete activities, specific theories, names of scholars, titles of textbooks etc. Your answers will be evaluated in conjunction with the syllabus submitted for the course.

Expected Learning Outcome 1.3: Successful students are able to employ the processes of science through exploration, discovery, and collaboration to interact directly with the natural world when feasible, using appropriate tools, models, and analysis of data. Please explain the 1-credit hour equivalent experiential component included in the course: e.g., traditional lab, course-based research experiences, directed observations, or simulations. Please note that students are expected to analyze data and report on outcomes as part of this experiential component. (50-1000 words)

Course Subject & Number: _____

GOAL 2: Successful students will discern the relationship between the theoretical and applied sciences, while appreciating the implications of scientific discoveries and the potential impacts of science and technology.

Expected Learning Outcome 2.1: Successful students are able to analyze the inter-dependence and potential impacts of scientific and technological developments. Please link this ELO to the course goals and topics and indicate specific activities/assignments through which it will be met. (50-700 words)

Expected Learning Outcome 2.2: Successful students are able to evaluate social and ethical implications of natural scientific discoveries. Please link this ELO to the course goals and topics and indicate specific activities/assignments through which it will be met. (50-700 words)

Course Subject & Number: _____

Expected Learning Outcome 2.3: Successful students are able to critically evaluate and responsibly use information from the natural sciences. Please link this ELO to the course goals and topics and indicate specific activities/ assignments through which it will be met. (50-700 words)

Course Subject & Number: _____

GE Rationale: Foundations: Mathematical and Quantitative Reasoning (or Data Analysis) (3 credits)

Requesting a GE category for a course implies that the course fulfills all expected learning outcomes (ELOs) of that GE category. To help the reviewing panel evaluate the appropriateness of your course for the Foundations: Mathematical and Quantitative Reasoning (or Data Analysis), please answer the following questions for each ELO.

A. Foundations

Please explain in 50-500 words why or how this course is introductory or foundational in the study of Mathematical & Quantitative Reasoning (or Data Analysis).

B. Specific Goals for Mathematical & Quantitative Reasoning/Data Analysis

Goal: Successful students will be able to apply quantitative or logical reasoning and/or mathematical/statistical analysis methodologies to understand and solve problems and to communicate results.

Expected Learning Outcome 1.1: Successful students are able to use logical, mathematical and/or statistical concepts and methods to represent real-world situations. Please link this ELO to the course goals and topics and indicate specific activities/ assignments through which it will be met. (50-700 words)

Course Subject & Number: _____

Expected Learning Outcome 1.2: Successful students are able to use diverse logical, mathematical and/or statistical approaches, technologies, and tools to communicate about data symbolically, visually, numerically, and verbally. Please link this ELO to the course goals and topics and indicate specific activities/assignments through which it will be met. (50-700 words)

Expected Learning Outcome 1.3: Successful students are able to draw appropriate inferences from data based on quantitative analysis and/or logical reasoning. Please link this ELO to the course goals and topics and indicate specific activities/assignments through which it will be met. (50-700 words)

Course Subject & Number: _____

Expected Learning Outcome 1.4: Successful students are able to make and evaluate important assumptions in estimation, modeling, logical argumentation, and/or data analysis. Please link this ELO to the course goals and topics and indicate specific activities/assignments through which it will be met. (50-700 words)

Expected Learning Outcome 1.5: Successful students are able to evaluate social and ethical implications in mathematical and quantitative reasoning. Please link this ELO to the course goals and topics and indicate specific activities/assignments through which it will be met. (50-700 words)
