Good morning,

On Tuesday, January 16th, the Arts and Humanities 1 Subcommittee of the ASC Curriculum Committee reviewed a new course request for History of Art 3050.

I am pleased to report that the Subcommittee unanimously approved the request with two recommendations:

- Recommendation: The Subcommittee recommends providing further clarity within the course schedule that details to students their exact expectations each week. While they recognize that topics are mentioned, they believe it would be beneficial for students to see, in greater detail, how they will engage more deeply on these topics.
- Recommendation: The Subcommittee offers the friendly recommendation to update the Mental Health statement and Title IX statement within the course syllabus. The most up-to-date statements can be found here on the ASC Curriculum and Assessment website.

History of Art 3050 will continue through the approval process. My office will advance the course to OAA.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to reach out to David Staley, faculty Chair of the Arts and Humanities 1 Subcommittee, or me.

All my best,
Michael

I acknowledge that the land that The Ohio State University occupies is the ancestral and contemporary territory of the Shawnee, Potawatomi, Delaware, Miami, Peoria, Seneca, Wyandotte, Ojibwe and Cherokee peoples. Specifically, the university resides on land ceded in the 1795 Treaty of Greenville and the forced removal of tribes through the Indian Removal Act of 1830. I honor the resiliency of these tribal nations and recognize the historical contexts that has and continues to affect the Indigenous peoples of this land.
