Good morning Beth and MaryKatherine,

On Tuesday, January 16th, the Arts and Humanities 1 Subcommittee of the ASC Curriculum Committee reviewed a new distance learning request for English 2276.

I am pleased to report that the proposal was unanimously approved with two contingencies:

- Contingency: The Subcommittee asks that the course syllabus include the legacy General Education Goals, ELOs, and explanatory paragraph for the category which the course is approved within. As a reminder, English 2276 is approved for GEL category Cultures and Ideas and the Goals and ELOs can be found on the ASC Curriculum and Assessment Services website here.
- Contingency: The Subcommittee asks that the course syllabus include the full Goals and ELOs for the new General Education Theme: Citizenship for a Diverse and Just World. Currently, on pages 3-5 of the course syllabus, the information regarding the Citizenship category has been customized for the course content. It is a requirement of all General Education syllabi to have the Goals and ELOs for the GE categories they are approved within exactly as they were approved by the Office of Academic Affairs. The GEN Goals and ELOs can be found in an easy to copy-and-paste format on the ASC Curriculum and Assessment services website here.

I will return English 2276 to the departmental queue via curriculum.osu.edu in order to allow the department to address the Subcommittee's feedback.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to reach out to David Staley, faculty Chair of the Arts and Humanities 1 Subcommittee, or me.

All my best,

Michael

I acknowledge that the land that The Ohio State University occupies is the ancestral and contemporary territory of the Shawnee, Potawatomi, Delaware, Miami, Peoria, Seneca, Wyandotte, Ojibwe and Cherokee peoples. Specifically, the university resides on land ceded in the 1795 Treaty of Greeneville and the forced removal of tribes through the Indian Removal Act of 1830. I honor the resiliency of these tribal nations and recognize the historical contexts that has and continues to affect the Indigenous peoples of this land.
